The Graduate School Catalog
This catalog is a basic guide to the Graduate School of Education and Counseling at Lewis & Clark College. It provides admission and graduation requirements, program and course descriptions, policies and procedures, and other information related to study in the graduate school.

Lewis & Clark College reserves the right to withdraw courses at any time, change the fees, change the rules and calendar regulating admission and graduation requirements, and change any other regulations affecting the student body. Changes shall become effective whenever the proper authorities so determine and shall apply not only to prospective students but also to those who at the time are matriculated in the Graduate School of Education and Counseling. This catalog is correct according to information available to the administration of the Graduate School of Education and Counseling at the time of publication.
Welcome to our community.

The Graduate School of Education and Counseling at Lewis & Clark College offers education and counseling students a daring curriculum that combines academic and field study in dynamic learning environments. We celebrate intellectual debate, an atmosphere of rigorous learning, individual growth, and a dedication to social justice.

Students work closely with a faculty recognized not only for academic scholarship and engaging instruction, but also for ongoing service conducted in the field as practitioners and activists. At Lewis & Clark, the study of innovations in counseling, teaching, and school leadership are combined with extended internship experiences in which students gain a rich understanding of how inquiry leads to constructive action. As a result, our graduates enter the field prepared to become creative leaders who transform society through education and elevate the individual through psychological and social support.

We welcome you to join us in this endeavor. This catalog will further introduce you to our community, our programs, and our mission. We look forward to supporting you on your journey to success.

Sincerely,

The Graduate School

Lewis & Clark's Graduate School of Education and Counseling provides graduate degree and licensure students with an educational experience that will prepare them to meet the complex challenges of professional life within a diverse and changing society.

We offer present and future practitioners the following:

- Critical knowledge, relevant skills, and practical experiences needed to reach their potential and succeed as leaders in their professions.
- Awareness of the broader social, economic, and political contexts in which professionals practice.
- Learning opportunities that integrate academic work with field-based experiences, communication, cross-fertilization of ideas between related fields, and understanding of the ethical issues integral to their professions.

To attain the aims of the graduate school, the Lewis & Clark educational community has identified nine areas in which our students will develop competencies: learning environments, content knowledge, teaching approaches, connection to community, educational resources, assessment, research and reflection, leadership and collaboration, and professional life. What follows are the guiding principles and the knowledge bases for each.

Through the development of trusting relationships, candidates from the Teacher Education, Educational Leadership, School Counseling, and School Psychology programs at Lewis & Clark will

- Create democratic learning communities in which caring, equity, social justice, and inclusion are practiced and diverse perspectives supported. (Learning environments)
- Integrate fundamental and emergent components of disciplinary knowledge in ways that extend learners' experience and enhance their own and students' capacity to solve problems. (Content knowledge)
- Engage students and school personnel in meaningful learning experiences responsive to individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts. (Teaching approaches)

- Design educational activities that cultivate connections between learners and their communities and region. (Connection to community)
- Incorporate a wide range of teaching and technological resources from the school and community into experiences that support learning. (Educational resources)
- Assess, document, and advocate for the successful learning of all students and school stakeholders. (Assessment)
- Adopt habits of personal and scholarly reflection that examine professional practice and lead to systemic renewal. (Research and reflection)
- Lead and collaborate with others to plan, organize, and implement educational practices and programs that confront the impact of societal and institutional barriers to academic success and personal growth. (Leadership and collaboration)
- Pursue a professional identity that demonstrates respect for diverse peoples, ideas, and cultures. (Professional life)

Diversity within the intellectual, linguistic, gender, ethno-cultural, regional, aesthetic, physical, and ethical domains produces abundant promise—as well as challenges—that schools must address. The strength of democratic learning environments is their ability to prepare citizens who can sustain a public culture that honors both difference and commonality. We prepare professionals to lead, teach, and provide support services to students in ways that promote the cultivation of caring; the development of empathy and ethical reasoning; an increasing understanding of and commitment to social justice; fair, inclusive, and educationally responsive approaches to all students; equity in school practices and in the treatment of all persons; and the recognition, exploration, and support of diverse perspectives within the classroom, the school, and the world at large.

Teaching and technological resources should support and improve the teaching and learning of faculty and students. School and community professionals need to view resources in relation to how they serve the user and this goal. We recognize and address the importance of preparing our students to enter their professions with adequate skills for using information and technology, an ability to critically evaluate that technology and its implementation in a given school, and a commitment to use these resources in the service of purposes and goals, rather than as ends in themselves.
The graduate school enjoys ongoing relationships with hundreds of organizations, including schools, agencies, clinics, non-profit organizations, and legislative bodies. The curriculum reflects the theories, techniques, research, modes of application, and national movements within each professional field. Faculty employ effective instructional models that engage students in critical thinking, creative problem solving, collaboration, and inquiry. Adjunct faculty members who are active practitioners join the regular faculty in providing important links between theory and practice.

The Graduate School of Education and Counseling enrolls approximately 700 students in its degree and licensure programs each year. Many students are new to the study of the professions while others are experienced practitioners. To meet their diverse needs, classes are offered days, evenings, and weekends and are located on campus, off campus, and at work sites. Students may pursue their degrees on either a part-time or full-time basis. Some program specifics apply.

History of the Graduate School
Although Lewis & Clark College has educated teachers since its earliest days, the Graduate School of Education and Counseling in its present form dates from 1984. That year, graduate programs were consolidated into a single administrative unit and faculty collaborated on a unified vision for educating students and joining together as a community of scholars and learners. Through this vision, the Graduate School of Education and Counseling has supported the mission of Lewis & Clark College by educating thoughtful leaders, innovative decision makers, and agents of positive change in the fields of education and counseling: leaders who actively engage with the communities they serve.

The establishment of Rogers Hall supported the Graduate School of Education and Counseling's transformational vision and fulfills a need inherent to graduate study: community. Under the roof of a single building, Lewis & Clark graduate faculty and students are able to come together through dialogue, reflection, and collaboration, producing innovative leaders prepared to make significant contributions in the fields of education and counseling.

"I'm convinced that the hands-on work I did during my internship at Lewis & Clark opened the door to my current job. Through internships and practica, Lewis & Clark gives students the opportunity to apply and polish skills that other students are just learning about in the classroom. It makes you very valuable to prospective employers."

—Colleen Hanson Ed.D. '01, specialist in traumatic brain injuries for Portland Public Schools

Counseling Psychology

Now more than ever, counselors, therapists, and school psychologists play a vital role in society, helping individuals and groups to grow in healthy ways, to respond to difficult circumstances with resiliency, and to deepen their respect and acceptance of both self and other. Ultimately these professionals are leaders who build caring relationships and strong communities defined by hope and concern for social justice.

Lewis & Clark's graduate degree and licensure programs provide future counselors, therapists, and school psychologists with the knowledge and innovative skills critical to the practice of community mental health, addictions counseling, marriage and family therapy, and school psychology in today's diverse world. Graduate study is augmented by experiential learning that further cultivates the attitudes and skills essential to culturally competent practice. Through this combination of classroom and practicum/internship experiences, students learn how to foster helping relationships and create a spectrum of interventions effective for individuals, families, groups, and communities.

In response to the realities of globalization, our programs explore ways to involve students in settings where they can develop skills related to the needs of marginalized groups. Students have opportunities to travel to developing countries and to work in isolated or neglected communities. These experiences acquaint students with the importance of advocacy, evaluation, and system change.

Graduates use their skills in a wide range of public and private agencies and schools, as well as private practices.

The Oregon Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists extends approval to Lewis & Clark's programs leading to the master of arts and master of science in counseling psychology, considering them CACREP-equivalent.9 Graduates in the community counseling and addictions counseling programs who have earned the M.A. or M.S. degrees in counseling psychology are eligible to pursue licensing as professional counselors (LPC) in Oregon. Similarly, graduates of the Marriage and Family Therapy Program are eligible to pursue licensing as marriage and family therapists (LMFT or LPC).

Lewis & Clark's School Psychology Program is an approved program of the National Association of School Psychologists and has also been approved by Oregon's Teacher Standards and Practices Commission (TSBPC) for licensing in Oregon. Graduates of the School Psychology Program earn the educational specialist degree (Ed.S.).

9 Recognized in the 39 states with licensing standards set by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs.
Other states, including Washington, grant eligibility for licensing to graduates of our School Psychology Program and our community counseling and addictions counseling programs. However, some states may have additional educational requirements that must be met prior to licensure.

Preparatory Courses

All students admitted to a counseling psychology program are expected to have a thorough grasp of the natural and social science aspects of psychology. Students without a background in psychology may satisfy this program requirement within their first year of study in one of the following ways:

- Pass the GRE psychology test with a score of 550 or better.
- Pass our departmental test. Students may prepare independently for this test or may take Psychology for Everyone (noncredit option), a course offered through our Center for Continuing and Professional Studies.
- Pass one undergraduate introductory psychology course, one undergraduate abnormal psychology course, and one undergraduate social psychology course. These courses may be taken through the institution of the student’s choice, ideally prior to enrollment in a counseling psychology program. (Credit hours are not applicable to the degree.) Evidence of passing grades must be presented to an advisor.

Waivers and Transfers

Students seeking master’s degrees may petition to waive required courses based on competence or experience. All required courses that are waived must be replaced by elective coursework with equivalent credit.

Students seeking master’s degrees may petition to transfer credits from another graduate institution. The maximum number of transfer credits allowed is 10 semester hours.

Please refer to the Policies and Procedures section of this catalog for further information.

Core Program

The Core Program, a graduate school elective requirement, is described in detail in this catalog. Students should consult their advisers for the specific Core requirements for counseling psychology.

Information Sessions

Anyone wanting additional information about the department, its programs, and application procedures is encouraged to attend an information session, where a faculty member describes our programs in detail and is available for questions. Please call the counseling psychology office for date, time, and location of the next meeting or check the website at graduate.clark.edu/dept/cpsy.

Midprogram Evaluation and Advancement to Internship

Counseling psychology students are evaluated in several ways as they prepare for internship (or practicum, for school psychology students).

All counseling psychology students maintain portfolios of their courses, fieldwork, and other professional activities. Prior to enrollment in an internship, all students must meet with a department adviser and provide documentation of the following:

1. Completion of all prerequisite courses.
2. Completion of all courses taken (i.e., no outstanding incompletes).
3. Completion of those portfolio requirements:
   - A minimum of 200 hours of experience as a helper or caregiver in a school or community setting and collaborative experience with peers or other professionals (documented through a written statement of professional goals and a professional resume).
   - A minimum of 10 hours of personal counseling.
   - A minimum of four visits to a variety of recovery support groups (e.g., 12-step programs).
   - A signed statement indicating comprehension of and adherence to ethical standards.

Students who complete required coursework, demonstrate appropriate professional development, and pass a practicum are eligible to apply to begin an internship in their final year in the program.

Community Counseling and Marriage and Family Therapy

The department partners with community agencies to provide supervised practicum student services to clients. There are several practicum sites. Live faculty supervision and videotaping assist students in developing their skills and providing appropriate services to clients. Practica generally require 8-10 on-site hours per week, as well as additional coursework.

To provide internship students with the widest range of opportunities to meet their professional goals, the program has approved over 100 agencies in Portland and its surrounding communities for placement. Prospective interns contact and interview with agencies in conjunction with our yearly internship fair. Students can expect to schedule 16-20 hours per week at the internship site in addition to group supervision on campus.

School Psychology

Each school psychology student will complete a practicum during his or her second year in the program. The practicum, which runs for two semesters during the school year, generally requires 8-10 on-site hours per week as well as additional coursework.

---

"The internship experience is one of the most important components of our program. This is where students apply the ideas they read and talk about in class while building lasting professional relationships with talented individuals in their field."

—Carol Doyle, associate professor of counseling psychology
"We are committed to doing our part in the global movement for social justice, human rights, and respect for diversity. In our community of students, faculty, staff, and alumni, we strive to build real connections to projects and processes of social transformation where our skills in human relations and development can make a contribution."

—Ted Sloan, chair of the Department of Counseling Psychology

Students will be provided with a list of schools at which previous students have completed practica. Students may also find their own sites, subject to approval.

During their third year in the program, school psychology students complete a full-time internship that runs the entire school year (August-June). Many school districts provide a small stipend for this work. On-campus group supervision is provided, as well. In preparation for this internship, students apply during their second year to districts that have requested internships through the department.

Details regarding field training can be found in the Counseling Psychology Student Handbook and in program-specific manuals available from the department. Oregon's TSPC and NCATE have approved Lewis & Clark’s program in school psychology.

Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology: Community Counseling

This degree program is for students who wish to become counselors in community clinics, hospitals, the juvenile justice system, and other community settings. Students can choose an emphasis on adult counseling or on child and adolescent counseling. The Oregon Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists has determined that students who graduate with this degree have met the educational requirements for licensure as professional counselors.

Degree Requirements

Graduate Elective Requirements
A minimum of 2 semester hours and one Core convocation

Elective Courses
Any remaining required semester hours may be earned by taking elective courses.

Master of Science in Counseling Psychology

Students admitted to the Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology Program may choose to seek an M.S. degree. This option, which is often of interest to students planning to pursue a doctoral degree in psychology, is available only upon formal application to the M.S. program.

Degree Requirements
Refer to the Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology section for general course requirements. The M.S. requires a minimum of 52 semester hours and the following:

- A demonstrated capacity for initiative and independent research
- Completion of CPSY 530 (in place of CPSY 535) with a grade of B or better
- Completion of CPSY 531
- Completion of a thesis proposal, including a timeline for completing the project, agreement by a faculty member to serve as chair of a thesis committee, and designation of a three-person faculty committee
- Formal approval of a thesis proposal by a thesis committee

Master of Arts/Master of Science in Counseling Psychology: 60-hour Option and Specialty Tracks

The 50-hour and 52-hour counseling psychology degree programs meet course requirements for licensed professional counselors in the state of Oregon, are congruent with CACREP standards for community counselors, and allow for NCE eligibility. and first certification. For students seeking more extensive preparation, however, we also offer a 60-hour counseling psychology degree program. This program is comparable to social work and mental health counseling degree programs and may be useful for those community counselors who desire additional career options. An increasing number of states require a 60-hour degree for licensing.

Candidates select electives beyond those required for the 50-hour and 52-hour programs in consultation with the faculty adviser, taking into account relevant certification/licensure standards and the candidate's specific career goals and specialization interests.

Specialty tracks (9 semester hours) and certificate programs (12 hours) provide two means of completing a 60-hour degree. Current specialty tracks include the psychology of women and gender, and current certificate programs include eating disorders. Other options are being developed. Consult the Department of Counseling Psychology office for more information.

Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology: Addictions Treatment

The addictions program integrates preparation for addictions counseling with general mental health/community counseling and meets the academic requirements of the Addiction Counselor Certification Board of Oregon as well as the Oregon Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists. Students wishing to work with adolescents who have substance-abuse problems may plan a program of study with their adviser to incorporate this special emphasis. Students completing this course of study receive a master of arts in counseling psychology or, if they complete a thesis, a master of science in counseling psychology.

Degree Requirements

A minimum of 56 semester hours, distributed as follows:

Degree Courses

503 Introduction to Professional Counseling, 1 semester hour
504 Family Therapy: Theory and Practice, 3 semester hours
505 Practicum in Counseling, 3 semester hours

Graduate Elective Requirement

Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology: Marriage and Family Therapy

The Marriage and Family Therapy (MFT) Program is designed to lead graduates to eventual employment as marriage and family therapists in settings that focus on family-based interventions.

The MFT Program at Lewis & Clark College offers candidates two distinct concentrations beyond a generalist program. The first specialization focuses on the treatment of children in the context of families. Providing mental health services in and for schools is a growing specialty in family therapy. A concentration in this area will allow graduates to work in the schools and address all developmental crises faced by school personnel and families with school-age children.

The second specialization is in addictions treatment in the context of families. Candidate training in this area has a strong practice focus. In the highly competitive field of mental health practitioners, this specialty is in great demand.

"The best way I can describe the Lewis & Clark experience has to do with balance: balancing knowledge with experience, work with family, your needs with the needs of others. I learned how to move through life when I was at the graduate school."

—Samantha Macintosh
M.A. '98
School psychologists counsel, tutor, and mentor learners and their families. They also take the lead in providing services to students and families of cultural and linguistic diversity. In all of these roles, school psychologists attend to the entire learning community to nurture healthy and positive learning environments.

The curriculum for the MFT Program builds the knowledge base and skills necessary for practitioners to provide high-quality, effective therapy and integrates preparation for marriage and family therapy with general mental health/community counseling. It prepares students to use an active, positive approach to therapy that will help individuals, couples, and families build on their strengths, improve their relationships, and generate solutions to relational problems.

Lewis & Clark's MFT Program meets the standards of accreditation set by the Commission on Accreditation for Marriage and Family Training and Education, and the academic requirements for state licensure in Oregon, and the requirements for clinical membership in the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy. Graduates of this program will have met the academic requirements needed to become a licensed marriage and family therapist (LMFT), a clinical member of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy (AAMFT), and/or the American Counseling Association's (ACA) Specialization in Marriage and Family Counseling, and will have met the majority of standards to become a licensed professional counselor (LPC).

Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology: Psychological and Cultural Studies
The Psychological and Cultural Studies Program is intended for the student who desires graduate study but is not pursuing professional licensure as a counselor. Degree candidates explore the academic discipline of psychology as it is applied through counseling and intercultural communication. This program presents an opportunity for creative individualized study. The large number of credit hours available for electives makes it possible for students to pursue specialties, such as gender studies, globalization, poverty and class, and psychology and the arts. Faculty advisors assist students in identifying coursework for their specialized focus.

Degree Requirements
A minimum of 44 semester hours, distributed as follows:

503 Introduction to Professional Counseling, 1 semester hour

Graduate Elective Requirement
A minimum of 2 semester hours and one Core convocation

Elective Courses
Remaining credits may be used for elective courses.

Educational Specialist in School Psychology
This specialist degree-level program is designed for students seeking licensure as school psychologists. The Ed.S. degree demands a level of preparation significantly greater than that called for by a master's degree. Completion requires a minimum of three years, the third year involving a full-time internship with a public school.

The Lewis & Clark School Psychology Program is fully approved by the Oregon Teacher Standards and Practices Commission at the state level and the National Association of School Psychologists at the national level.

In addition to fulfilling the following educational requirements, students seeking licensure must submit passing scores on the California Basic Educational Skills Test and Praxis II Specialty Area Test in School Psychology. Those scores must be on file in the Department of Counseling Psychology office prior to graduation.

Degree Requirements
A minimum of 63 semester hours, distributed as follows:

Required Courses: Counseling Psychology

Graduate Elective Requirement
A minimum of 2 semester hours and one Core convocation

Licensure-Only Program in School Psychology
Students with a master's or doctoral degree in counseling, psychology, special education, or a related field may qualify for admission into the licensure-only program in school psychology. Students in the licensure program who are not seeking a master's degree may petition to waive required coursework based on competence, experience, and/or equivalent graduate credits from other institutions. Upon admission, transcripts of previous graduate work and supporting documentation are evaluated by a faculty committee to determine which courses will be waived and to develop an individualized program plan for licensure as a school psychologist. A minimum of 7 semester hours of coursework in addition to CPSY 586-587 Internship in School Psychology is required.

Continuing Licensure in School Psychology
The 11-semester-hour Continuing License Program is designed to support school psychologists who already hold Oregon Initial licenses. The four courses (each 2 semester hours) and elective credits (3 semester hours) in this continuing professional development sequence are offered over five terms so that candidates may complete the requirements in three years.

Licensure Requirements
591 Domain I: Research-Based Collaboration, 2 semester hours
592 Domain II: On-Site Collaboration, Leadership, and Advocacy, 2 semester hours
593 Domain III: Community Collaboration, Leadership, and Advocacy, 2 semester hours
Domain IV: Professional Collaboration, Leadership, and Advocacy. 2 semester hours

Domain V: Elective(s) specific to student, school, or community needs, 3 or more semester hours

Licensure-Only Program in Marriage and Family Therapy

Students with a master’s or doctoral degree in counseling, psychology, social work, or a related field may qualify for admission into the certification program in marriage and family therapy. Upon admission, transcripts of previous graduate work and supporting documentation will be evaluated by a faculty committee to determine which courses will be waived and to develop an individualized program plan for licensure as a marriage and family therapist. Graduates of this program will have met the academic requirements needed to become a licensed marriage and family therapist (LMFT), a clinical member of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy (AAMFT), and/or the American Counseling Association’s (ACA) Specialization in Marriage and Family Counseling.

Details on requirements for this program may be requested from the Department of Counseling Psychology office.

Faculty

Lewis & Clark’s Department of Counseling Psychology consists of 10 full-time faculty members and more than 20 adjunct faculty members, the majority of whom are practicing professionals. (See the list of full-time faculty in this catalog.) The faculty’s research interests include treatment of anxiety and stress disorders, midlife transition, religious and sociocultural variables in the psychotherapy process, group interventions, gender and self-esteem in children and youth, learning disabilities, assessment procedures, cross-cultural service delivery, addictions prevention and treatment, sexual identity development, family systems, integration of mental health and addictions treatment, mindfulness, community development, social change, spirituality, disaster counseling, and crisis intervention. Faculty members encourage student involvement in their research. Counseling psychology programs seek to balance applied clinical training with a rigorous approach to psychological inquiry using qualitative and quantitative research methods.

Curriculum

CPSY 503

Introduction to Professional Counseling

Basic theoretical assumptions of the counseling profession, with an overview of its historical roots, social and cultural contexts, types of practice, ethical principles, and professional orientation.

