

Lewis & Clark College

Directions for Online Submission of Dissertations

1. Access the Proquest website: <https://secure.etdadmin.com/cgi-bin/home>
2. Select “Sign up and get started today!”
3. Select “Lewis & Clark College-Graduate School Education” as your institution.
4. Create a new student account.
5. Activate your free account by responding to the email sent to you from ProQuest.
6. Before you begin, please be sure that you have the following:
  - Full text of the dissertation/thesis in PDF format. This must be one file. If your manuscript is in Word or RTF format, you may convert it to PDF format before submitting. For tips on creating PDF files, see the the PDF Help Center (link on UMI webpage).
  - Abstract
  - Optional Supplementary files (images, sound, etc) that are an integral part of the dissertation, but not part of the full text. (For additional information, see link on UMI webpage.)
  - Advisor and other Committee Member's names.
  - Subject Category. Use the categories of either Education or Educational Administration.
  - Keywords (optional; these will be used by search engines)
7. When ready, select “Submit Your Dissertation.”
8. Under Publishing Options, choose “Open Access Publishing PLUS”.
9. Under “Open Access Publishing Agreement,” choose “Accept.”
10. Fill in “Personal Information.”
11. Fill in “About Your Submission.”
12. Upload your PDF file.
13. Upload any “Supplemental Files.”
14. Under “Copyright Filing Fee”, indicate that ProQuest will file for your copyright.
15. On the next page, order any personal copies of your dissertation.
16. On the “payment” page, it should show:

Open Access Publishing PLUS	$95
Copyright Fee	$75

There will be additional charges for personal copies you have ordered.
Make the appropriate payment.
17. The last screen confirms payment received and that your dissertation has been submitted.
18. You’re done with the ProQuest submission process!
19. If you are in cohort 8 or earlier: turn in two paper copies of your dissertation to the Ed. Leadership office.
20. Pay for editing expenses (in excess of the 8 hrs paid by Graduate School).
21. Now you are absolutely done!
