CATALOG DESCRIPTION

Art Therapy Internship Studio encourages intensive involvement in personal artistic expression, creative exploration, and reflection on these processes through self-inquiry in the role of an emerging practitioner. Particular attention is paid to developing understandings of artistic process as a form of inquiry and the integral roles of ongoing artistic activity in the professional identity as an art therapist.

CPSY DEPARTMENTAL ATTENDANCE POLICY

Class attendance is expected and required. Any missed class time will be made up by completing extra assignments designed by the instructor. Missing more than ten percent of class time may result in failure to complete the class. This would be 4.5 hours of a 45 hour class (3 credits), 3.0 hours for a 30 hour class (2 credits) or 1.5 hours for a 15 hour class (1 credit.) In case of extreme hardship and also at the discretion of the instructor, a grade of incomplete may be given for an assignment or the entire course. In such cases, the work to be submitted in order to remove the incomplete must be documented appropriately and stated deadlines met. Students are expected to be on time to class and tardiness may be seen as an absence that requires make-up work.

REQUIRED TEXTS AND ARTICLES

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Art Therapy Internship Studio encourages intensive involvement in personal artistic expression, creative exploration, and reflection on these processes through self-inquiry in the role of an emerging practitioner. Particular attention is paid to developing understandings of artistic process as a form of inquiry and the integral roles of ongoing artistic activity in the professional identity as an art therapist.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. Student demonstrates understanding of counseling theories/art psychotherapy from a personal and clinical perspective through writing and discussion of art processes and products.
2. Student develops awareness of self-care practices and skills and uses the class experience to address challenges including difficulties with clients, stress and possible countertransference concerns that can affect growth as a therapist.
3. Student demonstrates the understanding of how the careful use of art media/themes and processes and the resulting visual language can be used to develop clinically sound assessments, treatment plans and therapeutic relationships.
4. Students provide peer support by demonstrating creative methods that have been successful with specific client populations.
5. Student brings art therapy case examples to class for discussion and supervision and leads informal case consultations.
6. Student's artwork and writing demonstrates creativity, investment in the process and thoughtful content.

CAAHEP LEARNING OUTCOMES

SLO-B	Distinguish among the therapeutic benefits of a variety of art processes and media, strategies and interventions, and their applicability to the treatment process for individuals, groups, and families.
SLO-C	Recognize that Art Therapy, from a multicultural perspective, takes into consideration the specific values, beliefs, and actions influenced by a client's race, ethnicity, nationality, gender, religion, socioeconomic status, political views, sexual orientation, geographic region, physical capacity or disability, and historical or current experiences within the dominant culture.
SLO-G	Recognize and respond appropriately to ethical and legal dilemmas using ethical decision-making models, supervision, and professional and legal consultation when necessary.
SLO-H	Recognize clients' use of imagery, creativity, symbolism, and metaphor as a valuable means for communicating challenges and strengths and support clients' use of art-making for promoting growth and well-being.
SLO-L	Continuously deepen self-understanding through personal growth experiences, reflective practice, and personal art-making to strengthen a personal connection to the creative process, assist in self-awareness, promote well-being, and guide professional practice.
SLO-M	Pursue professional development through supervision, accessing current Art Therapy literature, research, best practices and continuing education activities to inform clinical practice.

7. In April students install a show online (and possibly in York Commons Area). This show highlights work by the graduating Art Therapy students in the program.

DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Each student should decide for her/him/themselves what information to disclose. Students are advised to be prudent when making self-disclosures. The program cannot guarantee confidentiality of student disclosures given the group environment, although personal comments should be considered private and confidential – and remain only in the classroom – unless an exception to confidentiality applies.

CELL PHONES

Cell phones must be silenced and text messaging is not allowed during class time. If there is an emergency you may exit the class to use your cell.

TEACHING METHODS

A variety of teaching methods will be used during this course in order to achieve the above objectives. Among those methods will be experiential art making, assigned readings, class discussions and lectures.

CLASS ROUTINE

We will meet every session for in class art making. The remaining time will be spent processing cases that you present to the class for consult and discussing any issues at your sites. We will keep the reading discussions on Moodle, at times we will weave the online discussion into class. We will also engage in experientials and directives throughout the term exploring transference/countertransference and self-care related to your work at your internship.

REQUIRED TEXTS & READINGS:

Weekly readings are to be completed for the day indicated. Students are expected to be prepared to discuss the ideas and concepts discussed in the readings. You are responsible for all of the assigned readings, whether or not they are discussed in class. Please note that there are more readings assigned for some topics than for others.

ASSIGNMENTS, EVALUATION AND GRADING

Because of the skill development nature of this course, it is required that students complete ALL assignments to pass this class.

