Does your initial teacher certification program conditionally admit students?

Yes

Provide a link to your website where additional information about admissions requirements can be found:

<http://www.lclark.edu/graduate/offices/admissions/apply/requirements/>

Please provide any additional comments about or exceptions to the admissions information provided above:

Students with undergraduate GPAs below 2.75 may still apply to the program. Our admissions website indicates the following in this scenario: "When reviewing applications, faculty members read transcripts carefully and thoughtfully. They will look for when the poorer grades were earned and in which courses. i.e., Did the student experience a poor first year adjustment? Where the poor grades earned in the major? Is the transcript over 15 years old and the student has done well at community colleges or in post-baccalaureate work? We suggest you include a letter of explanation with your application. We also recommend that you contact your program of interest to discuss if there are ways to strengthen your application."

Section I.b Undergraduate Requirements

Please provide the following information about your teacher preparation program's entry and exit requirements. (§205(a)(1)(C)(i))

SECTION I.c. ENROLLMENT

Provide the number of students in the teacher preparation program in the following categories. Note that you must report on the number of students by ethnicity and race separately. Individuals who are non-Hispanic/Latino will be reported in one of the race categories. Also note that individuals can belong to one or more racial groups, so the sum of the members of each racial category may not necessarily add up to the total number of students enrolled.

For the purpose of Title II reporting, an enrolled student is defined as a student who has been admitted to a teacher preparation program, but who has not completed the program during the academic year being reported. An individual who completed the program during the academic year being reported is counted as a program completer and not an enrolled student.

Additional guidance on reporting race and ethnicity data.

Section II Assurances

Please certify that your institution is in compliance with the following assurances. (§205(a)(1)(A)(iii), §206(b)) Note: Be prepared to provide documentation and evidence for your responses, when requested, to support the following assurances.

Preparation responds to the identified needs of the local educational agencies or States where the program completers are likely to teach, based on past hiring and recruitment trends.

Yes

Preparation is closely linked with the needs of schools and the instructional decisions new teachers face in the classroom.

Yes

Prospective special education teachers are prepared in core academic subjects and to instruct in core academic subjects.

NA

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students with disabilities.

Yes

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to limited English proficient students.

Yes

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students from low-income families.

Prospective teachers are prepared to effectively teach in urban and rural schools, as applicable.

Yes

Describe your institution's most successful strategies in meeting the assurances listed above:

We have coursework in ESOL and coursework or seminars in special education to help better prepare our candidates to meet the needs of their students who are limited English proficient and/or students with special needs. Our curriculum is aligned to the national SPA standards and we have both ESOL and SPED courses embedded in both of our preservice programs. We also have an M.A.T. with ESOL Endorsement program that allows beginning teachers to earn an ESOL endorsement alongside their M.A.T. degree program.

Section IV Low-Performing

Provide the following information about the approval or accreditation of your teacher preparation program.

Is your teacher preparation program currently approved or accredited?

Yes

If yes, please specify the organization(s) that approved or accredited your program:

State

NCATE

Is your teacher preparation program currently under a designation as "low-performing" by the state (as per section 207(a) of the HEA of 2008)?

No

Section V Use of Technology

Provide the following information about the use of technology in your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request.

Does your program prepare teachers to:

- integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction
Yes
- use technology effectively to collect data to improve teaching and learning
Yes
- use technology effectively to manage data to improve teaching and learning
Yes
- use technology effectively to analyze data to improve teaching and learning
Yes

and to use technology effectively to collect, manage, and analyze data in order to improve teaching and learning for the purpose of increasing student academic achievement. Include a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

Our teacher preparation program integrates use of technology for instruction and data use into both general and subject-/level-specific courses and activities. Candidates utilize various forms of technology to gather, enter, and represent learning. At the subject-area level, for example, students in our math program use SMART Board technology and graphing calculators. In language arts, they explore the use of podcasts and other audio and video technologies in literature. In addition, our candidates learn about critical issues associated with media use in schools. For example, they conduct a website or media analysis; explore issues related to creating blogs, websites, etc.; and discuss issues of online plagiarism. In fall 2015, candidates participated in technology workshops focused on using Excel in support of data analysis and reporting regarding student learning. As part of their edTPA assessment, they learned to create, edit, and upload video of their teaching into an eportfolio platform in a hand-on workshop. In the spring, all candidates successfully submitted their entire edTPA assessment into our e-portfolio system, TaskStream.

Section VI Teacher Training

Provide the following information about your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request.

Does your program prepare general education teachers to:

- teach students with disabilities effectively
Yes
- participate as a member of individualized education program teams
Yes
- teach students who are limited English proficient effectively
Yes

Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares general education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

In the EC/EL program, candidates take a two-course sequence (fall/spring) that focuses on teaching students with disabilities, including legal issues. In the ML/HS program, candidates take a yearlong course that focuses on students with disabilities, and they take a Legal Issues course in the fall that addresses Special Education law as well as General Ed law. Attention is given to the kind of language that is likely to appear in an IEP, so that our candidates are able to deeply understand plans. In addition, they are encouraged to attend an IEP meeting, if presented with the opportunity in the classroom (during the student-teaching experience).

Does your program prepare special education teachers to:

- teach students with disabilities effectively
NA
- participate as a member of individualized education program teams
NA

NA

Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares special education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

Section VII Contextual Information

Please use this space to provide any additional information that describes your teacher preparation program(s). You may also attach information to this report card. The U.S. Department of Education is especially interested in any evaluation plans or interim or final reports that may be available.

The Lewis & Clark Graduate School offers a 13-month post-baccalaureate program for pre-service teachers. The program is centered around a full-year student-teaching experience. Students are placed at a school site at the beginning of their program and remain at that site for the entire year. Our program reflects and exceeds the best practices in clinical preparation. Our data show, and our students report, that this extended time observing and practicing in the field well prepares them for their first years of teaching.
