Catalogue Description:

Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training (ASIST) is an intensive, interactive and practice-dominated course designed to help caregivers recognize risk and learn how to intervene to prevent the immediate risk of suicide.

Instructors:

Kathy Wilson-Fey, MS. Phone: 503-758-7603. kwilsonfey@gmail.com

Leslie Rodgers, LCSW. Phone: 503-998-5590. lrdozers@lclark.edu

Course Calendar:

Class meets Feb 28-29, 2020 from 8:30am to 4:30pm. The class is structured around these topics:

Day 1 Morning Session: Overview of the training, connecting with your attitudes about suicide

Day 1 Afternoon Session: Understanding the needs of a person at risk

Day 2 Morning Session: Assisting practice

Day 2 Afternoon Session: Working together with other caregivers

Course Objectives:

By completing this workshop, participants will be able to:

- Recognize that caregivers and persons at risk are affected by personal and societal attitudes about suicide
- Discuss suicide with a person at risk in a direct manner
- Identify risk alerts and develop a safe plan related to them
- Demonstrate the skills required to intervene with a person at risk of suicide
- List the types of resources available to a person at risk of suicide
- Make a commitment to improving community resources and networking
- Recognize that suicide prevention is broader than suicide intervention, and includes life promotion and self-care for persons at risk as well as for caregivers

Required Readings/Materials

- ASIST Participant Workbook (distributed at the start of class)

Optional Readings/Materials

- NASP Resources http://www.nasponline.org/resources/crisis\_safety/suicide-resources.aspx
- CALM training (Access to Lethal Means) <http://training.sprc.org/>

Course Requirements:

Attendance/Preparation/Participation. Course attendance is mandatory for the entire two days of the class to receive a passing grade and/or ASIST certification. Students are expected to come prepared to each class session and actively participate in course discussions and activities.

Final Paper. Utilizing the information from the course, students will submit a paper that synthesizes information on suicide intervention, both in the professional environment and in the wider community. The paper should be written in such a way that it could be a useful resource to guide future practice and professional development. More information about the assignment is provided at the end of this syllabus.

An electronic copy of the paper is due on March 15, 2020 at 10pm.

Please email your paper to kwilsonfey@gmail.com

Course Grading

This is a graded course. Please note that a grade of Incomplete will only be given in rare circumstances, according to Lewis & Clark guidelines. When a grade of Incomplete is given, the student and course instructor will develop a contract and timeline for completing any remaining requirements to earn a letter grade. The contract must be signed by the student and course instructor.

Grade	Grade Explanation
A	Excellent
B	Good
F	Unsatisfactory performance, no credit awarded
I	Incomplete

Disability Services Statement:

If you have a disability that may affect your academic performance, you may request accommodations by submitting documentation to the Student Support Services Office in the Albany Quadrangle (x7156). After you have submitted documentation and filled out paperwork there for the current semester requesting accommodations, staff in that office will notify the instructor of the accommodations for which you are eligible.

Non-Discrimination Policy and Special Assistance

Lewis & Clark College adheres to a nondiscriminatory policy with respect to employment, enrollment, and program. The College does not discriminate based on race, color, creed, religion, sex, national origin, age, handicap or disability, sexual orientation, or marital status and has a firm commitment to promote the letter and spirit of all equal opportunity and civil rights laws. If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability and/or you have emergency medical information to share please make an appointment with the instructor.

CPSY Departmental Attendance Policy

Students are expected to be on time to class.

Class attendance is expected and required. Any missed class time will be made up by completing extra assignments designed by the instructor. Missing more than ten percent of class time may result in failure to complete the class. This would be 4.5 hours of a 45-hour class (3 credits), 3.0 hours for a 30-hour class (2 credits) or 1.5 hours for a 15-hour class (1 credit.) In case of extreme hardship and at the discretion of the instructor, a grade of incomplete may be given for an assignment or the entire course. If a student is unable to attend the second day of the ASIST course, a grade of incomplete may be given as part of an agreement to register for another ASIST course and attend the full two days. The student is responsible for submitting required documentation and meeting stated deadlines.

Final Paper Assignment
CECP 866 Graduate Continuing Education credit
SPSY 534-01 Graduate Degree-Applicable credit

Applied Suicide Intervention (ASIST)
 Lewis and Clark College, Graduate School of Education and Counseling

After completing the ASIST course, please write a final paper for your grade in the course (in addition to attendance and participation). Papers should be 1000-1500 words and an electronic copy of the paper is due March 15, 2020 at 10pm. Please email your paper to Kathy Wilson-Fey at kwilsonfey@gmail.com.

Final Paper. Utilizing the information from the ASIST course and required reading materials, write a 1000-1500 word paper that synthesizes information on suicide intervention, both in the school environment and in the wider community. Please construct the paper in such a way that it could serve as a useful guide for future practice and professional development. The paper should be in free of spelling and grammatical errors.

- Part 1: Description of the Suicide Intervention Model. Write a description of the three stages of the Pathways for Assisting Life (PAL) framework outlined and practiced in the ASIST course. Please highlight the important factors for a caregiver to consider at each stage of the PAL, and articulate how you plan to integrate these considerations in your future practice.
- Part 2: Personal Reflection. Continue the paper by writing a personal reflection on your learning during ASIST that includes the following.
  - Discuss at least two concepts in the ASIST model that were new to your practice or understanding regarding suicide intervention.
  - Explain at least two insights you gained from practicing, or watching others practice, the PAL and suicide intervention skills during the workshop.
  - Finally, identify three goals for your future commitment to suicide prevention, in your learning or in your work setting, and describe a detailed plan of how you will implement each goal.
