

IN RECOGNITION OF
NATIONAL SUICIDE PREVENTION MONTH:

The Truth about Suicide: Real Stories of Depression in College

Students are invited to join Counseling Service staff for a video presentation that portrays the stories of real college students who have faced depression and suicidal thoughts. Come to better understand the public health challenge of suicide, and about what we can do to reduce the risk of suicide in those we care about.

After the video, our very own suicidologist and Chief Psychologist, Dr. John Hancock, will offer comments and be available to field questions and facilitate discussion.
