“I am fond of saying the three-phase model is really five phases where the first three are all stabilization and are followed by working through of traumatic memory, and then by integration and rehabilitation. There is regular overlap of phasic work, but the bottom line is that trauma work waits until stabilization has been demonstrated.”

Essential Goals

Students will establish a foundation for their professional role as effective counselors through the study of theories, assessments, diagnosis and treatments focused on trauma informed work and the impact of trauma across the lifespan. Through readings, class discussions, small group dialogues, reflective writing and application to concurrent practicum students will develop awareness and intentionality in the conceptualization of clinical practices for working with diverse populations across a dearth of trauma impacting events. Awareness of a personal worldview including race, power and privilege will create a foundation of accountability when considering impact of treatment with clients. Increased awareness of self as an essential component in effective therapeutic interactions along with an intentional ongoing self-care practice will create optimum functioning in addressing trauma scenarios and impact with clients.

Format and Outcomes

Students will demonstrate their understanding of theories, diagnosis and treatment as well as clinical applications of interventive and effective modalities of therapy used in trauma informed clinical work across the lifespan. Emphasis will be placed on developing an empathetic and therapeutic relationship within the counseling context. Ethical principles, self-awareness, personal counseling style and honoring of diversity will be examined through readings, class discussions, reflective assignments, as well as various classroom activities. Recognition of positions of power and privilege, as well as ethical considerations of marginalization and discrimination in counseling interactions will be explored. The class will be developed as a community of collaborative learners where each will be an active in agent in their own learning experiences. Students will participate in generating a classroom environment where students support each other in a respectful, productive and resourceful manner as might be paralleled in the world of work.

Confidentiality and Ethical Guidelines

It is expected that students will follow the ethical guidelines as defined by the American Counselors Associations. Guidelines, parameters and boundaries are implemented into assignments and class discussions and it is expected that anything presented by students during class presentations, assignments and discussions will remain absolutely confidential. Failure to follow these guidelines may result in failure of the class.

Evaluation of Professional Qualities

Each student will be evaluated in the areas of demonstration of self-awareness, empathetic presence, ethical considerations, effectiveness of oral and written communication, and openness to feedback. This includes the expectation for completion of all assignments as well as a respectful and earnest attitude towards classmates, instructor and future clients. Judgments about what constitutes satisfactory performance will be made by the class instructor which if not satisfactory might result in an incomplete or failure of the class. If there are concerns about a student's work a meeting with the instructor will be schedule to discuss the dynamics and potential outcomes during the course of the semester.

Classroom Policies

Missing Assignments: Students are expected to do all assignments; any assignments not completed may result in a class incomplete or class failure. Missing class is loss of points earned in the missed class, make-up points may be earned through make-up assignment.

Make-up Assignments for missed class time: This will be defined by the instructor including date due. This when successfully completed will cover the reflective writing assignment and class activities of the day missed. Reading notes due that day will still be required or if giving a presentation will have to be made-up by presenting on another day.

Absences: Missing more than 10% of class time (3 hours, a graduate school policy) results in a failure to complete class and a student must withdraw from the class and retake the class.

Incompletion of Class: Incomplete work (not absences) will be assessed before the final class, including what is expected for completion and the timeframe for completion.

Laptops and Cell Phones: Laptops maybe used to write notes as needed in class. Laptops may not be used during the experiential activities unless designated by professor. Please come prepared to take hand written notes during these times. Cell phones must be silenced (if necessary vibrate ok) and text messaging is not allowed during class time unless emergency. If there is an emergency you may exit the class to use your cell. Laptops and cells phones may of course be used on breaks. If alternate learning needs require the use of a laptop please let the instructor know at the beginning of the semester.

Disability Statement

If you have a disability that may impact your academic performance, you may request accommodations by submitting documentation to the Student Support Services Office in the Albany Quadrangle (503-768-7192). After you have submitted documentation and filled out paperwork there for the current semester requesting accommodations, staff in that office will notify me of the accommodations for which you are eligible. If you have request for other accommodations and/or unique learning style please contact me for considered supports.

Assignments

Late Assignments: 2 point deduction for a late assignment per day.

1. Reading Highlights: 8 weeks x 10 points= 80 points

For each chapter assigned identify two intriguing ideas or compelling concepts or possibly points of confusion. These will be used in small group and classroom discussions.

Type: the quote- (a few sentences) from your highlights and identify the book, the Chapter and the page where you have taken your quote from. These will be used in class discussions and handed in as an assignment. You do not need to write any personal reflection on the quotes.

2. Reflective Writing: 8 weeks x 10 points each = 80 points

A quote or question from one of the assigned readings will be offered as a writing prompt at the beginning of class. Students will reflect on the meaning and what import it has for their clinical and professional work. This will be handed in each week.

3. Class participation and contributions to group activities and discussions.

Each group will also be asked to lead one of the all class discussions. 20 pts.

4. Book Report (Bruce Perry or other selection on syllabus = 20 points (Other selection listed)

A 2 page "book report" reflecting on some aspect of what you read in Bruce Perry's book (can focus on one or two chapters that engaged you) also include the import for your work as a clinician.

5. Presentation related to Trauma Impact on diverse populations related to Equity and Social Justice 40 pts.

Each group will create a 20 minute presentation on topic from list of topics provided in class. Define population-Describe trauma impacts unique and overlapping- Formulate some idea of trauma informed treatment/care-Use and cite 4-6 sources specific to this population (2 research articles within last 5 years, at least one book and possible online sites). The presentation will include import for professional work and a question for your classmates. Make copies of a one page outline of presentation as well as handouts for class mates.

6. Summative reflection paper = 60 pts. --- This assignment rated on cover page rubric.

A 4-5 page reflection identifying 6 key essential learnings, including your understanding of trauma informed care and how you will use this with clients in your clinical work. Also include impacts on you as a clinician and how you manage your self-care. Include references from class assigned readings (3 books) and 2 or more from outside sources.

Grading

300-270= A 269-240=B 239-210=C below a C (140) failure of class.

Unsayable

*Things are not nearly so comprehensible and sayable as we are generally made to believe.
Most experiences are unsayable; they come to fullness in a realm that words do not inhabit.
And most unsayable of all are works of art, which-alongside our transient lives-mysteriously endure.*

Rainer Maria Rilke

*A painting without negative space is like music without silence.
For music to have intensity, the silent part must be done well:
a still moment can be the highlight of the performance.*