Prerequisite: None.

Credit: 1 semester hour.

CPSY 504

Family Therapy: Theory and Practice

Overview of the fundamental assumptions and ideas of general systems theory and the basic premises of theoretical orientations within family therapy. Participants explore the application of course material to their work setting or training track. This course is not clinical in nature and is not designed to train or prepare participants to conduct family therapy.

Prerequisite: None.

Credit: 3 semester hours.

CPSY 505

Practicum in Counseling

Working with clients in an agency or school setting (8-10 hours per week, 150 hours total) under intensive supervision from CPSY faculty, developing the therapeutic relationship and basic counseling competencies. Students are expected to demonstrate personal characteristics and professional conduct necessary for effective, ethical counseling.

Corequisite: CPSY 506, 522.

Prerequisite: CPSY 503, 512 or 513, 579, 580.

Credit: 3 semester hours.

Life Span Development

Exploration of life span development through the lenses of social, cultural, cognitive, biological, and learning theories and research. Emphasis is on gaining a conceptual understanding of healthy development and better practical understanding of how to help children, adolescents, and adults address the developmental challenges they face across the life span. Faculty members encourage student involvement in their research. Counseling psychology programs seek to balance applied clinical training with a rigorous approach to psychological inquiry using qualitative and quantitative research methods.

Prerequisite: None.

Credit: 3 semester hours.

CPSY 507

Introduction to School Psychology I

Overview of the history, systems, roles, and functions of school psychologists.

Open to those with Special Student status as space allows.
in contemporary issues and historical events provide the foundation for graduate preparation in school psychology. Students observe the work of school psychologists and discuss the profession in a seminar format.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

CPSY 508
Introduction to School Psychology II
Overview of the history, systems, roles, and functions of school psychologists. Readings in contemporary issues and historical events provide the foundation for graduate preparation in school psychology. Students observe the work of school psychologists and discuss the profession in a seminar format.
Prerequisite: CPSY 507.
Credit: 1 semester hour.
Fee: $120.

CPSY 512
Counseling Theory: Cognitive, Affective, and Behavior Change in Children and Adolescents
Introduction to the theories guiding mental health work with children and adolescents in school and clinical settings. Reviews learning theories (classical, operant, and social). Participants explore the design and implementation of contingency-management programs and various CBT strategies for educational and clinical settings. Also considers psychoanalytic, Adlerian, client-centered, Gestalt, play therapy, reality therapy, solution-focused, and brief therapy theories. Issues of diversity and client matching are addressed throughout.
Prerequisite: CPSY 503, or 507 and 508.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

Group Counseling With Children and Adolescents
Instruction and practice in developing group treatments for children and adolescents in clinical and school settings. Students gain practice as group leaders in addressing issues related to group dynamics, cultural diversity, potential problems encountered when running groups, and generalization and maintenance of behavioral change. Students also gain experience constructing curriculum for specific issues such as divorce, substance use, grief, and social skills.
Prerequisite: CPSY 503, or 507 and 508.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

CPSY 515
Group Counseling With Adults
Introduction to the major schools of group therapy and the common factors associated with positive outcomes. Covers group dynamics, obstacles to success in group therapy, and the stages of group process. Role-playing, outside group membership, and demonstrations illustrate principles of effective group leadership.
Prerequisite: CPSY 503.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

The Exceptional Child in Schools
Overview of the exceptional child in today's educational setting. Provides a basic understanding of special educational law and public policy related to the birth-to-3 early intervention, preschool, K-12, and vocational transitioning populations. Exceptionalities studied include communication disorders, learning disabilities, mental retardation, emotional disturbance, behavioral disorders, orthopedic impairments, other health impairments, traumatic brain injuries, hearing and vision impairments, and giftedness. Students gain an understanding of the criteria requirements for each category as outlined under the Oregon Administrative Rules and some of the unique evaluation considerations for each.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

* Open to those with Special Student status as space allows.
Addictions counseling is a rapidly developing profession that is giving new hope to people suffering from dependence on alcohol and other drugs.

CPSY 520
Career Counseling
Career development theories; current career trends, concerns, and programs/interventions for diverse client populations; career counseling strategies, tools, and resources (including Web-based resources); facilitation of client awareness, choices, and action with respect to career-related issues; integration of career counseling with mental health and addictions treatment. Emphasis is on developing a broad view of career as lifestyle, the mutual impact of career and culture, and the practical application of theory and information in a professional counseling context.
Prerequisite: CPSY 503, or 507 and 508.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

CPSY 522
Diagnosis of Mental and Emotional Disorders
Introduction to the structure and uses of the DSM-IV and ICD-9 systems for diagnosing mental and emotional disorders. Limits and weaknesses of these approaches—especially with regard to cultural differences—and alternatives to them. How to use these systems effectively in the context of person-centered, psychosocial, and systemic interventions, and in culturally diverse environments. Current knowledge, theory, and issues regarding selected disorders. Use of technology-based research tools to secure and evaluate contemporary knowledge.
Corequisite: CPSY 512 or 513.
Prerequisite: CPSY 503.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

CPSY 523
Treatment Planning and Intervention With Children and Adolescents
Mental, emotional, and behavioral disorders of childhood and adolescents. Topics include identification, diagnosis, and planning of multifaceted intervention and treatment strategies; developmental, social, and cultural influences on diagnoses and interventions; multicultural considerations; and effects of substance abuse on individuals, families, schools, and other environments.
Corequisite: CPSY 522.
Prerequisite: CPSY 506.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

CPSY 524
Treatment Planning and Intervention With Adults
Identification, assessment, diagnosis, and treatment of mental, emotional, substance abuse, and addictive disorders in late adolescence and adulthood. Covers adjustment, mood, anxiety, psychotic, dissociative, impulse, sexual, personality, and addictive disorders, including gambling and eating disorders. Topics include multicultural, interpersonal, and relationship factors; evidence-based treatments; and information technology research tools. Emphasis is on planning comprehensive, multifaceted treatment interventions.
Corequisite: CPSY 522.
Prerequisite: CPSY 512 or 513.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

CPSY 527
Psychology of Women
Examination of social construction of gender and its impact on the study of psychology. Analyzes the field’s current and historical approaches to women’s needs. Topics include theories of gender, personality, relationships, sexuality, stereotypes, victimization, career, family roles, mental health, and therapy. Also explores the social and political implications of our cultural understandings of gender, feminist perspectives, and advocacy.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2-3 semester hours.

CPSY 529
Psychology of Men and Masculinity
Interdisciplinary examination of the social and personal meanings of masculinity; the varieties of male experience by social class, ethnicity, sexuality, and age; and emerging masculinities. Explores the implications for counseling, education, prevention, advocacy, and community development through readings and projects.
Prerequisite: CPSY 527.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

CPSY 530*
Research Methods and Statistics I
Introduction to research methods with an emphasis on design, sampling, measurement issues, and introductory data analysis. Topics include (1) Research design: elements of the research process, types of designs, program evaluation. (2) Ethical considerations of research: informed consent, research with diverse and vulnerable populations, research with children, human subjects review. (3) Basic measurement concepts: validity, reliability, norms, score interpretation. (4) Basic statistical concepts: frequency distributions, central tendency, measures of variability, correlation. Reviews Web-based resources for conducting research.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 3 semester hours.
Note: Taught during the fall semester only, as the first course of a two-semester sequence. Students who wish to pursue the thesis-option M.S. program are advised to take this sequence as early as possible in their course of study.

CPSY 531
Research Methods and Statistics II
Research design and data analysis, inferential statistics. Simple and complex designs, normal distribution, z-test, t-test, analysis of variance, statistical power, simple regression. Overview of nonparametric and multivariate analysis.

* Open to those with Special Student status as space allows.
Prerequisite: CPSY 530.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

Note: Taught in spring semester only, as the second course of a two-semester sequence. Students who wish to pursue the thesis-option M.S. program are advised to take this sequence as early as possible in their course of study.

CPSY 538
Academic Assessment and Intervention
Covers a broad range of approaches to assessing learning with traditional and alternative techniques. Participants become skilled in evaluating students with a variety of learning problems and in evaluating adaptive behavior and learning environments. Particular attention to working with learners of culturally and linguistically diverse populations. Focuses on the link between academic assessment and educational planning or interventions.
Prerequisite: CPSY 537.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

CPSY 539
Social-Emotional Assessment and Intervention of Children
Theory, techniques, and contemporary issues (including diversity) regarding social, emotional, and behavioral assessment of children and adolescents. Examines a variety of assessment devices, including play and classroom observation, diagnostic interviewing, and collateral information gathering. Intensive training with selected assessment tools includes practice administrations, test interpretation, and report writing.
Prerequisite: CPSY 538.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

CPSY 540
Applied Developmental Neuropsychology
Conceptual overview of the field of neuropsychology from developmental and applied perspectives. Explores the theories and principles of neuropsychology and their relationship to practice. Provides students with a basic understanding of the neurologic underpinnings and challenges their clients face, the effects of medications and substance abuse, and the implications for assessment and treatment.
Prerequisite: Admission to School Psychology Program, CPSY 537, 538.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

CPSY 545*
Drugs, the Brain, and Behavior
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

* Open to those with Special Student status as space allows.
CPSY 546
Models of Addiction and Recovery
Theories of the nature, causes, course, and effects of addiction to alcohol and drugs of abuse. Conditions, processes, and patterns of recovery. Emphasis on physiological, social learning, and interpersonal models and theories. Natural history of onset, abuse, addiction, and recovery; effects of intergenerational transmission, genetic predisposition, developmental risk, and sociocultural factors; effects on psychosocial development; impact of culture and gender differences. Implications for treatment.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

CPSY 547
Addictions Treatment: Procedures, Skills, and Case Management
Emphasis on developing detailed understanding and beginning skills in the use of specific strategies, procedures, and interventions in assessment, diagnosis, and treatment of substance abuse and addictive disorders. Topics include multiple modes and models of assessment, intervention and treatment, content and basic assumptions of different treatment modalities, organization of comprehensive treatment strategies, motivational interviewing in the context of stages-of-change models, contracting with clients, consultation, integration of medical and psychosocial treatments, referral processes and standards, issues of moderation versus abstinence, relapse prevention, and case management. Also covers documentation, record keeping and management, confidentiality, and ethical and legal issues.
Prerequisite: CPSY 523, 524.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

CPSY 550
Clinical Work With Diverse Populations
Development of counseling techniques for working with clients who are diverse in culture, race, ethnicity, gender, age, sexual orientation, or physical or mental ability. Focus is on helping students become capable therapists in varied environments, including becoming aware of their own beliefs, biases, and prejudices.
Prerequisite: CPSY 503, or 507 and 508.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

CPSY 551
Advanced Group Counseling
Advanced skills in design and management of psychoeducational, counseling, and psychotherapy groups. Emphasis is on time-constrained groups focused around themes including depression, anxiety, parenting, couples, social skills, adolescent depression, loss, ADHD for adults, dual diagnosis, and borderline personality disorder. Students learn critical group processes, central intervention skills, and the specific approaches most useful for different diagnostic groups.
Prerequisite: CPSY 514 or 515, and 522-524.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

CPSY 552
Clinical Work With Women
Current issues in the psychotherapeutic treatment of women. Focuses on the role of sociocultural and biological factors in disorders prevalent among women. Attention is given to clinical skills specific to women's concerns.
Prerequisite: CPSY 503, or 507 and 508.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

CPSY 553
Feminist Therapies
Overview of feminist theoretical perspectives, methods, and therapies, which, though broad and diverse, nonetheless share a common focus on addressing the impact of gender socialization and cultural expectations on individuals and society. Emphasis is placed on diversity, ethics, and advocacy. Covers feminist counseling of women, men, and families. Students assist in the development of content for this course, which is taught within a feminist pedagogical framework.
Prerequisite: CPSY 527, 529.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

CPSY 554
Women at Midlife
Overview of the issues faced by the current generation of midlife women. Considers general themes of midlife, drawn from the literature on adult development as a theoretical backdrop to recent research on midlife women. Emphasis is on themes shown by recent research to be most significant to midlife women today. Students are encouraged to explore how the material applies to their personal or professional lives.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

CPSY 555
Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy
Review of the history, theory, and research on cognitive-behavioral methods in counseling and psychotherapy. Specific methods and applications for children, adolescents, and adults in central mental and emotional disorders, personality disorders, and relationship and interpersonal functioning.
Prerequisite: CPSY 523.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

CPSY 556
Gorontologic Counseling: Issues In Aging
Issues in aging including biological, social, and cultural factors in adult development. Topics include retirement, relationships, satisfaction, depression, and therapeutic strategies for working with older adults.
Prerequisite: CPSY 503.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

CPSY 557
Health Psychology
Impact of psychological factors (such as stress, coping styles, personality, and family environments) on health and illness. Examines psychological issues regarding prevention, diagnosis, treatment, and rehabilitation in areas such as heart disease, cancer, eating disorders, obesity, and chronic pain. Students also examine the role of psychological providers in health care settings.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

CPSY 558
Brief Therapies
Survey of the history and techniques of numerous approaches to brief therapy. Explores the criteria for selecting or excluding brief therapy. Student study psychodynamic and cognitive approaches to brief therapy in detail.
Prerequisite: CPSY 512 or 513.
Credit: 1-2 semester hours.

CPSY 560
Couple Therapy
Systems theory therapies and practices relative to assessment, research, and treatment of couples. Explores cognitive, affective, interactional, and systemic theories of human behavior and change as related to couples.
Prerequisite: CPSY 504.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

CPSY 561
Marital and Family Assessment
Issues in research and the clinical assessment of couples and families. Examination of the assumptions and values underlying assessment approaches. Specific assessment techniques are discussed, evaluated, and practiced. Special attention is given to approaches in multicultural assessment. Exploration of ethical, legal and practical issues. Attention is given to theoretical underpinnings of measures as well as their psychometric properties.
Prerequisite: CPSY 504, 530, 560.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

CPSY 562
Advanced Family Therapy
Introduction to the practice of systemic family therapy through approaches based on contemporary/emergent models: brief, narrative, meaning/language systems-based, competence-based, and functional family therapy. Conceptual understanding and acquisition of specific treatment skills through training videos and live observations are emphasized. Builds upon CPSY 504 by focusing on the interventional aspects of family therapy through case examples, role play, and, when possible, live observations of actual clinical work at participating mental health sites.
Prerequisite: CPSY 504, 522-524.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

CPSY 563
Treatment Issues in Marriage and Family Therapy
Applications of family systems approach to the treatment issues facing families in crisis and transition. Addresses grief and loss, substance abuse, family violence and abuse, child and adolescent behavioral problems, and chronic physical and mental illnesses. A portion of this course emphasizes clinical case conceptualization and treatment planning.
Prerequisite: CPSY 504, 561, 562.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

CPSY 564
Treating Addictions in Marriage and Family Therapy
Family systems view of the development and maintenance of substance abuse patterns for family therapists and other health practitioners. Examines the contributions made to the understanding and treatment of substance abuse by family researchers, theorists, and clinicians. Considers clinical intervention methods of substance abuse with attention to the treatment of adolescents, couples, and families.
Prerequisite: CPSY 560, 562, 563.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

CPSY 565
Human Sexuality and Counseling
Recent research on sexual health issues of importance to counselors. Issues include sexual health in childhood, adolescence, adulthood, and aging; review of recent research on sexual preference; and common sexual dysfunction experienced by rape and incest victims and modes of treatment.
Prerequisite: CPSY 503.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

“I was so apprehensive about starting graduate school. As my first semester moves into the second month, I have to say that my doubts are falling away. This program at Lewis & Clark is answering my questions in so many ways! Things seem balanced to me, with the emphasis on helping the greater community. Yes, it's a lot of work, but I find myself challenged and intrigued by every bit of it.”
—Cynthia Strauss M. A. ’08
CPSY 567
Gender, Communication, and Culture in Family Systems
Examination of the role of gender, culture, and communication in family therapy. Requires exploration of unsettling questions about cultural and personal identities. These concerns directly affect everyone as individuals and as part of a collective world. Participants must be willing to consider new ideas openly and to risk values and identities that are familiar. With awareness comes responsibility. How we act—or fail to act—influences our shared culture.
Prerequisite: CPSY 503.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

Prevention in Educational Settings
Theory, application, design, implementation, and evaluation of prevention and intervention programs for school-age youth in school and community settings. Students also examine the cultural, social, psychological, family, and political factors bearing on children's understanding of and experiences with alcohol and other drugs. Prevention and intervention through enhancement of social competence are presented from constructivist and ecological-developmental perspectives with application to individuals and to small-group and classroom-based settings.
Prerequisite: CPSY 512.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

CPSY 573
School-Based Consultation
Theory and practice of consultation, which is fundamental to the delivery of mental health services in schools. Covers models of behavioral and instructional consultation in schools and with families. In-school observations facilitate students' understanding of consultation in schools. Emphasis is on identifying ways to collaboratively assess and intervene in problematic behavioral and instructional situations. Addresses issues of cultural, linguistic, and socioeconomic differences.
Prerequisite: CPSY 512.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

CPSY 574
Advanced Consultation and Program Evaluation
Application of consultation in schools and other social service delivery systems. Topics include theoretical and practical considerations for the use of mental health consultation, advocacy consultation, process consultation, organization development, and other approaches. Explores the application of ethical principles to consultation practice including careful consideration of issues of cultural, linguistic, and socioeconomic diversity. Students develop strong consultation skills grounded in well-articulated theory.
Prerequisite: CPSY 573 or consent of instructor.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

CPSY 579
Practical Skills for Counselors
Overview of basic counseling concepts and skills, including skill development through role-plays and simulated counseling experiences.
Corequisite: CPSY 580.
Prerequisites: CPSY 503, 506, 512 or 513, and permission of practicum coordinator.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

CPSY 580
Ethical and Legal Issues in Professional Counseling
Consideration of the applicable ethical and legal issues for mental health and school settings. Students develop skills in writing reports, assessments, and treatment plans.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

CPSY 581
Ethical and Legal Issues for School Psychology Practicum
Consideration of the applicable ethical and legal issues for school psychologists in mental health and school settings. Students develop skills in counseling, consultation, assessment, and intervention planning.
Corequisite: CPSY 523.
Prerequisites: CPSY 504, 506-508, 512, consent of adviser.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

CPSY 582
Mental Health Internship: Adult Emphasis
Internship in a community setting. Participants engage in counseling and related professional activities under supervision. Students write reports, prepare case histories, and submit work samples for supervisory review.
Prerequisite: CPSY 505, permission of internship coordinator.
Credit: 3 semester hours each semester, for a total of 6 semester hours, CR/NC.

CPSY 583
Mental Health Internship: Emphasis on Child and Family Problems
Internship in a community setting. Participants engage in counseling and related professional activities under supervision. Students write reports, prepare case histories, and submit work samples for supervisory review.
Prerequisite: CPSY 505, permission of internship coordinator.
Credit: 3 semester hours each semester.
Practicum in Marriage and Family Therapy
Supervised practicum bridging the theoretical and practical as students for the first time apply their educational experiences to a real practice setting. Prospective practitioners as well as researchers build skills and practical experience for success in a variety of future employment situations. Students must be supervised by an approved supervisor through AAMFT.
Prerequisite: Consent of adviser.
Credit: 3 semester hours, CR/NC.

CPSY 585
Practicum in School Psychology
Didactic class instruction, practicum placement, and clinical training as related to work as a professional school psychologist. Covers the application of psychological therapies with children, adolescents, and families in educational settings, as well as the skills involved in collecting data for consultation and assessment at the practicum site. In weekly seminars, students review research, theory, and practice. Students also present audio and/or videotapes of their counseling for supervisory review.
Prerequisite: CPSY 581, consent of adviser.
Credit: 2 semester hours, CR/NC.

CPSY 586-587
Internship in School Psychology I and II
Supervised experience as a school psychologist. Direct weekly supervision is provided by a field-based licensed school psychologist and indirect supervision by the course instructor. Interns provide school psychology services in consultation, counseling, assessment, intervention development, and program evaluation with K-12 students in special and regular educational settings. Regular seminar meetings allow for group supervision and the examination of legal, ethical, and professional issues. A comprehensive examination of school psychology is included.
Prerequisite: All courses required for the School Psychology Program.
Credit: 4 semester hours each semester, for a total of 8 semester hours, CR/NC.

CPSY 588
Internship in Marriage and Family Therapy
Extensive clinical training and experience in couples, family, and child therapy during a calendar-year internship. Requires the student to complete 600 client contact hours. Students must be supervised by an approved AAMFT supervisor.
Prerequisite: CPSY 584, consent of adviser.
Credit: 3 semester hours each semester, for a total of 9 semester hours, CR/NC.

CPSY 590
Topics in Counseling Psychology
Special topics in counseling psychology. Students may obtain a course description from the department office or website.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1-5 semester hours.

CPSY 591
Domain I: Research-Based Collaboration
First foundation course of the Continuing License Program, consisting of 1 semester hour of coursework for two consecutive semesters. Extends knowledge and understanding of the role of school psychologists in the 21st century through review of current research and consideration of local, regional, and national trends. Investigates current and emerging diversity, cultural, legal, and ethical issues with attention to the specific needs of each candidate's work site. Emphasis is on the use of action research to increase effectiveness of school psychology services for meeting the learning needs of all students.
Prerequisite: Advanced degree in school psychology, Oregon Initial License.
Credit: 1 semester hour each semester, for a total of 2 semester hours.

