

 Or

This course can fulfill a Strand 2 or Strand 3 requirement or be taken for non-credit registration.

- 1) Collect and analyze classroom observation video including understanding the hardware and software to support productive analysis
- 2) Collaboratively identify, explain and assess learning in classroom interactions
- 3) Turn observations into clear, specific, accurate, timely and meaningful feedback
- 4) Lead school based video analysis for teacher professional development

SB290 and the ESEA flexibility waiver offer possibilities for teachers and principals to give and receive the best quality feedback that the field of education has ever had. Ninety eight percent of teachers in Washington State, who have had the opportunity to be evaluated under the new flexibility waiver report that it is a vast improvement over the old evaluation system and most of those teachers rated it as one of the best things that has happened in their careers (AIR, 2011).