MHC 540-01 | Career Counseling

Credit: 2 semester hours

Career development theories; current career trends, concerns, and programs/interventions for diverse client populations; career counseling strategies, tools, and resources (including Web-based resources); facilitation of client awareness, choice, and action with respect to career-related issues; integration of career counseling with mental health and addictions treatment. Emphasis is on developing a broad view of career as lifestyle, the mutual impact of career and cultures, and the practical application of theory and information in a professional counseling context.

Class Objectives

Create a collaborative and inquiry based learning community of engaged and self-directed learners involved in discovering, learning, discussing, and presenting formal exhibitions of the dynamics of career counseling.

Required Textbook:

Career Theory and Practice: Learning Through Cases Studies

Jane L. Swanson and Nadya A. Fouad, 2014

StrengthsQuest

Donald O. Clifton, PH.D., Edward Anderson, PH.D., with Laurie A. Schreiner, PH.D., 2006

Required Assessment Tools:

Strong Interest Inventory, Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI). Provided through the instructor.

Professionalism

A). Instructional Process: This course will function in a seminar/collaborative learning format where participants will actively and knowledgeably contribute to discussions. Students are responsible for leading class in text discussions and case studies.

B). Attendance: Mandatory for each class. All assignments must be completed, including class work. Call or email before class for excused absence and for assignment of additional work. Two absences fail class.

C). Participation: Because this class will function in a seminar and roundtable discussion format and not a lecture class, the active participation of all students is required. Participation will be evaluated not only on the quantity of what you say but also on the quality of your contribution to class and group discussions.

D). Professional Integrity: Please be diligent in using proper source citation for all work (APA style) and giving credit when and where due.

E). Assignments are evaluated on effort, professional quality, completeness, and timeliness. Late assignments are accepted with prior approval of instructor. Grade may be lowered for late assignments.

Attendance/Technology Policy

Class attendance is expected and required. Any missed class time may be made up by completing extra assignments as approved by the instructor. Missing more than ten percent of class time may result in failure to complete the class. This would be 3.0 hours for a 30 hour class (2 credits). In case of extreme hardship and also at the discretion of the instructor, a grade of incomplete may be given for an assignment or the entire course. In such cases, the work to be submitted in order to remove the incomplete must be documented appropriately and stated deadlines met. Students are expected to be on time to class and tardiness may be seen as an absence that requires make-up work.

Laptops and iPads may be used for taking notes. Research on these devices may be done outside of class time or during break. Cell phones are to be silenced during class sessions. If you are on call for work or have an ongoing emergency that you are monitoring which requires access to your cell phone during class sessions, please notify the instructor prior to class. Otherwise, it is expected that out of respect for conversations, presentations, group work or lecture, cell phones are silenced and tucked away.

Class Evaluation

Assignments for MHC 540

Career Profile/Auto-biography

The first evening of class, we will discuss and design what a career profile/auto-biography might look like and include. Please be considering/reflecting upon your own career choices, influences, barriers ~ we will prepare a list of potential considerations as you write your story. (This paper is worth 15 pts. and is due the third session of class)

A presentation of your career profile/auto-bio will be given to your Career Auto-Bio group. The purpose of these presentations will be to learn about the multiple intersections of our lives and how they may influence career decision-making. This profile will become a product for you to use during the assessment interpretations and will be shared with your “counselor” as they prepare for the interpretation session with you. This may also be useful in personal reflection and preparation for a job search. Consider this reflection/writing experience as you begin to integrate personal life and career life. (Presentation of profiles will begin the third session of class and will continue for 3-4 weeks depending upon everyone’s opportunity to present. These presentations are worth 10 pts.)

Career Development for Individuals/Triad Work

In your Small Group, every student will participate in all three roles:

Counselor: Invite your “client” to give you a bit of their career history from their career profiles. Interpret the MBTI OR Strong Interest Inventory. To do this effectively, you will need to review BOTH profiles prior to interpreting either the Strong or MBTI.

Client: Experience having your MBTI or Strong interpreted by one of your triad members. Allow yourself to experience the vulnerability of the interpretation. Pay particular attention to power differential.

Observer: You will take notes for the counselor. What went well in the interpretation? What suggestions would you make? Be sure to point out observations such as counselor body language, listening skills, reflection questions, and responses from counselor to client and client to counselor.

Each of these interpretations should take approximately 35-45 minutes – which does not include 10-15 minutes of feedback from the observer.

Paper Report and Reflection: Each student will write an independent 4-5 page, double spaced, 11-12 point font, 1” margins that includes knowledge gained from each vantage point (counselor, client, observer); insights into your own counseling practice; challenges you have yet to address in career counseling. This paper is due as part of the final session of class and is worth 25 points.

Career Counseling Techniques and Leadership

In a partnership with class colleagues, you will present a chapter from the text and lead the discussion on case studies included in the chapter. Design an activity and develop your own stirring questions for discussion. Each student needs to show leadership. Worth 25 points.

Final

You may use all the materials from the course and others if you choose (please properly site). Students must work alone on the final. The instructions for the final will be given out in class on the seventh session and requirements will be due the last session of class. Final is worth 30 points.

Counseling Psychology Course Structure Guidelines

For the purposes of this policy, the term 'instructor' applies to both full faculty and adjunct faculty. All instructors are expected to follow the policies on the Graduate Faculty Resources website, located at http://graduate.lclark.edu/faculty/resources/forms_and_resources/

Class Meetings

Classes must start and end according to the information in WebAdvisor. This applies to both individual sessions and actual dates of class. The graduate school does not have a finals week. The number of sessions of a course may vary and need to be worked out in collaboration with program directors for all applicable programs. Commons courses will take all program needs into account when and if possible.

Instructors must meet with their classes for the required number of hours, listed below:

1 semester hour = 15 hours

2 semester hours = 30 hours

3 semester hours = 45 hours

4 semester hours = 60 hours

Supervision courses offered at the Lewis & Clark Community Counseling Center may conform to the operating hours and service provision needs.

Syllabus

Each course needs to have a syllabus consistent with accreditation and graduate school standards. Syllabi must be emailed to CPSY office staff by the course's start date, and given to the students at the beginning of each course. For required content of syllabus, please see the Graduate School of Education and Counseling's Graduate Faculty Resources Handbook.

Instructor Attendance

Instructors should be present for all class sessions, including times when guest speakers are presenting. In the unlikely event that an instructor needs to be absent for professional reasons, a substitute for class needs to be arranged in advance. If an instructor needs to cancel a session, they need to contact the CPSY office. The office staff will email the students and appropriate program director(s). Missed class time must be made up either through another class session or through an additional activity to be determined by the instructor.

Course Evaluations

Instructors must require students to complete course evaluations during class time following established guidelines of the Graduate School of Education and Counseling.