CPSY 592
Domain II: On-Site Collaboration, Leadership, and Advocacy
Second foundation course of the Continuing License Program, consisting of 1 semester hour of coursework for two consecutive semesters. Addresses research and practice standards that affect the school psychologist's collaborative, leadership, and advocacy roles with teachers, parents, administrators, other educational specialists, students, and staff. Candidates initiate collaborative action research projects in their work sites based on the planning completed in Domain I. Considerations of diversity and cultural/linguistic issues as relevant to organizational development and educational leadership support each candidate's engagement of these issues in their current work sites.
Prerequisite: CPSY 591.
Credit: 1 semester hour each semester, for a total of 2 semester hours.

CPSY 595
Master's Thesis Research
Prerequisite: Consent of thesis committee chair.
Credit: 1-9 semester hours (minimum of 3 semester hours required for degree, maximum of 9 semester hours applicable to degree; students may enroll in 1-semester-hour increments).

CPSY 599
Independent Study
Credit: 1-5 semester hours.
"Our faculty provide a highly personalized, intellectual, and engaging environment to assist Educational Leadership Program candidates achieve their career goals and become creative, thoughtful leaders in their communities."
—Vern Jones, chair of the Department of Education

Educational Leadership

Lewis & Clark’s Educational Leadership Program seeks to prepare confident individuals who embrace the leadership challenges facing our public and private schools. The liberal arts traditions of scholarship, inquiry, and self-knowledge serve as the foundation for our courses and individual programs. Candidates who successfully complete program requirements understand and demonstrate the knowledge and skills necessary to be learners, collaborators, leaders, and innovators. As our license candidates assume positions of responsibility, the school and district organizations they lead provide the conditions for learning where all children achieve.

All courses are taught by professionally active faculty and are designed as small, intensive seminars. The hallmark of these courses is the flexible and personal attention given to each candidate. Lewis & Clark offers programs approved by Oregon’s Teacher Standards and Practices Commission (TSPC) and NCATE leading to the Initial Administrator, Continuing Administrator, and Continuing Superintendent licenses as well as a master of education in educational administration degree and a doctor of education in leadership degree.

Note: A master’s degree and three years of successful teaching or related experience in K-12 public schools are prerequisites for receiving an administrative license from Oregon’s TSPC. The program offers a master’s degree in educational administration in combination with the Initial Administrator License for candidates wishing to pair these two offerings. Contact the program office for information.

New Administrative Standards for 2007

Oregon’s TSPC has developed new administrative licensing standards that will become effective September 1, 2007. Educational Leadership Program course titles and content will change to more thoroughly incorporate the new standards. The program will provide supplemental catalog information online in the fall of 2006 detailing these alterations. The changes will have little impact on students admitted prior to September 1, 2007.

Nonlicenseure Studies

The Educational Leadership Program provides unique courses of study for education professionals. These programs frequently take the form of two- or three-day intensive seminars that meet over weekends or during school vacations and breaks. Subject matter usually addresses contemporary administrative needs and problems. These are some examples:

- Essential Readings (EDAD 505/615) considers diversity and social justice topics as they apply to educational leadership. The course includes discussion of key questions such as “What school reform is needed to improve education for English-language learners?” (Call the Educational Leadership Program office for details.)
- Program for New Administrators: The Ropes to Skip and the Ropes to Know (EDAD 531/609) allows first-time administrators to learn about their leadership responsibilities with other new administrators. Monthly seminars are jointly facilitated by a veteran administrator and a member of the educational leadership faculty. (Call the educational leadership office for details.)
- Courage to Lead is a yearlong program for the personal and professional renewal of K-12 school leaders. Participants meet four weekends during the year to develop excellence in personal and organizational leadership. (Contact the Courage to Lead Program at 503-768-6080 for details.)

Core Program

The graduate Core Program is described in detail in this catalog. Students should consult their advisers or the department chair for the specific Core requirements for educational administration.

Eligibility for Initial Licensure

Lewis & Clark recommends for the Initial Administrator License those candidates who have fulfilled the following requirements:

1) Completion of a master's degree from an accredited institution.
2) An Oregon teaching or personnel service license and three years of successful teaching or personnel service experience.
3) Admission by the Lewis & Clark Educational Leadership Program and approved individual course of study on file.
4) Completion of the required hours of graduate coursework appropriate to the desired license.
5) Demonstration of knowledge of antdiscrimination statutes.
6) A passing score on the Praxis II Series test in educational leadership: administration and supervision (00410).
7) Evidence of passing the CBEST or the Praxis I: PPST/CBT series of tests, if coming from out-of-state.

Initial Administrator License

A minimum of 17 required course semester hours, distributed as follows:

- Required Courses
  - EDAD 500 Leadership Profile Center, .5 semester hour
  - EDAD 501 Leading and Managing for Teaching and Learning (School Organization), 3 semester hours
  - EDAD 502 Instructional Leadership, 3 semester hours
  - EDAD 503 Legal Rights and Responsibilities, 2.5 semester hours
  - EDAD 504 Practicum for Administrators, 6 semester hours total
  - EDAD 505 Essential Readings, 1 semester hour
  - EDAD 507 Budgeting for School Equity (School Finance for Administrators), 1 semester hour

Practicum

The Educational Leadership Program helps students design practicum experiences that support the application of theory. The practicum specifically addresses all areas of administrative responsibility and meets Oregon's TSPC requirement of verification of practicum experience at two combined levels: early childhood/elementary and middle-level/high school.

This two-semester course includes monthly three-hour seminar meetings and a field placement with a practicum plan developed between the campus supervisor and field supervisor. This commitment of time and energy meets the 360-hour practicum requirement as stipulated by TSPC.

The amount of time spent at each level—early childhood or elementary and middle level or high school—is determined on an individual basis, taking into account the student's experience and goals as well as field supervisors' advice.

Students are expected to demonstrate their leadership potential in the field settings, have meetings with their campus supervisor and field supervisor, log their activities, and develop a portfolio.

Eligibility for Continuing Administrator Licensure

Lewis & Clark recommends for the Continuing Administrator License those candidates who have fulfilled the following requirements:

1) Successful completion of the Basic or Initial Administrator License at Lewis & Clark or another accredited institution.
2) Three years of successful administrative experience in Oregon schools on a Basic or an Initial Administrator License.
3) Completion of the coursework and field experience required in the Continuing Administrator Program.
4) Admission by the Lewis & Clark Educational Leadership Program and approved individual course of study on file.

Continuing Administrator License

This license program is offered both on campus and at district-affiliated sites, and is open.
to candidates who hold an Initial Administrator License or the Basic License. The Continuing Administrator License Program is performance-based. Candidates develop a portfolio of evidence, demonstrating that they meet the advanced standards according to TSPC regulations. The portfolio is exhibited to peers and faculty during EDAD 558/637 Continuing Administrator License Seminar (C.A.L.S.). C.A.L.S. is usually the final course in the required 18-semester-hour program.

EDAD 599
Independent Study
Note: For interdisciplinary courses, see Teacher Education in this catalog.
EDLL 701 Foundations and History of Leadership
In 1837 Horace Mann said, "A nation could not long remain ignorant and free." Mann argued for universal public education, supported by tax funds. The major questions of the day: Who is to be educated? Who will teach them? What will they learn? These have since been answered many times over; in the 21st century we are raising those questions again. Explore how leadership, organization, and ethical and political issues relate to those three fundamental questions.
Prerequisite: Admission to Ed.D. program or consent of program director.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

EDLL 702 Introduction to Personal and Organizational Leadership
Introduction to advanced personal and organizational leadership concepts. Emphasis on assessing individual leadership skills and learning styles. Content will include skills to develop culturally proficient leadership.
Prerequisite: Admission to Ed.D. program or consent of program director.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

EDLL 704 Leading Change Through Cultural Competence
Offers leaders help developing strategies to lead their schools in the development of cultural proficiency. Explores how policies and practices can enable staff, students, and families to interact effectively in a culturally diverse environment. Discussion of how a lack of cultural competence impedes teaching and learning in many of today's schools. Participants will learn how to analyze their values, beliefs, and behavior in this context and will reflect on their own cultural competence.
Prerequisite: Admission to Ed.D. program or permission of the program director.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

EDLL 705 Seminar in Systems Concepts and Leadership
In-depth investigation of systems and systems thinking as a conceptual framework for understanding organizational phenomena. Learn, practice, and use advanced leadership skills to achieve desired organizational priorities.
Prerequisite: Admission to Ed.D. program or consent of program director.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

EDLL 706 Seminar in Action Research
Introduction to the principles of action research. Includes history and theory of a variety of research approaches. Explores the role of participant observer as well as the action research cycle of planning, action, evaluation, and renewed planning. Participants will begin exploring researchable issues as possible dissertation topics.
Prerequisite: Admission to Ed.D. program or consent of program director.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

EDLL 708 Ethics and Leadership for Social Justice
Leaders face challenges when implementing policies and procedures regarding diversity, equity, and social justice. Explore ethical issues dealing with leadership, governance, and policy development pertaining to public institutions.
Prerequisite: Admission to Ed.D. program or consent of program director.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

EDLL 717 Courage to Lead
Offers a context for exploring the dilemmas we all experience in our work. Each seminar participant will be responsible for investigating a particular issue in his or her administrative work life and preparing a verbal case study and a 4- to 6-page overview. Learn how to ask honest, open questions, as well as how to be totally attentive to presenters. Each participant will be responsible for core readings as well as specific books focused on his or her area of question and concern. Enrollment limited to 20.
Prerequisite: Admission to Ed.D. program or consent of program director.
Credit: 1-4 semester hours.

EDLL 725 Leadership in a Changing Society: Alternative Perspectives
Advanced seminar exploring the dynamics of change through the application of organizational leadership. Investigate through literature review, lectures, panel presentations, and discussions the lessons of historical and contemporary leaders. Apply leadership concepts from varied disciplines such as anthropology, history, economics, and philosophy.
Prerequisite: Admission to Ed.D. program or consent of program director.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

EDLL 726 Professional Writing Seminar I
Invites students to see writing as a process, develop a variety of types of writing, and understand the power of narrative to engage readers. Gain an awareness of the role of personal voice in your professional writing. Participants are encouraged to write as a habit rather than as a requirement; to use honored writing, speaking, and listening skills on a regular basis; and to use writing as a means of research. Covers practical applications to issues of leadership.
Prerequisite: Admission to Ed.D. program or consent of program director.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

EDLL 727
Professional Writing Seminar II
Write confidently with power and control. Participants in this intensive seminar refine their narrative writing skills, produce a variety of writing models useful in professional life, and construct a personalized process for completing a clear and engaging dissertation. Emphasis is on writing as a means of research and on practical applications to issues of leadership.
Prerequisite: EDLL 726.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

EDLL 728
Preproposal Development Seminar
Developing a dissertation topic. Each participant will identify an issue that will focus inquiry, research, and literature support; prepare a topic statement, draw up a problem summary, and create an exhibition concerning the selected area of inquiry and initial literature search.
Prerequisite: Admission to Ed.D. program or permission of adviser.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

EDLL 729
Dissertation Proposal Seminar
Development of the dissertation proposal. Participants will define the purpose of their research, area of investigation, and focus of their study; fully develop the rationale underlying their proposal and the background/context of their study; analyze and/or summarize relevant literature to support the logic for and background of their study; and identify useful research methodology.
Prerequisite: Admission to Ed.D. program or permission of program director.
Credit: 4 semester hours.

Summative Seminar
Prepares participants for advancement to candidacy. To meet the requirements for advancement, participants will present a substantive work product that contains a discussion integrating the material learned in the first year of the Ed.D. program. The work product will include a discussion of the significance of the material and a demonstration of the participant's understanding of the theory and research supporting the content studied. Participants may select from a variety of vehicles for their project.
Prerequisite: Admission to Ed.D. program or permission of the program director.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

EDLL 731
Public Policy: Creation and Implementation
Analyzes the process for creating public policy, examines the intended and unintended outcomes of policy development, and assists participants in increasing their understanding of the political arena in which policy is developed. Students will examine successful and unsuccessful policy initiatives in order to develop effective methods for planning and leading change initiatives in organizations.
Prerequisite: Admission to Ed.D. program or permission of the program director.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

EDLL 732*
Contemporary Issues in Leadership
Seminar designed to acquaint doctoral candidates with the scholarly interests of those faculty members who may later serve as chairs for their dissertation committees. Candidates will read works by faculty, who will then lead discussions regarding their research and scholarship as it pertains to the development and exercise of leadership. Provides participants with an overview of different faculty perspectives on leadership.
Prerequisite: Admission to Ed.D. program or permission of the program director.
Credit: 1-2 semester hours.

EDLL 741
Action Research: Qualitative and Quantitative Methods
Review of research methodologies necessary to complete a dissertation project. Designed to enable participants to become conversant with appropriate qualitative and quantitative methodologies, particularly as they relate to action research and leadership. Candidates will gain the skills needed to assess the relevance of published literature to their own research.
Prerequisite: Admission to Ed.D. program or permission of program director.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

EDLL 750
Doctoral Dissertation
Completion of dissertation research under the direction of the chair of the candidate's dissertation committee. Candidates must be enrolled in this course during the term in which they defend their dissertations, and must complete at least 12 hours before defending their dissertations. Grade will be considered incomplete until the candidate has successfully defended his or her dissertation.
Prerequisite: Admission to Ed.D. program, advancement to candidacy, and successful defense of a dissertation proposal.
Credit: 1-12 semester hours.
School Counseling

Ensuring academic, career, and personal/social success for all students defines the school counselor’s role in the school and community. Lewis & Clark’s School Counseling Program prepares well-qualified school counselors to deliver a comprehensive school counseling program based on national standards in these areas of development. Candidates come to perceive education as a community endeavor requiring the best collaborative efforts of students, educators, families, and community members. Program participants develop close relationships with practitioners and faculty in small class settings while learning how to promote this collaboration through leadership and advocacy.

Lewis & Clark’s School Counseling Program offers an innovative master’s degree program with licensure and a licensure-only program for those interested in becoming school counselors. Candidates begin working in the schools during their first semester of coursework. This on-site involvement continues throughout the program and emphasizes a commitment to diversity and social justice issues and to the use of data, assessment, and technology.

The School Counseling Program continually reviews and improves course offerings to reflect changing expectations at the local, state, and national levels while maintaining academic and philosophical integrity.

The Lewis & Clark School Counseling Program fulfills the following:

- Provides a quality academic experience that develops knowledge and skills and reflects school counseling in the 21st century.
- Provides professional support and assistance for all candidates to meet state requirements for licensure.
- Focuses on the individual needs of candidates, their students, their schools, and their communities.
- Provides opportunities to work collaboratively with families, volunteers, colleagues, and community members in applying course content to actual work situations, beginning during the first semester of coursework.
- Promotes success for all participants via continued formal and informal feedback and evaluations.
- Provides an arena for multiple professional growth opportunities.
Additionally, the Lewis & Clark School Counseling Program prepares candidates to:
- Develop advocacy, leadership, and collaboration skills through a comprehensive and challenging curriculum.
- Understand culturally diverse populations and issues of social justice and equity through field placements and hands-on work.
- Explore and foster collaborative efforts between schools and communities.
- Be critical thinkers, lifelong learners, and visionaries for their schools and communities.
- Analyze, synthesize, and evaluate a broad and comprehensive knowledge base of best practices in school settings, particularly those that apply to ensuring equity for all students.

Oregon's Teacher Standards and Practices Commission and NCATE have approved Lewis & Clark's licensure programs in school counseling.

Academic Advising
Each accepted candidate is assigned a faculty adviser. Advisers assist candidates in planning an official course of study and answer questions about the School Counseling Program and the profession in general, as well as providing additional support as needed. Each candidate has the responsibility to develop an approved course of study with their adviser prior to enrolling to stay informed about registration, course schedule changes, and deadlines, and to obtain approval for any changes to the approved course of study. (See also Policies and Procedures.)

Waivers and Transfers
Candidates seeking master's degrees may petition to waive required courses based on competency or experience. All required courses that are waived must be replaced by preapproved elective coursework with equivalent credit.

Candidates seeking master's degrees may petition to transfer credits from another institution. The maximum number of transfer credits allowed is 10 semester hours, earned no more than five years prior to admission.

Licensure-only candidates meet with their advisers to develop individualized programs that fulfill the licensure requirements of Oregon's Teacher Standards and Practices Commission.

Core Program
The Core Program, a graduate school elective option, is described in detail in this catalog. Students should consult their advisers for the specific Core requirements for school counseling.

Ongoing Candidate Evaluation
Candidates are evaluated each semester by course professors. Evaluation criteria include successful completion of courses (e.g., timeliness of work, cooperation with peers, quality of academic work) and performance rubrics developed according to the performance objectives approved by Oregon's Teacher Standards and Practices Commission and NCATE. Instructors address these in class. Candidates must begin a professional portfolio during the first semester of coursework. The portfolio includes documentation of the following:
- All completed coursework/projects (e.g., an evaluation summary for each course)
- Individual counseling experience or other opportunities as defined by the department (six hours)
- Micro-internships (e.g., academic development and consultation internships)
- Professional organizational membership beginning in the first semester of coursework
- Completion of all prerequisite coursework prior to the final internship
- Completion of all courses (i.e., no outstanding Incompletes prior to the final internship)
- Applicable coursework in the development of a comprehensive school counseling program plan.

Joint Program: Master of Education in School Counseling and Initial License
Track I
Candidates who hold a valid Oregon Teaching Certificate or License and have completed two years of successful teaching are eligible for the Track I program in school counseling. Candidates must complete 42 semester hours (distributed as follows), including 1 semester hour of an approved elective:

Required Courses
500 Introduction to School Counseling, 3 semester hours
501 Academic Development and Consultation, 2 semester hours
502 Internship: Academic Development and Consultation, 1.5 semester hours
503 Career Development and Consultation, 2 semester hours

Topics include developmental assets as identified by the Search Institute. Participants practice consultation skills with students and faculty.

Prerequisite: SCED 500-502.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

SCED 506
Internship: Personal/Social Development and Consultation

Direct experience in school settings working with students and faculty. Candidates conduct classroom activities to support personal/social success based on the National Standard for Personal/Social Competencies. Under the direction of the school counselor, participants consult with students and faculty on personal/social issues.

Corequisite: SCED 505.
Prerequisite: SCED 500-502.
Credit: 1.5 semester hours.

SCED 507
Development of the Learner: Children and Adolescents

Discussion, critique, and application of theories of child and adolescent development and learning. Application of theory to the school setting in the areas of learner development, learner styles/differences, the nature of the learner, and learner motivation. Topics include the impact of culture and diversity on learning. Examines from the perspective of the school counselor the contribution of internal/external asset development that helps today's youth thrive.

Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

SCED 508
Social Justice, Diversity, and Cultural Issues

Strategies for interacting and working with diverse communities as identified by race, ethnicity, gender, class, sexual orientation, age, disability, or religion. Addresses methods for positively impacting social and cultural diversity and equity issues including the possible effects of culture, race stereotyping, family, socioeconomic status, gender, sexual identity, language, and values on student development and progress in the school setting. Content and methodology emphasize small-group activities, collaboration, and use of data to create equity for all students. Candidates practice taking an active role in supporting all students and focus on eliminating the achievement gap.

Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.
SCED 512
Special-Needs Populations in Schools
Overview of the special-needs child in today's schools and the knowledge and skills necessary to better advocate on behalf of this student. Topics include exceptionalities including communication disorders, learning disabilities, mental retardation, emotional disturbance, behavioral disorders, orthopedic impairments, traumatic brain injuries, hearing and vision impairments, and special talents and giftedness. Participants review criteria for special-needs populations as outlined in the Oregon Administrative Rules.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

SCED 513A
Continued Studies in Educational Research and Assessment
Major uses and components of classroom or school-based research processes, academic test interpretation, and limitations. Participants explore quantitative and qualitative research methods, critique of research studies, assessment and evaluation, integration of assessment with instruction, portfolios, comprehensive school counseling programs, and what it means to be a practitioner-researcher. Topics include cultural assumptions held by researchers and the effects of these assumptions on research practices and results. Candidates develop a database, PowerPoint presentation, and Web page for data display.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

SCED 513B
Continued Studies in Educational Research, Assessment, and Technology
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

SCED 516
School Counseling Internship
Application of knowledge, skills, and attitudes gained from previous courses (e.g., consultation, research, ethics/law). Candidates focus on the school counselor's role within the educational setting and prepare a professional portfolio that showcases their graduate work/experiences. Candidates assess, design, implement, and evaluate a comprehensive school counseling program based on national standards, the ASCA National Model, and Oregon's Comprehensive Guidance and Counseling Framework. Two semesters.
Prerequisite: Portfolio meeting/signoff with advisor, completion of all required coursework.
Credit: 4 semester hours fall; 4 semester hours spring.

SCED 517
Practicum in Classroom Instruction
Foundations of education and curriculum. Classroom instruction is complemented by a teaching practicum, allowing the candidate to integrate theory and practice. Participants complete student teaching and prepare a work sample. Two semesters.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 3 semester hours fall; 2 semester hours spring.

Continuing School Counselor Licensure
The Continuing School Counselor Licensure Program at Lewis & Clark College is designed to meet the advanced competency requirements of Oregon’s Teacher Standards and Practices Commission while providing students with opportunities for direct application of course content to school, community, and professional development.
The Continuing School Counselor Licensure Program builds on the knowledge and skills developed in the Initial Licensure Program. Completion of the Continuing School Counselor License assists the candidate in ensuring student success and school improvement through action research while developing leadership, collaboration, and advocacy skills for the school-community partnership.
Courses in the Continuing School Counselor Licensure Program include SCED 560 Professional Development, Collaboration, and Advocacy; SCED 561 Organizational Leadership and Decision Making; SCED 562 Models of Organizational Change; and SCED 563 Research-Based Collaboration Internship. For full course listings, please visit graduate.clark.edu/gradreg/offerings.html.

