LEWIS & CLARK COLLEGE GRADUATE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION & COUNSELING/CENTER FOR COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

OREGON WRITING PROJECT INVITATIONAL SUMMER INSTITUTE (ISI) 2014 APPLICATION

Na	me	School
Home Address/City			_Zip
School Address			_Zip
Position/Gr Level/Content Area
Summer E-mail
Spring/Fall E-mail if different
Home/Cell PhoneScho		School Phone
1.	What are your present teaching/ed	lucation duties?
2.	Have you had special training in writing instruction, either as an undergraduate or graduate student? If yes, please describe:
3.	What do you consider to be your st	trengths as a teacher of writing?
4.	What do you want to learn through	n your participation in the Writing Pro	ject?
5.		t kind of writing do you enjoy? (If you Writing Project, don't worry about ad
	(cont. next page)

As part of the Oregon Writing Project, you will be asked to participate in the following ways:

- Join Project Fellows in writing groups that respond to writing by others and welcome response to your own;
- Prepare and present at least one approach to the teaching of writing at the Summer Institute;
- Synthesize what you have learned during the Summer Institute and submit a position paper/article on the teaching of writing at the Institute's conclusion;
- With summer practice and district support, share what you learned during the summer with colleagues in your team, school, region, or district;
- During the 2014-2015 school year register for, attend, and actively contribute to monthly Practicum meetings with other Project Fellows for continued group support and learning;
- Use one of your professional days for a full-day Writing Project Renewal Day during the school year.

This application form is my commitment to take part in the year-long training activities of the Oregon Writing Project: the four-week Summer Institute; the schoolyear Practicum; and any school-district in-service program created in collaboration with my district and in consultation with the Oregon Writing Project.

EARLY decision applications due: March 14, 2014 If space is still available, second round applications due: April 18, 2014 Interviews begin March 17, 2014, or sooner Early decision participants notified: April 4, 2014, or sooner Institute dates: June 23 – July 18, 2014, with July 4 as a holiday

Signed,

Date _____

Please provide current information for the following:

Principal's Name (or immediate supervisor & title):

Curriculum & Instruction V-P:

(if your school has this administrative position)

Send your completed application to:

Linda Christensen, Director Oregon Writing Project/CCE — MSC 85 Lewis & Clark College 0615 SW. Palatine Hill Road Portland, Oregon 97219-7899