Winter break varies by district*

*Till last day of school

Candidates attend classes at Lewis & Clark from June to early August to prepare for practicum. In late August, mentors work with candidates onsite to plan and attend school in-service activities.

From September - mid-November mentors work with candidates a max of 10-15 hrs/wk on site, observing, co-planning and gradually co-teaching. Candidates attend relevant classes on

In mid-November, mentors support candidates every morning to lead-teach one a.m. class and complete an ed-TPA required teaching segment. Candidates attend afternoon classes & edTPA workshops on LC campus.

From January-spring break, mentors work with candidates a max of 15-20 hrs/wk as they continue to lead-teach the same morning class. Candidates attend afternoon LC classes. Tuesday-Thursday

After spring break, mentors can expect candidates to be onsite full time, gradually assuming lead-teaching for 3/4ths of mentor's teaching load. Candidates finish the school year with their mentor.