Technology
All courses address the appropriate use of technology. Candidates are expected to have e-mail accounts and correspond electronically with instructors, other candidates, and fellow professionals. Candidates learn how to use databases, PowerPoint presentations, and Web pages to advance their school’s leadership, advocacy, and collaboration efforts within the community.

Documentation
Documentation of work completed within each course is housed in the Continuing License Educational Portfolio (CLEP). Each course section of the CLEP contains all evaluations and pertinent documentation. Identified professors, practicing school counselors (with advanced professional standing), and a designated Continuing License Committee evaluate the completed CLEP.

Program Planning
Candidates are encouraged to begin study for the continuing school counselor license upon completing the initial school counselor license. See the department for details.
Teacher Education

Lewis & Clark's teacher education programs prepare transformative educators who are dedicated to promoting democratic reform in schools and social justice in a diverse and multicultural society. Candidates become thoughtful decision makers and innovative leaders in our nation's schools. They help young people learn and grow by implementing creative and reflective approaches to teaching, learning, and research. Many graduates take leadership roles as classroom teachers, while others eventually assume roles as principals and other leaders in education.

Lewis & Clark offers highly distinctive programs of study for future and practicing teachers. Students draw on the resources of an outstanding faculty, culturally rich urban and rural communities, regional cultural and science centers, the College's own Northwest Writing Institute, and school districts of the greater Portland community and the state at large.

Teacher education candidates enjoy the benefits of small classes, collaborative learning opportunities, and close relationships with faculty. They have extensive opportunities to observe outstanding teachers and to practice teaching under the careful supervision of skillful mentor teachers. Students are encouraged to develop strategies as lifelong learners through frequent seminars with faculty, experiential learning activities, and guided writing. Close cooperation between Lewis & Clark faculty and community educators contributes richly to these goals.

Applicants to all teacher education programs are evaluated on the basis of the excellence, depth, and breadth of their academic background; the strength of their recommendations; the quality of their teaching experience (for prospective teachers, their experience with youth in educational settings); written essays; and the results of standardized tests and/or a portfolio (for in-service applicants only). Specific admission requirements and procedures for preservice applicants are described in the Admissions section.

Who We Are: Statement of the Teacher Education Faculty

John Dewey defined education as "that reconstruction or reorganization of experience which adds to the meaning of experience, and which increases to direct the course of subsequent experience." We, the teacher education faculty at Lewis & Clark College, apply this meaningful statement to our work.

"We strive to engage all students in finding meaning in learning, feeling valued for who they are, having their voices and cultures respected, and using their education to make important changes in their lives and the lives of others."

—Vern Jones, chair of the Department of Education
We are a community of learners and teachers committed to the preparation of educators who
- Create democratic learning communities in which caring, equity, social justice, and inclusion are practiced and diverse perspectives are supported.
- Integrate fundamental and emergent components of disciplinary knowledge in ways that extend learners' experience and enhance their own and students' capacity to solve problems.
- Engage students and school personnel in meaningful learning experiences responsive to individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts.
- Design educational activities that cultivate connections between learners and their communities and region.
- Incorporate a wide range of teaching and technological resources from the school and community into experiences that support learning.
- Assess, document, and advocate for the successful learning of all students and school stakeholders.
- Adopt habits of personal and scholarly reflection that examine professional practice and lead to systemic renewal.
- Lead and collaborate with others to plan, organize, and implement educational practices and programs that confront the impact of societal and institutional barriers to academic success and personal growth.
- Pursue a professional identity that demonstrates respect for diverse peoples, ideas, and cultures.

Recognizing the need for intellectual, social, and civic vitality in a democratic society, we are committed to preparing educators who will be leaders in these areas. At the center of our experience as teaching and learning communities, we explore the rich diversity of human experience, culture, creative expression, and our natural landscapes of the Northwest so that these may be our legacy for many generations to come.

Preservice Options: Master of Arts in Teaching/Fifth-Year Licensure Supervised Teaching Program

Lewis & Clark's graduate programs leading to licensure and endorsement are approved under the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) and Oregon's Teacher Standards and Practices Commission (TSPC) Rules for Fifth-Year Programs (Division 17 of the Oregon Administrative Rules). Graduates complete all program requirements, including a year-long practicum, before being eligible for recommendation to Oregon's TSPC for an Initial Teaching License.

Early Childhood/Elementary Authorizations

Lewis & Clark offers a full-time, 13- or 14-month program for beginning educators in early childhood/elementary education. There are two areas of emphasis for beginning teachers, each organized around a year of supervised teaching in a Portland-area school, combined with coursework on campus and additional practicum experiences. The Early Childhood/Elementary Program prepares students for an Initial Teaching License to teach children age 3 through grade 8 in preschools, elementary schools, and self-contained classrooms in middle schools.

Lewis & Clark College is committed to preparing teachers who will assume leadership roles in their schools and communities, and who link schools to the community through real-world problem solving and curriculum development. Candidates and their students learn to work with actual problems, challenging children to develop and contribute solutions to community issues. Candidates graduate from this program prepared to teach children from age 3 in a preschool through grade 8 in an elementary school, in addition to grades 5 and 6 in a self-contained classroom in a middle school.

The two early childhood/elementary cohorts progress through the same courses and supervised teaching requirements, but each emphasizes a distinct theme. One cohort gives in-depth attention to interdisciplinary science, mathematics, and technology education. Candidates transfer insights gained from their field-based, community-oriented practica to their school placement sites. Several candidates in the math and science cohort complete their supervised teaching at Catlin Gabel School, which provides a stipend for their work. The other cohort gives more in-depth attention to language and literacy development in the home, community, and school; to literature; and to issues of language, literacy, and literature across the curriculum.

Fall Semester
ED 510 Literacy Connections Practicum
ED 512 Real-World Problem Solving Practicum, 1 semester hour
ED 514 Intern Practicum I (Early Childhood or Elementary), 2 semester hours
ED 519 Math Connections Practicum
ED 562 Elementary School Mathematics, 3 semester hours
ED 565 Reading I: Literacy Development, Pre-K-8, 2 semester hours
ED 567 Language Arts and Literature, Pre-K-8, 2 semester hours
SS 578 Inquiry/Teaching/Assessment: A Social Justice and Cultural Framework, 2 semester hours

Spring Semester
ED 515 Intern Practicum II (Early Childhood or Elementary), 8 semester hours
ED 563 Classroom Management and Inclusion, 2 semester hours
ED 566 Reading II: Literacy Development, K-8, 2 semester hours
SCI 580 Science and Children, 2 semester hours

Summer Session 1
Interns continue school placement for 4½ days per week until the end of the K-12 school calendar. Interns may apply for their teaching license upon completion of these courses.

M.A.T. Degree Requirements
A minimum of 40 semester hours including licensure. Requirements in addition to those listed above for licensure are distributed as follows:
ED 555 Experience and Meaning, 1 semester hour (offered Summer Session 2)

Graduate Core Requirement

Middle-Level/High School Authorizations
Lewis & Clark offers a full-time, 13- or 14-month program for beginning educators in middle and high school (grades 5-12) in English language arts, mathematics, biology, chemistry, physics, integrated science, or social studies. A 46-semester-hour dual licensure M.A.T. program is offered in science and math. Specialty-area endorsements also may be offered in art and music. The Middle-Level/High School Program prepares candidates for an Initial Teaching License to teach a specific subject area in grades 5-9 in elementary, middle, and junior high schools and grades 7-12 in middle-level and high schools.

The M.A.T. degree in middle and high school education includes a minimum of 40 semester hours with study in education, adolescent development and learning, subject-area coursework, practicum and supervised teaching, and the interdisciplinary graduate Core Program. The supervised teaching option enables beginning educators to meet the needs of adolescents in ways that extend adolescent learners’ experiences and enhance beginning educators and adolescents’ capacity to solve problems. This option focuses on disciplinary knowledge with an emphasis on research in theory and best practice, including creating democratic learning communities, designing educational activities that cultivate connections between learners and their communities, and incorporating a range of teaching and technological resources.

M.A.T. candidates begin coursework in mid-June of each year and continue through the following summer. The program includes a full-school-year of classroom experience with an outstanding mentor teacher in a local school. New full-time M.A.T. preservice students are required to attend orientation in early June. Candidates begin working with their mentors the week before the opening of their school in the fall (typically the last week of August) and continue until the end of the public school year.

Beginning the first summer, M.A.T. candidates take courses in professional education, subject fields, and the graduate Core Program and complete a practicum. During the fall semester, candidates examine subject matter and educational theory and research, as well as reflect on their professional identity, while spending increasing amounts of time in their classroom observing and tutoring students, assisting the mentor teacher, and planning and teaching some lessons. In the spring semester, candidates teach nearly full time in the classroom and continue professional seminars with College faculty and mentors. The second summer includes additional coursework in education, disciplinary knowledge, and the Core Program. Candidates may be eligible for licensure at the end of 12 months, leaving the second summer session for completion of master’s degree requirements.

Licensure Requirements
First Semester
ED 550 Social, Historical, and Ethical Perspectives on Education, 2 semester hours
ED 552 Adolescent Development, Learning, and Exceptionality (includes practicum), 3 semester hours
LA 531 Writing and the Writing Process, 2 semester hours
Two electives in subject area of 2-3 semester hours each, or an elective and a Core course

Fall Semester
ED 551 Literacy, Culture, and Learning, 3 semester hours
ED 553 Classroom Teaching and Learning I, 3 semester hours
(Subject Area) 579 Teaching (Your Subject Area) to Adolescents, 2-4 semester hours (courses typically listed as LA 579, SS 579, ART 579, MATH 579, SCI 579)

In a recent four-year period, three of four Oregon Teachers of the Year were Lewis & Clark graduate school alumni. Why? We admit the best students and help them become even better teachers.
"To be a great teacher takes a magical balance between loving learning and honestly caring for your students. At Lewis & Clark, I felt very valued as an individual. I was never expected to parrot back somebody else's ideas — I could be myself and explore my own style. At some point I realized that the only way to truly connect with students is to be honestly who I am, and to respect them for who they are.

And it works."

—Nicki Hudson M.A.T. '87, Oregon's 1998 Teacher of the Year and a math teacher at West Linn High School

Spring Semester
ED 554 Classroom Teaching and Learning II
(supervised teaching with weekly seminar), 8 semester hours
ED 563 Classroom Management and Inclusion, 2 semester hours
ED 564 Curriculum and Inquiry, 3 semester hours

A minimum of 40 semester hours including licensure. Requirements in addition to those listed above for licensure are distributed as follows:
ED 555 Experience and Meaning, 2 semester hours (offered Summer Session 2)

Subject-Area Electives
A minimum of 6 semester hours and three courses

Graduate Core Requirement
A minimum of 2 semester hours and one Core convocation

Music Endorsement
The Master of Arts in Teaching Fifth-Year Licensure Program for music teachers is designed for students with highly developed musical skills, an undergraduate degree in music (or in another discipline with extensive coursework and experience in music), and an interest in and aptitude for working with children. The program of study leads to an Initial Teaching License at the middle and high school levels (grades 5-12) and eventually to a master of arts in teaching degree.

A minimum of 32 semester hours of coursework is required for recommendation to Oregon's TSPC for the Initial Teaching License. The M.A.T. degree requires 4 semester hours of additional music electives, 2 semester hours of graduate Core Program courses, and 2 semester hours of culminating education courses.

Note: Upon admission, students must consult with the music advisor to design an appropriate course of study, including the sequence of courses they will take, and to discuss subject-area electives.

Courses
ED 550 Social, Historical, and Ethical Perspectives on Education, 2 semester hours
ED 551 Literacy, Culture, and Learning, 3 semester hours
ED 552 Adolescent Development, Learning, and Exceptionality, 3 semester hours including practicum or

ED 555 Experience and Meaning, 1-2 semester hours
Graduate Core Requirement
A minimum of 2 semester hours and one Core convocation

Testing Required for the Oregon Initial Teaching License
Oregon uses a system of multiple measures to determine whether a candidate is a teacher licensure "program complier." Educators who wish to be recommended for an Oregon Initial Teaching License (or a teaching license in any state) are required to pass both a basic skills test and a battery of subject-matter tests.

For basic skills testing, the candidate may choose to take the Praxis I: PreProfessional Skills Tests (PPST) or the California Basic Educational Skills Tests (CBEST).

Authorizations in early childhood, elementary, and middle-level teaching (with the exception of art and music) also require passing scores on the Multiple Subject Examination (MSE). The MSE is criterion-referenced and objective-based, meaning that it is designed to measure a candidate's knowledge and skills in relation to an established standard rather than in relation to the performance of other candidates. In order to pass the MSE, candidates must pass two subtests. The subtest selection depends on whether the candidate has received preparation at an approved Oregon institution (Subtest I and II) or through an accredited out-of-state program (Subtest II and III).

Secondary educators must pass additional Praxis II tests in their specific subject matter. Generally, there are two or three tests in each subject-matter endorsement area in some combination of multiple-choice and constructed response formats.
Those candidates who do not pass both the basic skills test and the subject-matter tests required for completion of an Oregon teacher education program are not considered program completers and are not eligible for initial licensure recommendation in any state. Please note that other states may also require that licensure candidates pass additional tests.

Program information required by Section 207 of the Title II Higher Education Act may be found on page 96 and at graduate.lclark.edu/dept/cteach.

Scholarships
Four annual scholarships are available to teacher education students:
- The Mary Stuart Rogers Scholarship, established in 1995, is awarded to students whose outstanding academic achievements are complemented by qualities of leadership, dedication, integrity, compassion, sensitivity, and self-discipline. Admitted Preservice M.A.T. students will be considered for this scholarship.
- The Carol D. Dimich Memorial Scholarship, established in 1994, is awarded each year to a nontraditional graduate student; application information is available from the teacher education office during the fall semester.
- A limited number of Partnership in Diversity Scholarships are available. Contact the teacher education office for specific information.
- Teacher Education Diversity Scholarships will be awarded to three preservice M.A.T. students accepted into the 2006-07 supervised teaching program. These $6,000 tuition scholarships address the critical need for greater ethnic diversity among educators and stronger commitment to serving diverse student populations in the Northwest. Individuals who are from ethnic minority backgrounds and/or have demonstrated significant commitment to serving diverse student populations are eligible.

Inservice Options: Master of Arts in Teaching and Master of Education
Lewis & Clark's inservice M.A.T./M.Ed. programs offer elementary, middle school, and secondary options for teachers wishing to engage in advanced study and improve their teaching practice. Teachers who hold an Oregon Basic License may pursue the Oregon Standard Teaching License. Teachers who hold an Oregon Initial License may pursue the Oregon Continuing Teaching License as part of their M.A.T. or M.Ed. program. The M.A.T. degree requires both liberal arts and professional education courses. The program for elementary teachers offers courses appropriate for the licensed teacher of the self-contained classroom through grade 8 and the self-contained classroom in grades 5 and 6 in middle school, with opportunity for study in a variety of subject areas. Elementary teachers who hold an Initial License may combine work for the Continuing License with their master's degree.

The middle-level and high school programs are designed to help licensed teachers develop further competence in teaching one or several academic disciplines in middle and/or high schools in grades 5-12. Subject-matter endorsement areas include art, drama, ESOL/bilingual education, language arts, mathematics, music, reading, science (biology, chemistry, integrated science, or physics), and social studies. Those with an interest in educating students with special needs may complete coursework and practica to obtain a Special Educator Endorsement and a master of education degree.

Master of Arts in Teaching and Oregon Standard Secondary Licensure
For middle and high school teachers who hold a Basic License, Lewis & Clark College offers a program leading to the Standard License and the M.A.T. degree. The course of study is planned in consultation with a faculty adviser. Students who have completed graduate education courses with essentially the same content as required courses may substitute education electives with the consent of their advisers.

Degree Requirements
A minimum of 36 semester hours, distributed as follows:

Professional Education Requirements
A minimum of 17 semester hours including the following:
ED 500 Educational Research, 2 semester hours
ED 501 Constructive Assessment in the Classroom, 2 semester hours
ED 502 Literacy: Print, Media, Technology, 3 semester hours
ED 504 Classroom Management for the Inclusive Classroom, 3 semester hours
ED 507 Teaching and Learning in Middle and Secondary Schools, 3 semester hours
ED 509 M.A.T. Project Seminar, 2 semester hours

Choose one course dealing with topics of diversity, school, and society.
ED 548 Classroom Assessment: Work Sample, 1 semester hour (may be taken in conjunction with ED 501)

Subject-Area Electives
A minimum of 15 semester hours including the following:
LA 501, SCI 501, MATH 501, or SS 501 (for students in these subject fields), 3 semester hours each. Additional electives from liberal arts disciplines. (The subject field may be one in which the student already holds a basic endorsement or a new field in which the candidate seeks an added endorsement.) Lewis & Clark College can recommend candidates for the Standard License in art, foreign languages, language arts, mathematics, music, reading, science (biology, chemistry, integrated science, or physics), and social studies. Middle school teachers are strongly encouraged to take ED 572 Restructuring for the Middle Grades: Theory and Practice and ED 573 Integrated Studies for the Middle and Secondary Grades.

Graduate Core Requirement
A minimum of 2 semester hours and one Core convocation

Those who want to teach at the middle-level/high school grades must pass Praxis II tests in their specific subject area. Generally there are two or three tests in each subject-area endorsement in some combination of multiple choice and constructed-response formats.

Courses for Nondegree Music Students
Graduate courses are available to music professionals who wish to improve their skills but may not wish to enroll in a formal degree program. Open-enrollment courses and institutes are available to all interested students. Past offerings have included Orff and Kodaly workshops, choral workshops, jazz study with George Shearing, electronic music, music theory, and summer instrumental workshops. Music teachers who hold an Initial License may also plan a program to fulfill requirements for the Continuing License (see Continuing License section).

Master of Arts in Teaching: Liberal Studies
Individuals who do not require a Standard License, those who desire a highly flexible program, and persons who wish to pursue graduate study in education without an Oregon teaching license may select this option. The program leading to the M.A.T. liberal studies degree is designed for current elementary teachers who hold a Basic License; teachers who seek a master’s degree to obtain a Continuing License; and teachers from community colleges, independent and parochial schools, or informal learning centers. Elementary teachers may select from several options and pursue coursework leading to the Continuing License, additional endorsements, and a master’s degree. The M.A.T.: Liberal Studies Program provides maximum flexibility and allows degree candidates to identify their individual learning needs and select appropriate courses in education and the liberal arts. The course of study is planned in consultation with a faculty adviser. The M.A.T. liberal studies degree may include endorsements in areas such as reading (the Language and Literacy Program), mathematics, drama, or ESOL/bilingual education, and may suit the needs of those seeking a Continuing License.

Degree Requirements
A minimum of 36 semester hours, distributed as follows:

Professional Education Requirements
ED 500 Educational Research, 2 semester hours
ED 509 M.A.T. Project Seminar, 2 semester hours

A minimum of 8-11 semester hours selected from the ED 501-599 sequence of courses
Note: ED 505, 507, 525, or a substitute approved by the student’s adviser is required of regular classroom teachers.

Liberal Arts Requirements
A minimum of 17 semester hours of coursework chosen jointly by the adviser and student. These courses have liberal arts prefixes and may apply to added endorsements. Students must take either LA 501, MATH 501, SCI 501, or SS 501 as part of the liberal arts requirement.

Graduate Core Requirement
A minimum of 2 semester hours and one Core convocation

Summer Studies M.A.T. Program
Lewis & Clark College’s Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.): Liberal Studies Program is offered in a full-time summer studies format. This program is designed for individuals who seek advanced study in the liberal arts and/or in education. Over the course of three summers, participants undertake coursework with nationally recognized Lewis & Clark faculty.

With the assistance of a Lewis & Clark faculty advisor, program participants craft a course of study that meets their individual needs and professional goals. Course offerings are diverse and plentiful. Participants may explore subject-area specializations or endorsement programs as well as such topics as writing, science and environmental studies, and education reform. Participants may choose a more generalized course of study.

The Lewis & Clark inservice M.A.T. degree is a 36-semester-hour program composed of 10 semester hours of required professional education coursework, 2 semester hours of Core seminars on interdisciplinary topics related to education and liberal arts, and 24 semester hours of electives. Transfer credit applied to the degree is normally limited to 10 semester hours.

Participants may stay in the Lewis & Clark College residence halls and eat at campus facilities. For more information please visit graduate.lclark.edu/dept/summersudies.
Master of Education and Special Educator Endorsement

The Special Educator Endorsement Program was developed to help teachers, special educators, and administrators work more effectively with students experiencing special academic and behavioral needs. Teachers specialize in early childhood/elementary education or the middle/high school level and are authorized to teach accordingly. Educators who hold a current Oregon teaching license and who complete the 18-semester-hour program (including the required Praxis tests) may apply to Oregon’s TSPC for the Special Educator Endorsement. This work may include the requirements for the Oregon Continuing Teaching License, thus allowing the teacher to simultaneously earn the Special Educator Endorsement and Continuing License. Teachers who hold a Basic or Standard Oregon Teaching License may complete the Handicapped Learner 1 Endorsement with the same 18-semester-hour program; however, within six years they must also complete an additional 12 semester hours to earn their Standard Handicapped Learner 1 Endorsement.

