Further Description and Course Objectives

This course is designed to provide supervision to students in their school psychology public school practicum placements. The class provides supervisory feedback in addition to the on-site school supervision each student will receive. Class activities will be organized around student case presentations and planning of interventions. Issues directly related to the impact of multiculturalism and diversity in school settings will be addressed throughout the school year. Class discussions will provide support, critical feedback and recommendations. Additionally, class discussions will address topics of theory exploration, personal concerns and interpersonal communications. The content of group discussions will at all times be regarded as strictly confidential. This syllabus will be used in conjunction with the School Psychology Practicum Handbook found on the program website: www.lclark.edu/graduate.

The following National Association of School Psychologists training domains will be addressed in the CPSY 585 weekly seminars via assigned readings, class discussions and other activities.

- 1. Data-based decision making and accountability
- 2. Consultation and collaboration
- 3. Effective instruction and development of cognitive/academic skills
- 4. Socialization and development of life skills
- 5. Student diversity in development and learning
- 6. School and systems organization, policy development and climate
- 7. Prevention, crisis intervention and mental health
- 8. Home/school/community collaboration

Requirements of the Practicum Year

Fall Semester

- 1) Observing, helping and leading in counseling situations with individuals and groups within the school setting.
- 2) Assisting, observing and consulting in a special needs classroom (or other classroom chosen by your site supervisor) for a minimum of two hours a week.
- Attending, observing and contributing to regularly scheduled school consultation meetings (e.g. Child Study Team, Evaluation Planning, Individual Education Program Review, Special Education Team, or District – wide Training Opportunities).

Spring and Summer Semesters

- 1) Continuing with activities listed above for Fall Semester.
- 2) Participation in behavior and/or instructional consultation with parents, teachers, and other school personnel.
- 3) Engagement in assessment activities as approved by your CPSY campus supervisor and negotiated with your site supervisor.
- 4) Assisting your supervisor or other school personnel with group/classroom presentations (e.g. Social Skills or Conflict Resolution lesson) and leading a number of these yourself.

Spring Term: Assignment #1 NASP Efficacy Project

As part of Lewis and Clark's NASP recertification process, the department has been asked for documentation on measureable positive results you have seen in integrating your knowledge and skills in your work with children and families. For this assignment, please prepare an in-class oral presentation and 2-3 page essay as follows:

- 1. Leaving out identifying information, describe a child/adolescent with whom you have worked this year.
- 2. Describe the issues on which you have worked.

Providence Child Center

Rosemont

- 3. Describe your interventions, such as through IEP implementation and evaluation, counseling or consultation.
- 4. Describe measureable results. Ways you can measure results include: a review of records (attendance/discipline referrals/grades/standardized testing), reports and IEP data, and/or interviews with child, parent, teacher.
- 5. Provide a bibliography of your readings/resource materials, including at least one article from NASP Best Practices V.

Note: Work with your site supervisor to determine whether written parent permission and/or an IEP review are required for this project.

In-class oral presentation of this project will be Wednesday, April 13.

Written summary of this project is due Wednesday, April 20.

This project addresses the NASP training requirement that "candidates are able to integrate domains of knowledge and apply professional skills in delivering a comprehensive range of services as evidenced by measureable positive impact on children, youth and families."

Spring Term: Assignment #2 Ethical Dilemma

Give a class presentation describing an ethical dilemma you have observed at your site. Lead the practicum group in discussing ways this might be resolved. Prepare a 2-3 page (typed) review of this topic, utilizing NASP Ethical Standards as a resource.

Summer Term: Counseling Case Presentation

Over the course of your practicum year, arrange to provide once-weekly individual counseling sessions with a student at your site for a duration of at least 8 weeks. Written parent permission will be required for this assignment. At the completion of these weekly sessions you will give an oral presentation to the practicum class summarizing your work. Please include the following in your presentation:

- Reason the student was selected for counseling;
- Brief developmental and educational history of the student;

- Your counseling goals for the student, i.e. What change did you want to see?
- How (or if) you formed a therapeutic relationship with your student;
- The methodology/approach that you used;
- Any problems or challenges you experienced and what you did about these;
- Were your counseling goals attained? If not, give your hypothesis as to why not, plus suggestions to future counselors based on your knowledge of the student;
- Respond to practicum class questions, discussion, feedback.

You will work with the practicum class instructor to schedule your presentation and for any specific questions you may have. Please also prepare a one-page typed summary to be turned in at the completion of this project.

Grading

This class is graded on the basis of Credit/No Credit, with regular attendance and completion of all requirements at a satisfactory level of competence necessary to obtain credit. Each student will be evaluated in the areas of counseling and consultation competence, self-awareness, theoretical knowledge, integration and application, ethical considerations, effectiveness of oral and written communication, and openness to feedback. Judgments about what constitutes satisfactory performance will be made by the campus instructor in collaboration with the site supervisor. Final decisions will be made by the campus instructor. Failure to complete the required number of direct services hours by the conclusion of spring semester may result in a deferred grade. In regards to the Americans with Disabilities Act, any student who is in need of special arrangements in order to meet course requirements should contact the professor as soon as possible to arrange these accommodations.
