College Success Workshop Series

Spring 2012

Weekly workshops to help you succeed!

January/February

Jan. 19th: Returning from Abroad, 6pm, Stamm

If you are returning from a program abroad and want a place to share, reflect, and to walk away with tools to aid in your processing, this workshop is for you! Dinner provided. RSVP to jcrowder@lclark.edu (offered again in the Fall 2012).

Jan. 24th: Time Management, 4pm, Thayer

If you found that your fall semester could have gone a little better had you managed your time differently, this may be the workshop for you.

Jan. 31st: Moving Off Campus, 4pm, Thayer

Do you meet the criteria to move off campus for the next academic year? Are you considering moving off campus? Come learn about your transition from on-campus housing to off and make the best decision for your housing needs!

Feb. 7th: Leadership Identity, 4pm, Monteith

Wanting to better understand your values as a leader? This workshop will help you identify them and tell you how you're doing in walking your talk.

Feb. 21st: Conflict Resolution, 4pm Thayer

Come learn how to resolve conflict through civility and open communication, whether in business or your personal life.

Feb. 28th: Navigating Office Politics, 4pm, Thayer

Every organization has politics; learning how to navigate them can make or break your experience. Come learn about strategies and what to watch out for.

No workshops in March, except by appointment.

April

Apr. 3rd: Paying for Grad School, 4pm, Geary

You thought paying for LC was tough—what about grad school? What are grad assistantships and internships and how can they minimize your out-of-pocket expenses? What scholarships are available and how does financial aid differ?

Apr. 10th and 11th: Finals Prep, 4pm, Geary

If you struggled to get through your fall finals and you're a little concerned about how to plan and succeed for spring finals, this workshop has your name all over it! Strategically held two weeks before finals to allow you to prepare for success!

Subject to change. Keep an eye on our flyers, Facebook, and our website!*