Coursework for the endorsement may be incorporated into the master of education degree. Students who select this option enroll in a total of 37 semester hours designed collaboratively with their adviser.

All courses are also available to educators not enrolled in the endorsement program who seek professional development in working with students with special needs. Please contact the Special Education Program director before enrolling.

Special educators require skills in working with colleagues to help modify classroom and school environments to meet the needs of all students. These skills include those necessary to create democratic classrooms that facilitate the inclusion of students with a broad spectrum of special needs and to develop instructional methods that increase the interest and success of a wide range of students. Program participants examine issues of cultural bias and sensitivity in courses dealing with topics such as classroom management, language acquisition, assessment, instructional modification, and working with families. The program emphasizes knowledge and skills for working with students experiencing a variety of special needs, including serious behavioral and emotional problems. Participants in the program work with leaders in the field to examine current research in best-accepted and promising practices for helping students improve their academic achievement and increase socially acceptable behaviors. An emphasis is placed on action research within the participant's own classroom and being a reflective practitioner.

Note: Students may work with an adviser to incorporate ESOL and reading courses into their Master of Education and Special Educator Endorsement. Students may petition to waive required courses based on previous coursework or competency. All waivers must be approved by the student's adviser. In the master's degree program, waived courses must be replaced by coursework with equivalent credit.

LA 500/634 Language Acquisition and Development, 3 semester hours including practicum
SPED 510/626 Educating Students With Special Needs: Learning and Legal Issues, 3 semester hours
SPED 511/629 Behavior Change Interventions for Students With Serious Emotional and Behavioral Disorders, 2 semester hours
SPED 512/631 School-Based Consultation, 2 semester hours
SPED 513/632 Assessment and Diagnosis, 4 semester hours including 1-semester-hour practicum

ED 519 Math Connections Practicum

Investigate the development of mathematical concepts among elementary school children by working in a local school with individual students. Candidates will be involved in assessing student understanding and creating appropriate student tasks based on those assessments. Includes a seminar examining topics including mathematical development, student learning, and cultural roles in mathematics.

Prerequisite: Admission to Early Childhood/Elementary Program math cohort.

Credit: 1 semester hour.
License and Endorsement for Inservice Teachers
Several options are available to practicing teachers who wish to obtain the Continuing License, the Standard Teaching License, or subject-matter endorsements, but not an advanced academic degree. Oregon teachers may add endorsements in many subject areas including special education, reading, mathematics, drama, and teaching English to speakers of other languages (ESOL) including bilingual education. Interested candidates should request testing information from the teacher education office.

Courses numbered 600-689 conducted off campus offer graduate credit that may be applicable to Lewis & Clark licensure and endorsement programs.*

Continuing Teaching License
Teachers seeking the Continuing Teaching License are invited to combine this license with one of our endorsement programs. The requirements for the Continuing Teaching License are met by our Special Education, Drama, Reading, and ESOL/Bilingual Education endorsements. For more information regarding the program, please visit education.clark.edu/dept/tc-teach/cont_license.

Drama Endorsement Program
The Drama Endorsement Program is designed for inservice teachers or those who have completed a licensure program and applied for their license. This program emphasizes the uses of drama and theatre studies in arts-based inquiry, social-issues-based dialogue and action, learning, communication, and performance and is appropriate for drama/theatre teachers or for classroom teachers who wish to incorporate drama into classroom teaching. Coursework focuses on hands-on technical theatre skills and teaching strategies for making technical theatre experiences successful and safe for middle-level and high school students.

The program requires 8 semester hours of work, which is offered during the summer in conjunction with the six-week-long Summer Theatre Institute at Lewis & Clark College, and a 2-semester-hour practicum completed in the participant's own school setting following the summer coursework.

* For further information contact the Department of Education at 503-768-6100.

Applicants must have some documented theatre background: an undergraduate major or minor in theatre, significant coursework in theatre arts, significant experience in theatre (college, professional, community, or a K-12 setting), or coursework in acting documented by a letter of recommendation from the acting instructor.

Applicants who seek the endorsement and a Continuing Teaching License (CTL) may complete both in a 12-semester-hour program that combines a portion of the CTL requirements with endorsement coursework.

Required Courses
THED 515 Drama for Learning and Social Action, 2 semester hours
THED 544 Practicum in Drama, 2 semester hours
THED 648 Devising Performance and Facilitating Inquiry, 2 semester hours
THED 648 Script Analysis: From Page to Stage, 1 semester hour
THED 648 Stagecraft: Bringing the Imaginary to Life, 1 semester hour
THED 648 Lighting: Painting With Life, 1 semester hour
THED 648 Sound Design: Adding Emotional Depth, 1 semester hour

ESOL/Bilingual Education Endorsement Program
Designed for educators holding an Oregon teaching license, Lewis & Clark’s ESOL/Bilingual Education Endorsement Program is a 14-semester-hour course of study exploring the principles, theories, research, and practice relevant to the needs of students acquiring English as a second or additional language. To meet the needs of professionals, we offer program courses in the evenings, on weekends, during the summer, and, in some cases, on site. Candidates join colleagues and Lewis & Clark faculty to engage in small classes for dialogue, study, and field experiences that address the full complexity of language diversity and of academic and social inclusion of immigrant students.

Graduates of Lewis & Clark’s ESOL/Bilingual Endorsement Program enter schools prepared to:
■ Support their students’ English language development through content and literature studies as well as direct language instruction.
■ Develop and adapt content-specific curriculum for diverse classroom populations.
■ Employ innovative teaching methodologies and instructional strategies that respond to student needs in the mainstream classroom and beyond.
Utilize assessment principles appropriately.
- Partner with families to build strong ties between the school and the diverse racial, cultural, and linguistic communities it serves.
- Lead their school community in the establishment of collaborative learning environments that support high levels of success for all students and ensure justice for all students and for their families.

Endorsement coursework is degree applicable and may be pursued in conjunction with a master of arts in teaching (M.A.T.) degree or a continuing teaching license. The curriculum is composed of six courses followed by a capstone practicum conducted in the field.

A Bilingual Assessment is available for those candidates seeking to earn the bilingual component of the ESOL/Bilingual Endorsement. A cadre of native and native speaker specialists in targeted languages assess bilingual candidates in a written and oral examination. The reading and writing portion of the exam assesses language necessary for teaching academic content as well as understanding of cultural practices specific to that language. The oral portion of the exam assesses the candidate’s ability to discuss content-area subjects, explain instructional practices, and interact appropriately with adults from the language community. For this endorsement, the state of Oregon also requires a passing score on the Praxis ESOL exam (#20360).

Required Courses
ESOL 507/607, LA 500/634, ED 529
Language Acquisition and Development, 3 semester hours including early childhood practicum
ESOL 500/600 Historical and Legal Foundations of Educating ESOL/Bilingual Students, 3 semester hours
ESOL 501/601 Strategies and Materials for Teaching Content and Literacy to ESOL/Bilingual Students, 3 semester hours
ESOL 502/602 Focus on Culture and Community in Teaching ESOL/Bilingual Students, 3 semester hours
ESOL 505/605 ESOL/Bilingual Practicum, 2 semester hours

Language and Literacy: Reading Endorsement Program
Lewis & Clark’s Language and Literacy: Reading Endorsement Program applies a dynamic view of literacy to reading and writing instruction in the schools. The program’s theoretical base owes much to the work of Linda Rief, Stephanie Harvey, Elkin Keene, Stephen Krashen, Donald Graves, Louise Rosenblatt, and others who believe that reading, writing, listening, and speaking are all language processes. Language users interact with text—oral, written, and visual—to construct meaning and create meaningful stories.

The Language and Literacy: Reading Endorsement Program builds on the knowledge that language, in all its richness of form and function, is the foundation from which effective literacy develops. The program takes an integrated and holistic approach to the teaching of reading, writing, listening, and speaking. Students and teachers develop flexible strategies to support the reader’s construction of meaning from text. Adopting the stance of teacher-researchers, students and faculty explore issues in the teaching of reading and writing. What is literacy? How does our own literacy affect our instruction of language arts? What are the politics of literacy? What can we learn from current research in thought, language, reading, and writing?

To apply this philosophy to the realities of the school world, teachers of language and literacy must know how people—especially children—learn. Teachers must also be able to apply this understanding to language and literacy development in a wide variety of cultures and subcultures. The goal of this program is to give educators the tools to observe, describe, and learn from the behaviors of their students and to build cohesive theoretical bases for learner-centered literacy programs.

The courses in the Language and Literacy Program lead to the Reading Endorsement, allowing candidates to teach reading K-12. For this endorsement, the state of Oregon also requires a passing score on the Praxis reading specialist test. The program requires 14-15 semester hours and can be completed in 18 months of part-time coursework. It may also be completed in conjunction with a master of arts in teaching degree.

Required Courses
(Although courses are not arranged in a fixed sequence, LA 500 is considered the foundation course and LA 502 the culmination of the program.)
LA 500/634 or ESOL 507 Language Acquisition and Development, 3 semester hours
LA 502/620 Innovations in Reading, K-12, 3 semester hours
LA 534/614 Reading Comprehension: Theory and Practical Application, 3 semester hours
ED 532/625 Assessing Reading Strategies: Practicum, 3 semester hours

Elective Courses
LA 501/632 Researching and Teaching the Language Arts, 3 semester hours
LA 515 Drama for Learning and Social Action, 2 semester hours
LA 523/612 Teaching Writing to Adolescents, 2 semester hours
LA 530/630 Children’s Writing, 2 semester hours
LA 531/610 Writing and the Writing Process, 2 semester hours
Other electives may be approved by the faculty adviser.

Note: Courses offered through Lewis & Clark’s Northwest Writing Institute, described elsewhere in this catalog, enrich the programs of M.A.T. students. Interested students should consult their advisers for more information about how Oregon Writing Project courses, the Bard Institute workshops, and courses in creative writing can be integrated into their programs.

Mathematics Endorsement Program
The mathematics endorsements were crafted for a variety of practitioners. Typical endorsement candidates include practicing teachers at the middle and high school levels who seek to expand their instructional abilities and expertise in the area of mathematics; middle-level and high school teachers who are licensed in a subject area other than mathematics but seek to change their teaching assignment to mathematics; middle and high school level teachers who hold a transitional license and seek to continue in their current mathematics teaching position; and elementary teachers wishing to specialize in mathematics.

To meet these various needs and interests, two programs of study are offered. The Basic Mathematics Endorsement is designed for individuals preparing to teach mathematics at the middle level, and the Advanced Mathematics Endorsement is designed for individuals preparing to teach mathematics at the high school level. Both programs comply with state of Oregon requirements and guidelines.

Candidates for the Basic Mathematics Endorsement must hold an undergraduate minor in mathematics or have completed successfully three undergraduate courses in a mathematics-related field. In addition, Basic Mathematics Endorsement candidates must pass the “Middle School Mathematics” (#20069) portion of the Praxis exam.

Candidates for the Advanced Mathematics Endorsement must hold a bachelor’s degree in mathematics or in science, engineering, economics, computer science, geography, or other technical field requiring extensive preparation in mathematics. In addition, Advanced Mathematics Endorsement candidates must pass the “Mathematics: Content Knowledge” (#10061) and “Mathematics: Proofs, Models, and Problems, Part I (#20063) Praxis exams.

Because there are many ways to obtain the depth and breadth of background in mathematics required for each program, applications for admission are assessed on an individual basis.

Basic Mathematics Endorsement Requirements
1 semester hour in the required course
Minimum of 5 semester hours of math-based elective courses selected in consultation with a program adviser from the list below
2 semester hours of a mathematics teaching practicum that consists of a minimum of 30 hours in a middle-level classroom under the supervision of a program faculty member
A passing score on the Praxis exam “Middle School Mathematics” (#20069)

Required Course
MATH 579 Teaching Mathematics to Adolescents, 3 semester hours

Elective Courses
MATH 501 Inquiry Into Mathematical Thought, 2 semester hours
MATH 522 Experiencing Geometry, 2 semester hours
MATH 525 Mathematics as Problem Solving, 2 semester hours
MATH 580 Integrating Technology Into Secondary Mathematics, 1 semester hour
MATH 590 Multicultural History of Mathematics, 2 semester hours
ED 562 Elementary School Mathematics, 3 semester hours
The Courage to Teach Program for Inservice Teachers
The Courage to Teach is a yearlong program for the personal and professional renewal of K-12 teachers. The program focuses neither on teaching techniques nor on school reform; instead, it focuses on renewing something much more personal, the inner life of the teacher.

In large groups, small groups, and solitary settings, participants explore “the heart of the teacher.” Teachers share stories from their own journeys; reflect on classroom practice; and draw upon the insights of poets, storytellers, and diverse cultural traditions. The program invites teachers to speak honestly about their lives as educators, and to listen and respond to each other with encouragement and compassion.

Because inner work takes time, participants in the Courage to Teach Program are asked to commit themselves to faithful attendance at four seasonal retreats, scheduled from Thursday evening through Saturday lunch. Starting in September and ending in July, these sessions are held at retreat centers throughout the Northwest. Between retreats, participants are offered opportunities to stay in contact with each other and to continue their inner growth. Participation is limited to 24 teachers. (Participants must be practicing teachers or have worked as educators within the past three years.)

Application Procedures
1) Contact Greg Smith at 503-768-6119 for a Courage to Teach application form and current program dates and costs.

2) Submit your completed application form to Courage to Teach, c/o Greg Smith, Lewis & Clark College, 0615 S.W. Palatine Hill Road, Portland, Oregon 97219-7899. Be sure to include these supporting materials:
   ■ A professional vitae/resume outlining relevant academic and/or professional experience.
   ■ A personal statement briefly explaining how you envision your future as a teacher, your reasons for seeking participation in this program, and how you expect to benefit from the program.

“I had a teacher at Lewis & Clark who knew his subject so well that if you didn’t understand the way he explained it, he could explain it a second way and a third, and a fourth. And he was so invested in his students that he would do that—whatever it took until he saw that light bulb go on. I aspire to be that kind of teacher.”

—Ford Morishita B.S. ’78, M.A.T. ’81, Oregon’s 1997 Teacher of the Year and a biology teacher at Clackamas High School
The Indigenous Ways of Knowing Project

In the fall of 2005, the Ford Foundation awarded Lewis & Clark College funding to support the development of an innovative Native American studies program. An initiative of the graduate school's Oregon Center for Inquiry and Social Innovation and designed in collaboration with its academic departments, this project seeks to increase representation for historically marginalized people among professional educators and counselors.

In an increasingly multicultural and complex world, the Indigenous Ways of Knowing Project will help prepare native and nonnative teachers, counselors, and related community leaders for positive and informed leadership roles. Options will include advanced studies in indigenous life in the new millennium, supervised field experiences, Core classes (including CORE 506, CORE 507, and a course on great tribal leaders), and topical seminars related to degree specializations.

For more information about this project, please contact the Oregon Center for Inquiry and Social Innovation at 503-769-6099 or center director Mary Clare at clare@lclark.edu.

Minimum Degree Requirements and Waivers

Lewis & Clark offers both preservice and inservice M.A.T. degree programs that vary in their minimum number of required credits. Programs and credit requirements are described elsewhere in this catalog. Students may petition to waive courses or requirements and to transfer credit earned at other institutions. Transferred credit toward a degree is normally limited to the equivalent of 10 semester hours.

Under some circumstances, students may pursue a license independently of earning a degree. To be recommended by Lewis & Clark for any education license, students must earn at least 6 semester hours of credit through a program at Lewis & Clark. In order to meet licensure requirements through coursework taken elsewhere or through experience and competency, students must apply for a waiver in writing, provide documentation of comparable coursework or competency, and obtain the signatures of the instructor teaching the course in question and of their Lewis & Clark adviser or cohort coordinator.

Although there is no fixed limit to the number of credits a student may petition to waive toward earning a license, Lewis & Clark College does not grant any credit toward a degree for courses waived. To complete the degree, students must either replace waived credits with elective study or petition the Department of Teacher Education for a reduction in degree requirements. The student's adviser or cohort coordinator, in consultation with the department chair, will determine the merits of the petition and make a recommendation to the registrar. The registrar will notify the student of the decision in writing and will place a copy of this notice in the student's file. In no event will a petition be granted to reduce an M.A.T. degree below 36 semester hours of credit. This 36-credit minimum may include transferred credits approved according to the policies in this catalog.

Application for Degree Candidacy

Graduate programs in teacher education are governed by the policies and procedures described in this catalog. All degree or licensure candidates are expected to be familiar with these policies.

Students must file the application for degree candidacy at least one semester prior to the semester they plan to graduate. Students who plan to complete degree requirements in the summer may participate in the College commencement in early June of that year if they file for their degree application by February 27. Students completing degree requirements in December may participate in commencement the following June. In either case, degree candidates must file their completed degree application with the graduate registrar's office by the published deadline.

Academic Advising

Each accepted degree and nondegree (licensure-only) student is assigned an academic adviser from among the full-time teacher education faculty. Faculty advisers in teacher education assist students in planning an official course of study and answer questions about specific endorsement programs in teacher education and about career decisions.

Interested preservice candidates may inquire about monthly information sessions held with faculty. Inservice candidates should call the program office or subject-area faculty adviser to request an advising appointment.

Education Courses

Note: Some of the courses listed below may not be offered during the current academic year. Current course offerings are listed in the online guide to registration at graduate.clark.u.edu/dept/gradreg.

Education

ED 500*
Educational Research
How professional educators can gather and interpret the information they need for effective decision making. Topics include the major uses and components of classroom or school-based research processes, quantitative and qualitative methods, the scholarly critique of research studies, and what it means to be a reflective teacher-researcher.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

ED 501*
Constructive Assessment in the Classroom
Reexamination of assessment practices employing current constructivist approaches to teaching and learning as well as reflective practice and action research. Participants examine the range of assessment options and design an approach for teachers, diverse students, and parents, including portfolios, performance assessment, interviews, observations, questioning, checklists, self-assessment, and testing. Topics include instructional planning, student engagement, information management, assessment and documentation of student learning, and reporting practices.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

ED 504*
Classroom Management for the Inclusive Classroom
Most effective practices for working with students at risk for school failure in the areas of classroom management, instruction, social and study skill development, behavior change, and school-wide management. Participants discuss classroom cases and review current research in these areas and in human development, exceptionality, and educating youth with diverse needs and backgrounds. Emphasis on examining classroom environments to ensure students work in democratic communities that show respect for all students, involve meaningful instructional activities, and show respect for students cultural backgrounds. Final projects involve developing individual and school programs for assisting students with special needs.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

* Open to those with Special Student status as space allows.
ED 505
Teaching and Learning in Elementary and Middle Schools
Advanced seminar-practicum in expanding and evaluating elementary and middle school teaching practices appropriate to subject-area content, diverse student needs, and educational goals. Exploring what it means to be a teacher-researcher and the importance of student-constructed knowledge, participants evaluate instruction through observation, microteaching, and peer reflection. Participants collaboratively examine professional practices through sharing videotapes of their teaching in their own classes or in an arranged placement.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

ED 507
Teaching and Learning in Middle and Secondary Schools
Advanced seminar-practicum in expanding and evaluating middle and secondary school teaching practices appropriate to subject-area content, diverse student needs, and educational goals. Exploring what it means to be a teacher-researcher and the importance of student-constructed knowledge, participants evaluate instruction through observation, microteaching, and peer reflection. Participants collaboratively examine professional practices through sharing videotapes of their teaching in their own classes or in an arranged placement.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

ED 509
M.A.T. Project Seminar
Culmination of the M.A.T. inservice program. Students have the opportunity to integrate what they have learned. In consultation with the instructor, students design a project that defines and answers a question about creating engaging, responsive, democratic learning communities for diverse learners related to their teaching or intellectual and professional development. Class time is reduced to accommodate individual conferences with the instructor and students' research time. The class meets as a group to support students' synthesis of each other's work and for problem-solving as research and writing proceed. Also listed as SPED 523.
Prerequisite: To be taken at end of M.A.T. program.
Credit: 2 semester hours, CR/NC.

Open to those with Special Student status as space allows.

ED 510
Literacy Connections Practicum: Culturally Responsive Teaching
Plan and implement engagements with students, parents, and teachers at an elementary school in the Portland Public Schools district in order to broaden candidate's professional background. Participants plan and implement tutorial work with students, meet with teachers to ascertain students' needs, analyze student learning during seminars, participate in a book discussion with the entire faculty, and plan both a professional workshop and a parent activity in the library. Allows students to apply a variety of instructional and assessment strategies in a Title I school committed to greater achievement.
Prerequisite: Admission to Early Childhood/Elementary language/literacy cohort.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

ED 512
Real-World Problem Solving Practicum
Real-world problem-solving engages students in an emergent, integrated, culturally responsive curriculum as they construct knowledge and understanding relevant to resolving an issue or concern of significance to their local community. Designed to assist interns in understanding the context of emergent curriculum, the active role of the learner in schools, and the importance of contributing to the local community.
Prerequisite: Admission to Early Childhood/Elementary science/math cohort.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

ED 513A
Early Childhood Practicum
Concurrent with ED 561. Interns spend 6-8 hours weekly in practica at the level of their nonprimary endorsement. Interns who wish to teach elementary school complete the summer practicum in an early-childhood setting.
Corequisite: ED 561.
Prerequisite: Admission to Early Childhood/Elementary Program.
Credit: 1 semester hour, CR/NC.