Assignment	Point Value
Class participation	10
Online discussion posts	25
Art Experiential Demonstration	20
Artwork project/Exhibition	20
Final Paper	20
Total Points in the Course:
	100

Class participation	Possible points
Attending all classes and being on time. Giving attention to the instructor and/or other students when they are making a presentation.	4
Demonstrating ability to recognize and use subtle non-verbal communication cues to assess your impact on your peers and participate in class. Demonstrating ability to be open about discussing the impact of your comments on your peers.	1
Coming to class prepared and ready to engage in your creative process. Engaging in group discussions with attention and energy. Asking questions of the instructor and/or other students regarding the material examined in that class.	2

Contributing to in-class discussion based on the topics of discussions and the readings assigned. Contributions may include how you feel about the material but merely articulating your feelings is not sufficient. You are expected to put those feelings in context of your thoughts and analysis of the material.	1
Providing examples to support or challenge the issues talked about in class. Making comments or giving observations about topics in the course, especially those that tie in the classroom material to "real world" problems, or try to integrate the content of the course.	1
Dealing with other students and/or the instructor in a respectful fashion. Listening actively. Students will be asked questions related to the course's readings randomly in class by other students and by the instructor. Your participation in small group discussions is also required.	1
Total	10

Discussion Posts:
Students will be required to read the assigned chapters each week and submit an original post and a response to 1-2 a peers' post on Moodle prior to the class meeting.
Summarize three points that you gained from the readings in a short 200-word paragraph.
Please use these guidelines:
	Possible points
Discussion posts (Points will be assigned in each category across postings for the semester.)
Critical Analysis (Understanding of Readings and Outside References)	Discussion postings display an excellent understanding of the required readings and underlying concepts including correct use of terminology. Postings integrate an outside resource, or relevant research, or specific real-life application (work experience, prior coursework, etc.) to support important points. Well-edited quotes are cited appropriately. No more than 10% of the posting is a direct quotation.	3
Participation in the Learning Community	Discussion postings actively stimulate and sustain further discussion by building on peers' responses including — building a focused argument around a specific issue or — asking a new related question or — making an oppositional statement supported by personal experience or related research.	2
Regularity of Discussion Postings	Discussion postings are distributed throughout the module (not posted all on one day or only at the beginning or only on the last day of the module).	3
Etiquette in Dialogue with Peers	Written interactions on the discussion board show respect and sensitivity to peers' gender, cultural and linguistic background, sexual orientation, political and religious beliefs.	2

Weekly Postings	Completed postings of self (1) and peer (1) each week (3 weeks)	12
Quality of Writing and Proofreading	Written responses are free of grammatical, spelling or punctuation errors. The style of writing facilitates communication.	3
	Total	25

If posts are made after the due date they will receive 1/2 the points. If you are assigned to submit a summary of a reading that week then you not expected to also make comments on your peers posts.*

Art Experiential Demonstrations

Each student will lead the class in exploring or introducing a media /directive in art therapy. Plan for enough materials so everyone in class can participate. Since this will be facilitated online, please arrange ahead of time any distribution of materials needed so everyone has what they need to participate. Discuss which populations this particular material/method is most applicable for, and when it would be contraindicated. Prepare a one page handout explaining the media/directive to share with the class on the day you present.

	Case Presentation	Possible points

ARTWORK

One or two long term projects are required for this class that could span over both terms, 2 credits in Fall and 1 credit in Spring. They may comprise the entire body of art work for the class, or they may be part of a larger body of work. They may be related, connected to each other or stand alone. It is expected that they will demonstrate intensive involvement with the creative process, thoughtful reflection on concepts relating the art to the experience of being a student therapist, and awareness of the psychological properties of art media/art processes and the visual language. You may use journaling as part of these projects or may simply use your journal as a resource in writing your papers.

Artwork Rubric AT 583

(Upload to TASKSTREAM and submit with artist statement to have posted on LC website)

Total possible points 24

Students will create a body of artwork that is to be displayed in conjunction with the capstone presentations in Spring term. This can be work that emerged out of the Fall term, or a new body of work that was produced in the spring. Work should be professionally displayed, coordinated and facilitated by the cohort. Artwork must meet the following competencies.

FINAL PAPER

It is expected that you will approach your art work seriously, creatively and in ways that will help you arrive at a deeper understanding of the art therapy process, your treatment relationships with clients and your own experiences as an art therapy counseling intern. Since development of awareness of self-care skills is part of the purpose of the class, students are expected to address this in their papers. Your insights are to be included in a paper accompanying your project (5-8 pgs). Integrate at least 3-5 sources from related readings into the paper.
