

GSEC Advanced Programs: Passrates, by program and matriculation AY

*Scores on exams other than those required for a student's license/endorsement are not included in this dataset

*n = Candidates attempting the exam

*Exam years, matriculation AY's and programs with n < 10 not reported through

*Average score & passrate calculated w/ highest score per student per exam.

*RepeaterAvgAttempts represents the average number of attempts made by students who did not pass a given exam on the first try

*Data as of 1/28/19

Program	Matriculation AY	TestTitle	ExaminationAY	n	Repeaters	RepeatersAvgAttempts	StdDevReptAttempts	#NotPassing	HS_Min	HS_Max	HS_Avg	HS_Passrate
ESOL	2014-2015	NES - ESOL - before 4/17/17	2013-2014	11	0			0	249	272	264.1	100.00%
			2014-2015	14	0			0	244	284	267.9	100.00%
	2015-2016	NES - ESOL - before 4/17/17	2015-2016	23	0			0	241	288	269.6	100.00%
			2016-2017	23	0			0	228	288	263.5	100.00%
			2017-2018	15	0			0	248	289	270.6	100.00%
School Counseling	2014-2015	NES - School Counselor - before 4/17/17	2015-2016	19	0			0	240	284	263.8	100.00%
			2016-2017	14	0			0	237	318	270.9	100.00%
	2016-2017	24	0			0	242	282	263.1	100.00%
School Psychology	2014-2015	Praxis - Praxis II School Psychologist - after 9/01/14	2015-2016	12	0			0	160	180	173.8	100.00%
			2016-2017	17	0			0	161	185	176.7	100.00%

Candidates' mean high scores on all NES exams are above national cut-score of 220. Candidates' mean high scores on the ETS School Psychologist exam score are above NASP passing score of 147. National ETS median score for 2016-17 is 170. Average Performance Range is 162-177 https://www.ets.org/s/praxis/pdf/uyps\_1617.pdf

Trends: Candidates' mean high scores on the NES ESOL and School Counselor exams have remained relatively steady over time. Candidates' mean high scores on the Praxis School Psychologist Exam have remained relatively steady over time. School Psychology candidates from the 2017-18 matriculation year are still active in the program and have not taken their exams yet. Exams for our reading interventionist and special education programs not reported through due to n < 10. Additional exam years for each matriculation year not reported through due to n < 10