ED 513B
Elementary Practicum
Concurrent with ED 561. Interns spend 6-8 hours weekly in practica at the level of their nonprimary endorsement. Interns who wish to teach in an early-childhood setting complete the summer practicum with children in grades 4-8.
Corequisite: ED 561.
Prerequisite: Admission to Early Childhood/Elementary Program.
Credit: 1 semester hour, CR/NC.
ED 514
Intern Practicum I (Early Childhood or Elementary)
Part-time internship placement in an elementary classroom. In addition to observing classroom instruction, the intern serves as apprentice to the mentor teacher, working with individuals and small groups of students. Interns also observe and work with small groups at their second authorization level, completing at least 20 hours of observation and teaching. Interns are in their classroom full-time during December. Campus seminars devoted to reflective discussions of teaching, learning, and assessment practices in diverse contexts are scheduled throughout the semester.
Prerequisite: Admission to Early Childhood/Elementary Program.
Credit: 2 semester hours, CR/NC.

ED 515
Intern Practicum II (Early Childhood or Elementary)
Intensive intern teaching experience. Each student teacher intern assumes full-time teaching responsibility under the supervision of a mentor teacher and a Lewis & Clark faculty supervisor. This experience builds on the intern teaching begun during the previous semester. Includes scheduled seminars. Interns also complete observation and teaching at their second authorization level. The intern spends approximately 680 hours at the school site and also attends a campus seminar each week that is devoted to reflective discussion of teaching, learning, and assessment practices in diverse contexts.
Prerequisite: Admission to Early Childhood/Elementary Program.
Credit: 8 semester hours, CR/NC.

ED 516
Essential Readings About School Reform
Same as EDAD 505/615.

ED 519
Math Connections Practicum
Investigate the development of mathematical concepts among elementary school children by working in a local school and with individual students. Candidates will be involved in assessing student understanding and creating appropriate student tasks based on those assessments. Includes a seminar examining mathematical development, student learning, and cultural roles in mathematics.
Prerequisite: Admission to Early Childhood/Elementary Program math cohort.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

ED 520A/620A
Professional Portfolio I
"Community of learners" forum for teachers enrolled in the Continuing Teaching License Program and in the ESOL Endorsement Program. Taken at the start of the program. Offers participants a collegial environment for exploring their strengths, needs, and possibilities in their current teaching setting. Participants construct a teaching narrative and design an individualized learning plan for the professional portfolio that documents their knowledge and performance in Oregon’s advanced teaching competencies during their program study.
Prerequisite: Initial License and admission to a continuing teaching license program, or consent of the department chair.
Credit: 1 semester hour, CR/NC.

ED 520B/620B
Professional Portfolio II
“Community of learners” forum for teachers enrolled in the Continuing Teaching License Program and in the ESOL Endorsement Program. Taken at the end of the program. Includes presentation of the portfolio begun in ED 520A/620A.
Prerequisite: Initial license, admission to a Continuing Teaching License Program, ED 520A/620A.
Credit: 1 semester hour, CR/NC.

ED 521A/621A, 521B/621B, 521C/621C
Inquiry Into Practice I, II, III
“Community of learners” forum for teachers enrolled in the Continuing Teaching License Program. Each of these seminars offers practicing teachers opportunities to investigate and document their teaching. Participants meet Oregon’s advanced teaching competencies through reading, discussion, peer collaboration, and authentic assessments and documentation. Seminars center on themes of best practices. Includes the following three courses, which must be taken in consecutive order:
Inquiry Into Practice I
Development of a professional portfolio, teacher as researcher, evaluation/assessment, diversity and multicultural education.
Prerequisite: Instructor consent.
Credit: 1-2 semester hours.

Inquiry Into Practice II
Classroom management, special education, differentiated instruction, strategies and practices for academic success, integration of technology.
Prerequisite: ED 521A/621A.
Credit: 1-2 semester hours.

Inquiry Into Practice III
Building and maintaining professional community, sustaining and nourishing the teacher within, presentation of a professional portfolio.
Prerequisite: ED 521A/621A, ED 521B/621B.
Credit: 1-2 semester hours.

"A teacher who can arouse a feeling for one single good action, for one single good poem, accomplishes more than one who fills our memory with rows on rows of natural objects, classified with name and form.”
—Johann Wolfgang Von Goethe, Elective Affinities
Throughout the Teacher Education Program, students are encouraged to develop strategies as lifelong learners. This focus is achieved through frequent seminars with faculty, experiential learning activities, and guided writing. Close cooperation between Lewis & Clark faculty and community educators also contributes to these goals.

Professional Development for Instructional Leaders
Application of research on professional development, teaching, and learning for instructional leaders. Participants examine approaches to teacher learning that cultivate long-term sustained support between colleagues, including mentoring, peer coaching, professional portfolios, collaborative teaching, and reflective practices. Topics include research on adult development, learning theory, instructional theory, and comprehensive programs for at-risk students. This research provides a basis for developing systematic professional development programs that are sensitive to changing school cultures and that cultivate staff and student diversity and continuous learning. Appropriate for students considering careers in educational administration. May be substituted for ED 505 or ED 507 for the master's program. Also listed as EDAD 533. Prerequisite: Consent of adviser. Credit: 3 semester hours.

Small Schools in Theory and Practice
Exploration of advantages of small schools and their success in supporting enhanced academic achievement among a wide range of students, especially students from economically disadvantaged communities. Covers issues that need to be considered to ensure the long-term viability of such schools. Presentations by local educators who work in small schools supplement readings. Also listed as EDAD 555. Prerequisite: Admission to Inservice M.A.T. Program, Educational Administration M.Ed. Program, or consent of instructor and adviser. Credit: 2 semester hours.

ED 529*
Language Acquisition and Development
Same as ESOL 507/607, LA 500/634.

ED 532/625*
Assessing Reading Strategies: Practicum
Seminar-practicum for classroom teachers and reading specialists at all grade levels. Topics include a language orientation for diagnosing reading problems, diverse causes and correlates of reading difficulties, assessment procedures in reading, and strategies to facilitate readers' improvement. Each participant assesses a reader, develops a profile of personal strategies, and designs and implements an instructional plan to help the reader develop effective, efficient reading strategies responsive to individual difference, interests, and developmental levels. Participants consider reading issues for students at all four license levels (early childhood, elementary, middle level, and high school). Prerequisite: None. Credit: 3 semester hours.

ED 534*
Reading Comprehension: Theory and Practical Application
Same as LA 534/614.

ED 540/609
Teaching Linguistically and Culturally Diverse Students
Exploration of diversity, including social class, race, ethnicity, and language, and how these differences intersect with ethnic minority status and limited English proficiency. Participants consider the education of language-minority students and learn specific laws and research findings related to accommodating and respecting diversity in schools. Topics include stages of language acquisition, methods for assisting language acquisition and comprehension of content, parent and community involvement, and student advocacy. Also listed as EDAD 543. Prerequisite: None. Credit: 2 semester hours.

ED 544/644*
Practicum
Prerequisite: None. Credit: 1-5 semester hours.

ED 547*
Race, Culture, and Power
Same as SS 547, CORE 538.

ED 548*
Classroom Assessment: Work Sample
Teachers construct an evaluation profile of the learning of one of the classes they teach, documenting the relationship between what they teach and what their students are learning. This demonstrates the teacher's ability to set learning objectives responsive to individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts; to teach a body of content; and to show how students have learned. The teacher analyzes and praises a work sample to illustrate his or her ability to assess, document, and advocate for the successful learning of all students and school stakeholders. This activity meets the Teacher Standards and Practices Commission requirements for standard licensure. Prerequisite: ED 501 (may be taken concurrently). Credit: 1 semester hour, CR/NC.

ED 550
Social, Historical, and Ethical Perspectives on Education
Critical and comprehensive review of education and schooling in American society. Considers education in its larger socioeconomic, political, ideological, and cultural contexts and examines race, class, gender,

* Open to those with Special Student status as space allows.
and culture in the formal educational system. Analyzes issues of goals, funding, governance, curricula, policy, staffing, and reforms both in historical and contemporary forms. Participants study education both as a microcosm of society, reflecting the larger struggles in the country, and as a quasi-autonomous entity.
Prerequisite: Admission to Preservice Program.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

ED 551
Literacy, Culture, and Learning
Understanding of the central importance of language and the social construction of knowledge. Examines issues of diverse perspectives; the changing definitions of literacy, including numeracy, scientific literacy, and visual literacy; an integrated process-oriented approach to reading and writing in the subject field; and basic information about standardized testing and classroom-based assessment. Introduction to literacy issues for students whose first language is not English. Stresses qualitative methods for understanding the learning environment and the meaning-making systems of students. At their internship sites, participants conduct interviews and apply ethnographic methods and observation systems as they work to assess and document the meaning-making strategies of a selected middle or high school student and advocate, support, and improve that student's literacy skills. Incorporates a range of technological resources from the school and community into experiences that support literacy learning.
Prerequisite: Admission to Middle-Level/High School Program.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

ED 552
Adolescent Development, Learning, and Exceptionality
Discussion, critique, and application of current research on adolescent development, including the early adolescent and middle school years, understood from a life-span, ecological, and culturally responsive perspective, with applications to adolescents' experiences in and out of schools. Topics include cognitive, psychosocial, physical, sexual, moral, spiritual, and identity development including contexts of race, ethnicity, class, gender; risk-taking behavior and vulnerability; coping skills; resilience; substance use/abuse/addiction; health and wellness; families and communities; and the internal and external assets that help today's youth thrive. Examines strategies for engaging students in learning experiences responsive to development levels and cultural contexts.
Prerequisite: Admission to Middle-Level/High School Program or consent of instructor.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

ED 553
Classroom Teaching and Learning I
Professional seminar in support of students' fall practicum. Topics include teacher identity, professionalism, socialization, reflective practice, renewal/support for teachers, and the creation of democratic learning communities. Examines federal and Oregon law prohibiting discriminatory practices in schools. Participants gain practice in teaching through a concurrent internship placement in a middle school or high school.
Prerequisite: Admission to Middle-Level/High School Program.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

ED 554
Classroom Teaching and Learning II
Professional seminar to support student interns' intensive practice teaching in schools, including supervision, self-evaluation, and reflection on ethical behavior and professional development. Examination of a professional identity continues, emphasizing respect for diverse peoples, ideas, and cultures. Addresses standards-based assessment practices, including those congruent with Oregon education reform, teaching as an occupation and profession, the legal context of teaching, and rationales for educational practices.
Prerequisite: Completion of all other components of middle or secondary endorsement for Initial Teaching License and current enrollment in an internship. The course extends through the end of May.
Credit: 8 semester hours, CR/NC.

ED 555
Experience and Meaning
Reflective, collaborative examination of information and ideas from the previous 12 months of study. Returns to some of the issues examined the previous summer, including equity, school finance, educational politics, teacher organizations, and professionalism, and reexamines them with the perspective of experience in courses and in the schools. Students develop reflective papers that integrate and critique their learning.
Prerequisite: Completion of a preservice internship.
Credit: 1-2 semester hours.

ED 556
The Work of Paulo Freire
Study of one of the most influential educators of the 20th century. A revolutionary pedagogue, Paulo Freire was also a humanist, philosopher, liberation theologian, public intellectual, and visionary. He worked with UNESCO, the World Council of Churches, Harvard University, and many decolonized countries, as well as "the wretched of the earth." Freire, who was imprisoned and then exiled by a Brazilian junta for his views on education, politics, economics, culture, society, and religion, dedicated his life to the pursuit of freedom, justice, democracy, liberation, humanization, and collective empowerment. Explores Freire’s ideas in the context of education in North America. Also listed as CORE 513.

Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

ED 559
Math for Early Childhood
Development of prenumber concepts, quantititative reasoning, and computational skills in learning problem-solving strategies. Students acquire competence in using culturally responsive and individually appropriate instructional materials for teaching mathematics to children from age 3 through grade 3.
Prerequisite: Admission to Early Childhood/Elementary Program.
Credit: 1 semester hour, CR/NC.

ED 560
Technology and Curriculum
Through the exploration of a wide range of software applications, network opportunities, and multimedia resources, students increase their understanding of the value of technology in the classroom and their ability to use a variety of technology resources. Participants examine the culture, language, artifacts, roles, myths, and assumptions created by the introduction of technology into schools. Focuses on using technology as a resource and learning tool to enhance learning within the curriculum, rather than as an additional curricular topic or area.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1 semester hour, CR/NC.

ED 561
Child Development, Learning, and Exceptionality
Discussion, critique, and application of theories of child development, learning, and exceptionality. Prospective teachers integrate observations and interviews of children with theory and research from a variety of disciplines. Through case studies, cultural narratives, theoretical constructs, and research, participants explore children’s development within diverse cultural and family systems, including the cognitive, affective, psychological, social, moral, identity, and physiological domains. Topics include multiple intelligences and ways of knowing, creativity, motivation, theories of teaching and learning, assessment, exceptionality, and inclusion as well as the influences of social, cultural, linguistic, familial, and institutional factors on children’s development and learning.
Prerequisite: ED 513A or 513B.
Prerequisite: Admission to Early Childhood/Elementary Program or consent of instructor.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

ED 562
Elementary School Mathematics
Review of mathematical concepts including numeracy, basic operations, geometry, rational numbers, measurement, and probability and statistics in a problem-solving context. Elementary mathematics curricula, instructional strategies, and assessment that are individually and culturally responsive are examined and demonstrated throughout the course in terms of both the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics and Oregon standards.
Prerequisite: Admission to Early Childhood/Elementary Program.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

ED 563
Classroom Management and Inclusion
Placing classroom management in perspective, understanding students’ personal and academic needs, creating positive teacher-student and peer relationships, and creating classroom rules and procedures within democratic learning communities. Examines motivation theory, teaching methods that prevent discipline problems, problem-solving, behavioristic interventions, and working with parents. Explores school and classroom practices in response to cultural, developmental, and exceptional needs of children and adolescents. Sections focus on theory and practice appropriate for the developmental levels and cultural contexts of either early childhood/elementary classrooms or middle-level/high school classrooms.
Prerequisite: Admission to Preservice Program.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

ED 564
Curriculum and Inquiry
Organizing appropriate curriculum and teaching approaches to engage students in meaningful learning experiences responsive to individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts. Focus on research and theory in curriculum. Participants continue exploring the concept of the teacher as researcher by adopting habits of personal and scholarly reflection that examine their professional practice. Students complete both required Inquiry/Work Samples. Topics include legal and political issues pertaining to curriculum; the relationship of curriculum, instruction, and evaluation; curriculum materials; rationales for instructional practices; and Oregon education reform.
Prerequisite: Admission to Middle-Level/High School Program or consent of instructor.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

ED 565
Reading I: Literacy Development, Pre-K-Grade 8
Literacy processes and children's language and literacy development from birth through the middle grades. Focus is on theoretical foundations of literacy, meaning construction across symbol systems, early reading and writing behavior, meaning-centered instructional practices, and basic knowledge and instructional practices relating to word recognition skills and comprehension processes. Introduces students to a range of individually and culturally responsive instructional assessment approaches and materials to promote literacy learning, as well as the concept of media literacy.
Prerequisite: Admission to Early Childhood/Elementary Program.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

ED 566
Reading II: Literacy Development, K-Grade 8
Continuation of ED 565. Focus on individually and culturally responsive curriculum and instructional practices for literacy development in grades K-8. Gives increased attention to fluent readers, instruction in the intermediate and middle grades, classroom organization and implementation, methods for assessing students' reading and writing performance, diagnosis of individual needs, and strategies for linking assessment results with appropriate curriculum and instruction across the content areas.
Prerequisite: Admission to Early Childhood/Elementary Program.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

ED 567
Language Arts and Literature, Pre-K-Grade 8
Exploration of literature and the development of a theoretical framework and exemplary practices for teaching the language arts. Introduces and promotes use of child and adolescent literature for enjoyment and for development of thought, language, literacy, and multicultural perspectives in the classroom. Explores the language arts curriculum with emphasis on understanding the processes and skills involved in growing language competence, learning a wide range of methods and techniques to foster language development, language skills, and individually and culturally responsive approaches and ways of assessing children's competence and development.
Prerequisite: Admission to Early Childhood/Elementary Program.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

ED 568*
The Arts, Culture, and Creativity
Participants explore how children and adults think about and engage in the arts in connection with other areas of learning and development. Through creative, imaginative experiences, participants explore concepts such as patterns, pitch, texture, line, narration, and color within the fields of music, visual arts, storytelling, and movement, enacted within different cultural perspectives. Emphasis on creativity, imaginative use of the arts, and understanding the nature and value of arts in human lives and cultures. Also listed as CORE 501.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours, CR/NC.

ED 569
Health and Physical Education
Age-appropriate skill and fitness development, practical use of the gym and equipment, personal safety, wellness, and nutrition. Topics include methods of assessing physical education skills and integrating physical education and health into the math and language arts curriculum.
Prerequisite: Admission to Early Childhood/Elementary Program.
Credit: 1 semester hour, CR/NC.

ED 570*
Teaching the Literature of Nature
Exploration of the genre of nature writing, focusing primarily on American authors but occasionally including texts from other regions of the world. Participants consider ways this literature can be taught to students in elementary, middle, and high school. Attention is also paid to the way nature writers can teach us to be more aware of our surroundings and conscious of the need to protect them. Also listed as LA 557 and SCI 557.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

* Open to those with Special Student status as space allows.
ED 573* Integrated Studies for the Middle and Secondary Grades
Relationship between the structure of knowledge in several academic disciplines, curriculum organization and construction, and the instructional arrangements necessary for achieving integrated curricula. Participants develop integrated, thematic curricula that support an inquiry-oriented, student-centered learning community in culturally diverse schools.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

ED 580* Teaching Life Through Art: The Creative Process
Same as ART 510.

ED 598* Special Studies: New or Experimental Courses

ED 599* Independent Study

ED 614* Classroom Management
Most effective practices for working with students at risk for school failure in the areas of classroom management, instruction, social and study skill development, behavior change, and school management. Participants discuss classroom cases and review current research in these areas, in human development, and in educating youth with diverse needs and backgrounds. ED 504 may be substituted for the ED 614-614B sequence.
Prerequisite: None. Taken in sequence with 614B.
Credit: 2-3 semester hours.

ED 614B* Classroom Management for Special Educators
Continuation of ED 614, with a more in-depth look at teaching students with special needs, including those receiving services under IDEA or Section 504. Final projects involve developing individual and school programs for assisting students. ED 504 may be substituted for the ED 614-614B sequence.
Prerequisite: None. Taken in sequence with ED 614.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

* Open to those with Special Student status as space allows.

ED 901, 902 The Reflective Teacher: Seminars in the Courage to Teach
Exploration of the "heart of the teacher" through personal stories; reflections on classroom practice; and insights from poets, storytellers, and diverse cultural traditions. Based on an 18-month calendar with five retreats organized around the themes of agriculture and the seasons. This course may be repeated.
Prerequisite: Admission to Courage to Teach Program (see page 43).
Credit: 2 semester hours each.

ESOL/Bilingual Education Endorsement

ESOL 500/600 Historical and Legal Foundations of Educating ESOL/Bilingual Students
Examination of the history of trends and attitudes toward immigrants and learners of English as a second language. Topics include the psychological, social, and political characteristics of bilingualism and biculturalism in the United States and abroad. ESOL/bilingual teaching is considered in light of laws, research findings, and second-language acquisition theory. Explores the distinction between language difference and disabilities and provides an overview of legal issues pertaining to second-language learners and special and gifted education students. Also provides critical reading of research-based programs, English-language proficiency standards, and standardized test measures. Ensures that educators are not only able to plan and implement programs designed for the optimal learning of all students, but also gives educators the tools to advocate for equity in their schools and school communities.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

ESOL 501/601 Strategies and Materials for Teaching Content and Literacy to ESOL/Bilingual Students
How and whys of content-learning approaches such as sheltered English, integrated language teaching, applications of language experience, whole language, and cooperative learning for second-language learners. Provides grounding in the relationship between first- and second-language literacy, oral language proficiency, and culturally responsive reading comprehension. Explores materials, literacy teaching approaches, classroom organization, formal and alternative assessment measures, technology integration, and the alignment of curriculum models with English-language proficiency levels. Participants critically examine curriculum models, community resources, and content in relation to student experience.
Prerequisite: ESOL 502/602; ESOL 507/607, LA 500/634, or ED 529.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

ESOL 502/602
Focus on Culture and Community in Teaching ESOL/Bilingual Students
Understanding the student within the context of his or her environment. The first part of the course focuses on cultural factors that influence learning and their implications for instruction. The latter part of the course examines the involvement of significant individuals in a child's academic programs and explores barriers to family involvement. Introduces cross-cultural preresearch screening tools for gifted and special-needs English-language learners. Participants develop strategies for establishing positive school, family, and community partnerships and explore tools for combating racism and bias in schools.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

ESOL 505/605
ESOL/Bilingual Practicum
Apprenticeship to a mentor who teaches in ESOL, bilingual, or sheltered English classrooms or is an ESOL/bilingual consultant teacher. Practicum interns work with individuals as well as small and large groups to practice teaching students who are acquiring English as a second language.
Prerequisite: ESOL 501/601; ESOL 502/602; ESOL 507/607, LA 500/634, or ED 529.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

ESOL 507/607
Language Acquisition and Development
Theories of first- and second-language acquisition (written and spoken), including the relationship between the first-language and the acquisition of other languages, and the relationship of language to cognitive development. Introduces formal and informal language assessment tools, and English-language proficiency standards. Provides an understanding of language acquisition and development as it is used to promote school environments that honor diverse perspectives, maximize language-learning potential, and ensure respect for communities whose languages or varieties differ from standard school English. Also listed as ED 529, LA 500/634.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

Special Education

SPED 510/626
Educating Students With Special Needs: Learning and Legal Issues
Introduction to the learning and behavioral characteristics of children with special needs, and how educators attempt to meet these needs. Topics include history, current issues, contemporary practice of special education as a professional discipline, incorporation of technology, and legal issues. Students develop sensitivity and a basic foundation in the education of students with special needs and examine issues of cultural variability in student special education eligibility.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

SPED 511/629
Behavior Change Interventions for Students With Serious Emotional and Behavioral Disorders
Study of developmental backgrounds of students with serious emotional and behavioral problems, and practices to help these students develop more productive behaviors. Topics include the use of a functional analysis to determine the necessary interventions including environmental modifications, social skill training, cognitive-behavioral interventions, self-monitoring, contracting, and the use of outside agencies to support the school in assisting students. Emphasis on examining students' lives in their community and school to assess students' assets and support that can be provided to encourage the student to make better decisions.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

SPED 512/631
School-Based Consultation
Identifying and applying the elements of the consultation and collaboration skills needed to support students in the classroom. Topics include communication strategies, conflict resolution skills, problem-solving techniques, decision-making processes, staff development, facilitating consultation and collaboration efforts, and developing effective interpersonal communication. Students are provided skills in examining classroom settings and developing skills in helping teachers developing instructional and assessment methods sensitive to students' special abilities and sensitive to students' cultural values and beliefs.
Prerequisite: SPED 510/626.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

* Open to those with Special Student status as space allows.
"Special education at Lewis & Clark College means studying with gifted practitioners and fellow students who are committed to truly understanding students with special needs and who work passionately and creatively for school environments sensitive to the needs of all."
—Vern Jones, chair of the Department of Education

SPED 513/632
Assessment and Diagnosis for Students With Special Needs
Assessment, diagnosis, and eligibility for special education as defined by federal and state law with specific attention to curricular assessment to provide support for special education instruction. Pays particular attention to mental retardation and learning disabilities. Participants practice designing an ongoing assessment paradigm, selecting, administering, and scoring appropriate assessments and interpreting the scores. Specific emphasis is placed on issues of culturally sensitive assessment and involving students and families in the assessment process.
Prerequisite: SPED 510/626.
Credit: 4 semester hours including 1-semester-hour practicum.

