Introduction to School Psychology I: Overview of the history, systems, roles and functions of school psychologists. Readings in contemporary issues and historical events provide the foundation for graduate preparation in school psychology. Students observe the work of school psychologists and discuss the profession in a seminar format.

Course Goals and Objectives:
Students will become aware of the broad domains of competence necessary for school psychologists. They will participate in readings, class discussions, on-site observations of professional school psychologists, and written work concerning their observations and reactions.

Course Calendar:
We will meet from 5:30-8:30 five times during the fall semester; see page 2 for a schedule of classes and readings.

Course Requirements:
Students are expected to follow a school psychologist during daily work for ten hours. Students will keep a professional log of specific activities and a reaction paper is to be completed.
Students are expected to read the textbook and other required readings; they will complete outline/notes that are due at the beginning of class each week.
Students are expected to participate in class discussions.
Students will write a paper about their expected professional development over the next five years.
Portfolios for the SP program will be initiated.

Evaluation and Assessment:
Logs of observations/ reaction papers: 10 points
Outline/notes of readings: 20 points (5 points at the beginning of each class)
Attendance/participation: 50 points (10 for each class session)
If a student finds it necessary to miss a class, a 10-page edited paper will be required as make-up. Details will be discussed with the instructor as needed. If two classes are missed, the student will not pass the class.
Paper: 20 points
(100-80 points: Credit; 79 or fewer points: No credit; class must be repeated)