SPED 514/633
Curriculum and Instruction for Students With Special Needs
Focuses on researching validated curriculum and instructional practices for students with disabilities. Based on standards and related general education curricula, participants design and develop curricula and instructional units that emphasise the accommodations necessary for students with special needs to access and make progress in general education. Emphasis is placed on integrated curricula and collaboration among general educators, special educators, and families through the student’s IEP, as supported by ongoing curriculum-based assessment with data.
Corequisite: SPED 544/644.
Prerequisite: SPED 513/632.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

SPED 516/628
Interventions for Severely Challenged Students
Instructional practices that promote or enhance learning for students who have severe disabilities (i.e., autism, severe mental impairment, or multiple disabilities). Participants gain a broad understanding of the challenges facing severely disabled children in a school setting. Students review best-practice strategies and develop instructional techniques to successfully serve these children in the least restrictive environment.
Students examine methods for using a wide range of resources, including those found in the community and technology.
Prerequisite: SPED 510/626.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

SPED 517/627
Teaching Reading to Students with Special Needs
Theory, curriculum, and instructional practices based on validated research for teaching reading and writing to students with disabilities. Topics include causes and correlates of reading difficulties, as well as models of reading instruction for all grade levels that emphasize reading comprehension, skill and strategy acquisition, and ongoing reading assessment based on general education curricula. Participants assess and analyze a student’s reading/writing skills and develop an instructional plan to increase the student’s reading/writing efficiency and effectiveness.
Prerequisite: SPED 514/633 or permission of adviser.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

SPED 520/620
Advanced Instructional Decision Making
Building on skills developed in the assessment, curriculum, and instruction courses, participants integrate and apply concepts of curriculum and instructional decision making for students with diverse backgrounds and needs. Focus is on the integration of relevant state standards, general education curricula in the classroom, state standards assessment, and research in instructional practices with demonstrated efficacy for students with high-incidence disabilities.
Prerequisite: SPED 514/633 or permission of adviser.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

SPED 521/621
Effective Program Development for Students With Serious Emotional and Behavioral Disorders
Examination of key components of effective programs. Students visit and review programs that use different intervention models. Participants study and review delivery systems ranging from a consultation model to a therapeutic day-treatment program. Emphasis

* Open to those with Special Student status as space allows.
on creating democratic communities that respond sensitively to students social/emotional and developmental needs and are culturally sensitive. Focuses on creating meaningful learning including place-based education and real-world problem-solving with students who experiences emotional and behavior disorders.
Prerequisite: SPED 511/629.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

SPED 522/622
Program Development for Severely
Challenged Students
Current best practices in developing programs for children with severe disabilities.
Participants review literature and models for delivery of service to these students and explore existing programs that cover the entire continuum of special education services as they relate to severely disabled children. Topics include services that bridge the transition from school to community/workplace as well as transition services for younger children.
Prerequisite: SPED 516/628.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

SPED 523/623/ED 509
Special Topics Seminar
Culmination of the Special Educator
Endorsement. Students integrate and apply what they have learned throughout the program while examining topics of special interest to classroom participants. In consultation with instructor and class participants, each student designs a project that answers important questions related to his or her work with students who have special needs. Working collaboratively with their peers, the instructor, and experts in their field, participants develop a major paper or presentation that addresses a critical issue or concern in special education. In association with these projects, class members determine the content of seminar meetings and speakers are invited to discuss issues selected by the students. ED 509 may be substituted for this course.
Prerequisite: Completion of 27 of the 34 semester hours toward the Special Educator Endorsement.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

* Open to those with Special Student status as space allows.

SPED 535/635
Current Issues in Special Education
Provides an integrated theoretical summary of current special education issues that have direct impact on practitioners. Topics are selected jointly by the faculty and participants, based on participants' experiences in the Special Educator Endorsement Program.
Focus is on enhancing the preparation of participants for their initial year as special educators.
Prerequisite: Completion of all coursework for the Special Educator Endorsement.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

SPED 544/644
Practicum
Designed to provide each participant with observation and feedback concerning essential skills associated with the Special Educator Endorsement and the Continuing Teaching License. Classroom observations are collaboratively scheduled by the participant and the practicum supervisor with pre-and post-observation conferences built into each site visit. Participants document time spent modifying curriculum and instruction for students assigned individual education plans (IEPs).
Corequisite: SPED 514/633.
Prerequisite: SPED 510/626, 513/632.
Credit: 1 semester hour, CR/NC.

Curriculum: Subject-Area Elective Courses

Art

ART 510
Teaching Life Through Art: The Creative Process
Exploration of the creative process incorporating studio work and lectures. Through the language of visual art, students explore ideas about being creative and learn how to integrate the discipline and practice of art in ways that extend their understanding and enhance their capacity to solve problems. Participants employ a variety of techniques, mediums, technologies, and artistic forms—photography, video, drawing, painting, environmental art, sculpture, writing—to exercise their creative self and find their voice. Students are encouraged to reflect on insights from art history, aesthetics, and criticism to critically evaluate their art experience. Incorporates diverse teaching approaches including studio work, lectures, guest speakers, and field trips. Also listed as ED 580.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

ART 511
Same as CORE 534.

ART 514
Drawing and Painting Workshop
Opportunities for art teachers to experiment with various drawing and painting processes. Students work primarily from still life, landscape, and the figure, with emphasis on observation and interpretation of the subject. Students explore central disciplinary knowledge and practices related to line, shape, value, composition, color, and so on to develop their perceptual and technical skills and become more successful problem solvers. Through group and individual critique students reflect upon, assess, and articulate their work in an ongoing dialogue with their classmates.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

ART 515
Drawing
Advanced drawing techniques and concepts. This is a studio course emphasizing experimental tools and composition.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor.
Credit: 1-3 semester hours.

ART 516
Ceramics in Visual Arts Curriculum
Overview of ceramics techniques for teachers of art. Covers an introduction to the basic forming methods (hand-building and wheel-throwing) through the design and execution of various functional and sculptural projects. Introduction of glazing and kiln-firing techniques used by secondary art teachers. Exploration of historical and contemporary trends, with emphasis on diversity in today's secondary art classroom.
Prerequisite: Background in art or art education or consent of instructor.
Credit: 2 semester hours

ART 534
Printmaking: Silk Screen
Crayon-tusche and glue, paper, photo stencils, and other techniques. Emphasis on multicolor and larger-scale prints.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

ART 544
Practicum
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1 semester hour or as arranged.

Teaching Art to Adolescents
Overview of the instructional issues and concerns encountered in the art classroom. Links disciplinary knowledge related to art history, criticism, and aesthetics to the production of a variety of media. Pays attention to the organizational factors involved in teaching art, including materials ordering and management. Includes planning, organization, and assessment practices aimed at supporting the successful learning of all students. Emphasizes instruction to enhance the experience of students with varied interests, developmental levels, and cultural backgrounds. Central to the class are visits to the classrooms of art teachers throughout the Portland area to investigate the range of teaching and technological resources used to support student learning in this field. Participants write the teaching plan for their first required Inquiry/Work Sample.
Prerequisite: Admission to Middle-Level/High School Preservice Program or consent of instructor.
Credit: 4 semester hours.

Language Arts

LA 500/634*
Language Acquisition and Development
Same as ED 529, ESOL 507/607.

LA 501/632
Researching and Teaching the Language Arts
Development of a framework, based on a wide range of research findings, from which to make informed decisions about curriculum and teaching approaches that engage students in listening, speaking, reading, and writing experiences that are responsive to individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts. Emphasis on framing teachers’ own classroom inquiry through the adoption of habits of teacher research that focus on personal and scholarly reflection.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

LA 502/620
Innovations in Reading, K-12
Organizing, managing, and evaluating both classroom and school-wide K-12 reading programs. Students examine the textbook adoption process, participate in the development and use of a tool for evaluating reading texts, assess components of reading and writing programs, and learn to integrate reading and writing processes throughout the school grades to extend learners’ experiences and enhance their own and students’ capacity to solve literacy problems. This capstone course of the Language and Literacy: Reading Endorsement Program must be taken at the end of the sequence.
Prerequisite: Completion of Reading Endorsement courses or consent of instructor.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

LA 515
Drama for Learning and Social Action
Interactive exploration of drama in the K-8 curriculum that prepares teachers to use drama to engage students in learning experiences responsive to individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts. Through workshops, participants experience drama as an art form; as a medium for language and literacy development and inquiry-centered, multidisciplinary content learning; and as a powerful mode for meaning-making. Through discussion and presentation, students explore historical and current perspectives on educational drama and its potential to support creative, cognitive, physical, emotional, and social development for all children. Reflects a pluralistic drama education perspective that prompts children to engage issues of diversity, examine how cultural knowledge is constructed, critique the dominant culture, and confront questions of social justice. Also listed as THED 515, CORE 542.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

LA 523
Teaching Writing to Adolescents
Writing process as it relates to thinking and learning in adolescence. Emphasizes a writing workshop approach to composition, as well as use of response groups and confer-ence procedures and strategies that are responsive to adolescents individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

LA 530
Children’s Writing
Teaching writing to children. Explores ways to create an environment for teaching writing as a process. Teachers read from whole language and writing process theorists and examine ways to implement writing instruction in that is responsive to elementary students’ individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

LA 531/610
Writing and the Writing Process
Increasing teachers’ understanding of the writing process, primarily by working on their own prose writing. Students write, read their work to peers, and receive feedback. This personal experience provides opportunities to reflect on common writing problems and issues teachers across disciplines encounter in their classrooms. Topics include recent research and theory in composing as well as practical teaching techniques that can be integrated to enhance learners’ experiences. Required introductory course in the Middle-Level/High School Program. Also listed as CORE 501.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours, CR/NC.

* Open to those with Special Student status as space allows.
LA 534/614*
Reading Comprehension: Theory and Practical Application
In-depth exploration of current models and trends in reading comprehension and its cognitive and linguistic components. Students read widely from professional journals, explore and reflect on their personal reading processes, and do theoretical and practical projects to further their understanding. Examines factors that contribute to reading difficulty (from early childhood through adulthood), as well as important issues and questions about standardized tests, observational diagnostics, readability formulas, and the effectiveness and theoretical validity of published programs. Also listed as ED 534.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

LA 551*
Approaches to Teaching Shakespeare
Four plays by Shakespeare, starting with Romeo and Juliet. Students jointly choose the other three. Students use traditional literary analysis and newer performance-based approaches as they deepen their understanding of Shakespeare and gain techniques for teaching approaches that engage students in meaningful learning experiences responsive to individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

LA 557*
Teaching the Literature of Nature
Same as ED 570, SCI 557.

LA 561*
Multicultural Literature (Grades 5-12)
Exploration of multicultural literature as a tool for creating communities in which diverse perspectives are supported. Addresses both literary and social themes of multicultural literature through reading, research, discussion, writing, curriculum design, and developing teaching approaches. Also listed as SS 531.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

LA 564*
Through the Looking Glass
Examination of commonly taught 19th- and 20th-century British and American novels, short stories, plays, and poems. Focuses on the cultural gender myths and paradigms promulgated in these works. Participants find their way to the other side of the mirror in two ways: by looking at canonical texts by men and women through the lens of feminist theory, and by examining how less-well-known texts by women act as commentary on the canon. Examines teaching approaches and educational resources that support meaningful learning experiences responsive to individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

LA 565*
Literature for Children and Adolescents
Exploration of literature for children and adolescents as a healthy, growing body of work and as an important resource for teachers. Class members investigate available literature, specific authors and illustrators, and their processes of composing. Participants also explore ways to incorporate a rich diet of literary experiences into students’ learning environments in support of meaningful learning experiences responsive to individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

LA 570*
Readers’ Workshop: Coming of Age
Intensive seminar in which students experience a variety of formats for discussion of and written response to literature. Participants read selections of adult literature based on an author or theme, as well as titles of their choice. Through active participation in the workshop, students explore the transactional nature of reading and ways to implement the teaching approaches introduced in the elementary through high school classrooms in support of meaningful learning experiences responsive to individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

* Open to those with Special Student status as space allows.
Mathematics

MATH 501*
Inquiry Into Mathematical Thought
Consideration of theories of learning and philosophies of mathematics that inform curriculum, teaching, and assessment decisions. Participants learn to approach content knowledge through the examination of their own assumptions about the nature of mathematics and mathematics learning, as well as study contemporary research and conduct their own research on students' thinking and learning. Emphasizes students' conceptions, diversity among students' mathematical ideas, and teaching approaches responsive to them as participants learn to examine educational resources. Open to participants with an interest in mathematics teaching and learning.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

MATH 522*
Experiencing Geometry
Broad content knowledge perspective on classical and modern geometries with hands-on experience learning mathematics through open-ended problems. Emphasis on experiential learning environments and teaching approaches that prepare teachers to build on students' experience. Teachers learn to encourage diverse ideas, use hands-on explorations, develop context assessments, and incorporate a wide range of technological resources toward the end of experiencing geometry.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

MATH 525*
Mathematics as Problem Solving
Helping educators (K-6) to incorporate mathematical problem solving throughout their curriculum. Content knowledge from geometry, measurement, number, and probability and statistics provide a context for this perspective on mathematics in everyday life. The National Council of Teachers of Mathematics standards and the Oregon benchmarks serve as a framework for curriculum planning and assessment. These standards encourage teachers to engage their students through teaching approaches that encourage meaningful learning, respond to individual differences, and respect cultural contexts. Emphasizes problem solving, communication of mathematics, and conceptual understanding of mathematics.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

“Education is the best provision for old age.”
—Aristotle

LA 579
Teaching Language Arts to Adolescents
Student-centered view of teaching literature and composition to adolescents. Participants read about, discuss, and experience the importance of writing to learning and discovery, the student-teacher conference, writing process in theory and practice, the evaluation of writing, the place of writing in literature classes, and the powerful current that can be transmitted among teenage writers. Drawing on reader-response theory in the field of literature, participants learn how they can encourage students to respond to texts and also lead adolescents from those first responses into analysis of both the text and their reading of it. Includes planning, organization, and assessment in subject areas. Pays attention to differentiation of instruction in support of meaningful learning experiences responsive to individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts; articulation of objectives and linking them to teaching and assessment. Participants write the teaching plan for their first required Inquiry/Work Sample.
Prerequisite: Middle-Level/High School Preservice Program or consent of instructor.
Credit: 4 semester hours.

LA 590*
Imaginative Writing Seminar
Development of a community of writers working in a professional context. Serves as a basis for genre workshops and other writing courses where participants develop a portfolio of works in progress. The group reads contemporary fiction, poetry, and creative nonfiction as writing models and considers the issues and opportunities of writing professionally in a variety of fields through discussion of participants' writing. Discusses and allows participants to practice integrating knowledge of writing in ways that extends writers' own understanding of writing and supports the development of meaningful writing experiences to engage students.
Prerequisite: Letter of application, submission of writing sample.
Credit: 1-2 semester hours.

“Like the artist who experiments on canvas to find the best colors to brush and to blend, the teacher paints on the canvas of the classroom, interacting, learning, growing.”

—Christina Igoa, The Inner World of the Immigrant Child

MATH 579
Teaching Mathematics to Adolescents
Teaching and learning mathematics in middle- and secondary-level classrooms. Emphasizes meaningful understanding of mathematical concepts as well as competence with mathematical techniques of problem solving. Students become familiar with national teaching and curriculum standards for creating learning environments in school mathematics as well as with research into the psychology of learning mathematics. Includes planning, organization, and assessment in subject areas. Pays attention to differentiation of instruction for various purposes and student needs, articulation of objectives and linking them to teaching and assessment and teaching. Participants will examine educational resources in order to write the teaching plan (including a careful strategy of assessment) for their first required Inquiry/Work Sample. Participants are also introduced to information technologies for teaching middle- and secondary-level mathematics with emphasis on mathematical exploration and problem solving. Attention to how best to structure the learning environment to incorporate computer and calculator resources.
Prerequisite: Middle-Level/High School Preservice Program or consent of instructor.
Credit: 3-4 semester hours.

MATH 580
Integrating Technology Into Secondary Mathematics
Introduction to the equipment and software available to teach secondary mathematics. Participants consider the potential of calculator- and computer-based approaches through mathematical exploration and problem solving. They analyze the features and benefits of specific software and equipment for promoting rich mathematical experiences and plan classroom activities based upon their findings. Participants reflect on how calculator, simulation, problem solving, and mathematical exploration software and technologies enhance student comprehension. They learn how best to structure the learning environment to incorporate such technology resources.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1 semester hour

MATH 590*
Multicultural History of Mathematics
Study of the ways in which mathematics has been developed and practiced across cultures, situating the subject in a global and human context. Includes an investigation of non-Western contributions to mathematics typically taught in schools, as well as culturally based practices and findings not found within the mainstream. Participants learn how to promote diverse perspectives in a learning environment responsive to contributions to mathematical thought from many different peoples of the world. Helps teachers to broaden their conception of content knowledge through the yearly focus project, an in-depth study of the mathematics of a selected cultural group and time period (e.g., African pyramids, Babylonian altars, Pythagorean theorems, Incan quipus). These projects emphasize how mathematics connects learners with their communities. Provides the background necessary to integrate historical perspectives, topics, and approaches into mathematics teaching. Open to any student or teacher with an interest in mathematics and willingness to engage in reflection.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

Music Education

MUE 500*
Music Education Research and Assessment
How music educators can gather, reflect upon, and interpret information needed for effective decision making in research and assessment. Topics include the major uses and components of classroom or school-based research processes, methods of assessment and research, critiquing research studies, assessment and evaluation of student learning and performance, integrating assessment with instruction, and portfolios. Classroom teachers complete an assessment project (work sample) that provides the knowledge needed to enhance the learning and performance of all students.
Prerequisite: ED 548.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

* Open to those with Special Student status as space allows.
MUE 543*
Elementary Music: Curriculum and Inquiry
Importance of music in the schools; concepts of child development as they relate to music, planning, and evaluating; writing and teaching strategies in the various music elements, styles, and skills; field observation and sample teaching in area schools. Surveys dominant trends in teaching elementary music and integrates disciplinary knowledge to extend learners' experience and capacity as musicians to solve problems. Music specialist students develop the attitudes, teaching procedures, skills, and competencies required to engage students who demonstrate varying musical aptitudes, interests, developmental levels, and cultural backgrounds.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

MUE 544
Practicum in Music Education
Part-time internship placement in an instrumental and/or vocal music program at the middle and/or high school level. Each participant observes classroom instruction, serves as an apprentice to a mentor teacher, and works with individuals and small groups of students. Team-teaching and conducting may be involved under supervision. Placement complements and provides the teaching assignment in ED 554, ensuring ample experience at both the middle school and high school levels. Students complete one of two work samples.
Prerequisite: For preservice candidates, MUE 579.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor. Placement fee may be applicable.
Credit: 1-4 semester hours.

MUE 579
Teaching Music to Adolescents
Attitudes, skills, resources, and problem-solving techniques needed by the music specialist to teach instrumental or vocal music at the middle and high school level. Disciplinary topics include rehearsal techniques, recruiting, motivation, assessment, budget and administration, sequential instruction, scheduling, and public performance. Emphasis on tailoring curricular priorities and selecting instructional materials responsive to student differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural backgrounds. Attention to helping participants reflect upon their own experience and professional practice with the aim of developing a personal philosophy of music education.
Prerequisite: MUE 544 for music students seeking an Initial Teaching License.
Prerequisite: Admission to Middle-Level/High School Preservice Program.
Credit: 4 semester hours.

MUE 580*
Instrumental and Choral Ensemble Seminar/Lab
Advanced rehearsal techniques for teaching band, orchestra, and chorus in the schools. Includes an in-depth study of disciplinary knowledge related to rehearsal techniques, literature selection, performance preparation, administrative strategies, instrumental pedagogy, and current trends in curriculum in a performance lab setting.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

MUE 582*
History, Development, and Current Trends in Music Education
Major curriculum developments in music education from the 1700s to the present, including prevalent philosophies of music education, curriculum content, application of learning theories, and instructional goals, objectives, and assessment. Surveys dominant approaches to teaching music—Orff, Kodaly, Manhattanville, Dalcroze, Music Learning Theory (Gordon)—with emphasis on their application at the elementary level. Discussion of current trends in music education focuses on such issues as standards and assessment, multiculturalism and ethnocentrism, interdisciplinary education, and thematic teaching. Offered in alternate summers.
Prerequisite: Admission to Middle-Level/High School Preservice Program or consent of instructor.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

MUE 584
M.A.T. Seminar in Music Education
Opportunity for M.A.T. music students to integrate what they have learned through the program. In consultation with the instructor, students design a project that defines and answers a question related to their teaching or intellectual and professional development. Required of all music students seeking the master's degree. Preservice music interns substitute this for ED 555 in alternate years.
Prerequisite: To be taken at end of program of study.
Credit: 2 semester hours.
MUE 598*
Special Studies
Same as MUS 598.

MUS 585*
Advanced Conducting Seminar
Opportunity for improvement of conducting skills beyond undergraduate conducting courses. Individualized instruction allows students to focus in specific areas such as stick technique, use of the left hand, advanced patterns and meters, rehearsal strategies, score preparation, conducting accompaniments, conducting musical theatre and vocalists, transpositions, and unusual notation. Students may elect to study with a choral, orchestral, or band specialist and may have opportunities to conduct one of the College's undergraduate ensembles. Offered in workshop form in alternate summers, with individualized instruction available each semester.
Prerequisite: 2 or more semester hours of undergraduate conducting or comparable experience.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

MUS 586*
Brass and Percussion Pedagogy
Teaching approaches associated with the brass family and their fundamentals—fingering, embouchures, hand positions, and performance. Students observe the teaching of brass instruments during class and learn the relationship of one brass instrument to another.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

MUS 587*
String Pedagogy
Teaching approaches associated with playing stringed instruments, maintenance of instruments, and evaluation of methods and materials.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

MUS 588*
Woodwind Pedagogy
Teaching approaches associated with the woodwind family and their fundamentals—fingering, embouchures, hand positions, acoustics, breathing, maintenance and repair, equipment, accessories, methods, and materials. Discography for flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, and saxophone.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

MUS 589*
Vocal Pedagogy
Methods and materials for the school choral director, with emphasis on skills for assessing vocal problems of the solo voice, rather than the ensemble.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

MUS 595*
Conducting
Basic beat patterns, the function of the left hand, gestures, tempo, dynamics, and fundamental score reading.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

MUS 596*
Composition
Musical gesture, repetition, and contrast. Students compose exercises and pieces, perform works, and study contemporary music and ideas.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

MUS 598*
Special Studies
Special-interest courses in music, such as advanced instrumental or choral methods, jazz history, music theory, and advanced musicianship, oriented to the needs of public school music educators. Also listed as MUE 598.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

MUS 599
Independent Study

Science and Science Education

SCI 501*
The Science of Learning Science
Theory and research in response to the question, What makes content knowledge in science so difficult for so many learners? Gives attention to features of learning environments that foster confidence among science learners and to science teaching that is responsive to developmental levels and cultural contexts. Students examine their own assumptions about the nature of science and about science learning, then study conceptual problems encountered by children throughout the elementary and secondary science curricula. Interview projects are designed within the traditions of "misconceptions" and "conceptual change" research and students are encouraged to adopt habits of scholarly reflection anchored to these traditions.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

* Open to those with Special Student status as space allows.
SCI 503*
The Nature of Informal Science and Technology Education
How informal science learning affects people's science understanding and attitudes toward science and technology. Surveys sources of educational resources for teaching science found outside of the classroom. Students learn to evaluate how well visitors grasp museum and zoo exhibit messages, and then apply these insights to help children learn science through exploration in a variety of settings. Students develop a museum-style exhibit for classroom display and focus on how technology, both simple and complex, contributes to exhibit effectiveness.
Prerequisite: None. Fee (see Guide to Registration).
Credit: 2 semester hours.

SCI 510*
Science, Technology, and Society
Examination of the role of scientific and technological literacy in the context of social issues, controversy, and change. Drawing upon a combination of philosophical, ethical, and legal frameworks, students examine particular cases of how science and technology matter in personal lives, in how the practice of science affects social justice. Topics include the promises and consequences of biomedical and genetic engineering, and societal transformations brought about by information access through computer networks. Pays particular attention to John Dewey's conception of how technology interacts with situations that seem with values. Students learn to think of science concepts as mental inventions engineered in keeping with a human-centered purpose and of physical artifacts as symbols of understanding. Topics and cases of study vary according to students' interests and presentations by invited guests from the community. Shows how STS fosters the connection to community in the science curriculum. Also listed as SS 502.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

SCI 555
Field Natural History
The study of nature from aesthetic, historic, and scientific perspectives, with emphasis on the biological diversity of the Pacific Northwest. Students engage in fieldwork and biological monitoring at an introductory level, learn styles of nature writing, and explore how to introduce children to holistic study of their surroundings. Nature appreciation and understanding of biological adaptations receive balanced treatment within a framework of how humans have conceptualized nature through time.
Prerequisite: Admission to Early Childhood/Elementary Preservice Program.
Credit: 1 semester hour, CR/NC.

SCI 557*
Teaching the Literature of Nature
Same as ED 570, LA 557.

SCI 560
Thematic Inquiry in the Elementary School
Concepts about inquiry in the natural and social sciences curricula of the elementary school. Focuses on children's intuitive notions and spontaneous interests, on planning instruction around themes that tap such interest, and on integration of subjects. Applies principles of whole language learning across the curriculum. Illustrates how to combine multiple subjects in an integrative approach to content knowledge while demonstrating teaching approaches that are responsive to interests, differences, and development. Essential to the class are ideas about constructive assessment and how to provide helpful feedback to students in the midst of study that integrates subjects in the context of inquiry.
Prerequisite: Admission to Early Childhood/Elementary Preservice Program.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

SCI 575*
Field Geology of Oregon for Teachers
Introductory field techniques for conducting geological inquiry. Introduces geologists to the nature of geological reasoning and also provides experienced earth science instructors with background about Oregon geology. Oregon's volcanic landforms and the fossil record of the John Day country in north central Oregon are featured. Participants reside at the study sites, experiencing an intense week of intellectual and physical activity. Immersion in geologic content knowledge happens on several levels: basic concepts, geology of Oregon, and approaches to solving field problems in geology. Students develop confidence in their capacity to solve geologic problems of the local landscape at a novice level. They also develop very basic skills in using maps, compasses, and GPS.
Prerequisite: None. Fee (see Guide to Registration).
Credit: 2 semester hours.

* Open to those with Special Student status as space allows.

Lewis & Clark aspires to be the Northwest's premier center for preparing science teachers within a tradition of liberal arts study. Students benefit from the College's focus on science and the environment and from cooperative arrangements with regional science educational programs.
SCI 579
Teaching Science to Adolescents
Teaching and learning science in middle-level and high school classrooms. Emphasizes the design of investigations, safety, and the role of laboratory technologies in science teaching. Includes planning, organization, and assessment of science teaching and learning. Pays attention to differentiation of instruction for various purposes and student needs, articulation of objectives and linking them to teaching and assessment modalities. Introduces students to the importance of science as the work of a particular cultural community with shared values and linguistic norms while examining research about the challenge to students may face in making a "cultural border crossing" into science. Materials draw upon research from the history and philosophy of science as well as research about the psychology of learning science, with particular attention to the "human constructivist" views of Novak, Mintzes, and Wundt as well as Driver, Poinset, Aikenhead, and other leaders in science education research. Participants complete an interview assessment of student prior knowledge and write the teaching plan for their first required Inquiry/Work Sample, being careful to include in this plan reflection on research previously conducted on the learning of concepts that are central to the Work Sample unit.
Prerequisite: Admission to Early Childhood/Elementary Preservice Program or consent of instructor.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

SCI 580*
Science and Children
Investigations with everyday materials and common creatures that will enrich teaching and learning in the primary through intermediate elementary years. Participants examine their own, as well as children's, intuitive science notions. Fosters confidence in teaching hands-on science by attending to teacher understanding of background knowledge; individually and culturally responsive approaches to teaching, assessment, and technology; and safe, successful use of classroom science equipment.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours, CR/NC.

SCI 595*
Physical Science
Imaginative inquiry in physics and chemistry with careful attention to laboratory safety and intriguing connections among everyday experiences. Topics may include stability and equilibrium, force and balance, sound and vibration, light and shadow, simple electrical circuits, corrosion, chemical and physical changes, acids and bases, and material properties. Provides guidance in preparing classroom science activities and emphasizes the joy of science. Consideration of teacher content knowledge, modeling of teaching approaches, and availability of educational resources fundamental to successful instruction in physical science.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

SCI 596*
Earth/Space Science
Learning to investigate and appreciate landscape changes and celestial events that occur on scales beyond ordinary experience. Students join in evenings of sky-watching and engage in geological field study of the regional landscape. Participants should be prepared for physical activity during the field component of the course. Addresses teacher content knowledge, modeling of teaching approaches, and availability of educational resources fundamental to successful instruction in earth and space science.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

SCI 597*
Life Science
Survey of diverse fields such as cell biology, ecology, and genetics, and inquiry activities appropriate for learning science in the school laboratory, with careful attention to health, safety, and ethics. Emphasis on exploration of life science concepts, teaching strategies, and innovative classroom practices. Consideration of teacher content knowledge, modeling of teaching approaches, and availability of educational resources fundamental to successful instruction in life science.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours, CR/NC.

SCI 599/699
Independent Study

* Open to those with Special Student status as space allows.
SS 501*
Social Studies: Curriculum, Teaching, and Evaluation
Examination of two central questions: What relationships exist among social studies curriculum, instruction, and evaluation? How can we strengthen connections among curriculum, students' learning, and teaching methods? After a historical overview of key issues in social studies as a field, students create a working definition of social studies and examine formal, informal, and hidden curriculum. Participants research their students' understanding of a key social studies concept and construct a formal curriculum unit to share with other teachers. Students learn to integrate fundamental and emergent components of disciplinary knowledge in ways that extend learners' experience and enhance their own and students' capacity to solve problems. Engages teachers in meaningful learning experiences responsive to individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

SS 502*
Science, Technology, and Society
Same as SCI 510.

SS 516*
20th-Century U.S. History: Readings and Curriculum
For teachers of U.S. history or for those who wish to renew previous acquaintance with focal events in 20th-century American history. Students consider changes in history as a discipline, the impact of micro or quantitative techniques, and how to help students see history as a claim about a record of events. Topics include U.S. reasons for entering World War I, changes in women's work brought by World War II, the Cuban missile crisis, and desegregation and the civil rights movement. Students learn to integrate fundamental and emergent components of disciplinary knowledge in ways that extend learners' experience and enhance their own and students' capacity to solve problems. Engages preservice and inservice school personnel in meaningful learning experiences responsive to individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

SS 531*
Multicultural Literature (Grades 5-12)
Same as LA 561.

SS 543*
African-American Perspectives on History, Education, and Politics
Perspectives, perceptions, and attitudes of both Europeans and African Americans and how these relate to the dilemmas faced by African Americans in the United States. Educational, institutional, cultural, racial, and political events that have significantly affected the experience of African Americans. Topics include African American perspectives on racism, history, Afrocentrism, civil rights, media, and stereotypes; a global perspective on definitions of minorities and communities; recognition of diversity within the African American community; and culturally specific and culturally relevant curriculum. Addresses issues of gender. Students learn to integrate fundamental and emergent components of disciplinary knowledge in ways that extend learners' experience and enhance their own and students' capacity to solve problems. Engages preservice and inservice school personnel in meaningful learning experiences responsive to individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

SS 547*
Race, Culture, and Power
Analysis of race, culture, and power as distinct but intersecting social constructs. Participants scrutinize scientific, institutional, and systemic racism in today's U.S. society; the various forms, dynamics, and consequences of white privilege; formal and informal power in society; the power elite; the concentration and intersection of wealth, power, and privilege; the hierarchy of cultures; the ideology of Eurocentrism; the roles and manifestations of race, culture, and power in international affairs; centers and peripheries; and hegemony and counter-hegemony. Also listed as ED 547, CORE 538.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2-3 semester hours.

“I don’t know what your destiny will be, but one thing I know: The only ones among you who will be really happy are those who will have sought and found how to serve.”
—Mary Pipher

* Open to those with Special Student status as space allows.
“Teachers affect eternity; they can never tell where their influence stops.”
—Henry Brooks Adams, The Education of Henry Adams (paraphrased)

SS 560* Teaching Constitutional Issues
Issues in the field of constitutional law and practice and how to teach these issues in middle and high school. The course covers a definition of rights, the concept of constitutional law, and historical and contemporary issues. Topics include conflict resolution, comparison of the Oregon and U.S. bills of rights, First Amendment and due process, privacy, students’ rights in public schools, and equal treatment and discrimination. Students practice the case method and the mock trial as teaching methods. Students learn to integrate fundamental and emergent components of disciplinary knowledge in ways that extend learners’ experience and enhance their own and students’ capacity to solve problems. Engages preservice and inservice school personnel in meaningful learning experiences responsive to individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts. Recommended for teachers at all levels.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

SS 578 Inquiry/Teaching/Assessment: A Social and Cultural Framework
Understanding and applying inquiry and assessment within a social and cultural framework that leads to thematic curriculum development for pre-K through middle school. Participants explore children’s intuitive notions and reasoning about social, cultural, and geographic worlds from developmental, social, historical, and cultural perspectives. Topics include intercultural communication and the traditions and contributions of various groups to American culture, diversity, democracy, and civic life, with special focus on Oregon and the Northwest. Students are guided in teaching and assessment practices that draw from children’s questions and interests.
Prerequisite: Admission to Early Childhood/Elementary Preservice Program.
Credit: 3 semester hours.

SS 579 Teaching Social Studies to Adolescents
Developing a conceptual framework for teaching social studies in a democratic society. Focuses on different ways of organizing instruction and assessing learning in secondary and middle school content areas.

Students examine historical and contemporary issues in teaching social studies, including terminology, philosophy, content, and method. Includes planning, organization, and assessment in subject areas. Pays attention to differentiation of instruction for various purposes and student needs and articulation of objectives, linking them to teaching and assessment and teaching. Students learn to integrate fundamental and emergent components of disciplinary knowledge in ways that extend learners’ experience and enhance their own and students’ capacity to solve problems. Engages preservice and inservice school personnel in meaningful learning experiences responsive to individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts. Students also learn to assess, document, and advocate for the successful learning of all students and school stakeholders. Participants write the teaching plan for their first required Inquiry/Work Sample.
Prerequisite: Middle-Level/High School Preservice Program or consent of instructor.

SS 580* Global Inequality
Examination of inequities both in the United States and among nations. Addresses persistent and increasing socioeconomic and political inequities between races, classes, and sexes within the United States; the concentration of wealth, power, resources, and privileges in society; and the cult of consumerism and the eclipse of civil society and democracy. Considers injustices between countries: north-south, center-periphery, and “developed” and “undeveloped.” Offers a critique of globalization, the WTO, the IMF, the World Bank, and transitional corporations. Examines assaults on commons and the cost and consequences of inequality.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

SS 585* The Middle East in Crisis
Overview of the Middle East in an international context. Considers the legacy of colonialism and the impact of the new imperialism; socioeconomic, political, and cultural dynamics within the region; the Israeli-Palestinian conflict; the role of energy resources; and the clash of paradigms. Covers the U.S. invasion of Iraq and Afghanistan as well as U.S. hegemony and counter-hegemonic resistance to it. Considers the region as a focal point for intercapitalist rivalries.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

* Open to those with Special Student status as space allows.
SS 591* Envisioning a Sustainable Society
Consideration of cultural changes needed in response to the environmental crisis. Explores how modern industrial societies are premised on uninhibited growth, the planetary limits that challenge this possibility, the implications of a fundamental shift in our material conditions, and what it all may mean for those who work in public institutions. Students learn to integrate fundamental and emergent components of disciplinary knowledge in ways that extend learners' experience and enhance their own and students' capacity to solve problems. Engages pre- and inservice school personnel in meaningful learning experiences responsive to individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts. Also listed as LA 591, CORE 540.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

SS 592* Integrating Economics Into U.S. History
Models of economic thought—including classical economists, Marxists, and modern Keynesians—and their relation to topics addressed in U.S. history, government, and current events or contemporary issues courses. How and why have structural economic changes influenced their political, economic, and cultural trajectories? Topics include the impact of Adam Smith on early American political thought, the role of market forces in 19th-century labor and Populist political issues, mass production and mass consumption, the relevance of Keynes's ideas to the Great Depression and the New Deal, and economic origins of American foreign policy. Students learn to integrate fundamental and emergent components of disciplinary knowledge in ways that extend learners' experience and enhance their own and students' capacity to solve problems. Engages pre- and inservice school personnel in meaningful learning experiences responsive to individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts. Also listed as LA 593, CORE 542.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

THED 515 Drama for Learning and Social Action
Interactive exploration that prepares K-8 teachers for using drama to engage students in learning experiences responsive to individual differences, interests, developmental levels, and cultural contexts. Through workshops, participants experience drama as an art form; as a medium for language and literacy development and inquiry-centered, multidisciplinary content learning; and as a powerful mode for meaning making. Through discussion and presentation, students explore historical and current perspectives on educational drama and its potential to support creative, cognitive, physical, emotional, and social development for all children. Reflects a pluralistic drama education perspective that prompts children to engage issues of diversity, examine how cultural knowledge is constructed, critique the dominant culture, and confront questions of social justice. Also listed as LA 515, CORE 544.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

THED 544 Practicum in Drama
Using plans generated as part of their earlier studies, participants work in their own school settings during the year following their coursework. May be completed in one semester or may span an entire school year. Participants will keep a log of activities related to the practicum as well as a portfolio of evidence, including a videotape recording of at least one example of their students' drama learning and performance. Also listed as LA 545.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

THED 648 Devising Performance and Facilitating Inquiry
Interactive exploration of performance that prepares theatre artists, educators, community workers, and other professionals to begin using drama in their work with groups. Through workshops, readings, and discussion, participants experience theatre as an art form, and as a tool for learning and for addressing social justice issues. The course reflects a pluralistic theatre and education perspective that prompts engagement with issues of diversity, examines how cultural knowledge is constructed, critiques the dominant culture, and confronts questions of equity and social justice. Also listed as LA 646.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 2 semester hours.

SS 598* Special Studies: New or Experimental Courses
SS 599/699 Independent Study
Script Analysis: From Page to Stage
To translate a playwright’s ideas into physical design, a theatre crafts-person has to develop the ability to communicate information using conceptual means. Script analysis provides the language that allows us to transform concepts and ideas into reality. Once proficient in that language, we can use technical drawing, sketching, and model making to apply symbolic representations that establish a visual link between a creative idea and its working reality.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

THED 648
Stagecraft: Bringing the Imaginary to Life
A theatre crafts-person has to develop the ability to communicate information using graphical means. Learn and practice technical drawing and stagecraft, which provide the language that allows us to transform concepts and ideas into reality.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

THED 648
Lighting: Painting with Life
Theatrical stage lighting technology. Students gain an understanding of the physical properties of light and the technology used to light the stage. Topics include lamps, lighting instruments, control systems, color, optics electricity, the physics of light, and the technical considerations involved in lighting the stage. The course’s primary goal is to help students learn not just specific facts about equipment and technology, but to understand the art and science of lighting, as well as the history and logic of why things do what they do.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

THED 648
Sound Design: Adding Emotional Depth
Theatrical stage sound technology. Students gain an understanding of the physical properties of sound and the technology used to bring sound to the stage. Topics include sound effects, soundscapes, sound scores, control systems, electricity, the physics of sound, and the technical considerations involved in creating sound for the stage. The course’s primary goal is to help students learn not just specific facts about equipment and technology, but to understand the art and science of sound for the theatre, and well as the history and logic of why things do what they do.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1 semester hour.
Core Program

The graduate Core Program brings together students and faculty from the educational and counseling psychology professions in interdisciplinary exploration of fundamental issues affecting personal development and professional life. This blurring of disciplinary borders encourages participants to consider new ways of researching, learning, and solving real-world problems. Core seminars and courses are designed to inspire competent, responsive service to diverse populations and to help shape a more just, inclusive, and compassionate regional and global culture.

Core studies begin with a fall convocation focusing inquiry on an important topic. Work continues with a series of 1- and 2-semester-hour courses reflecting the topic and addressing questions raised by it. This year’s Core topic: Power Over, Power With, Power Within: Our Professional Journeys

The graduate school community selects a book, to be read in common, that supports and extends conversation about the Core topic. Our book for 2006-07 is Paul Rogat Loeb’s The Impossible Will Take a Little While: A Citizen’s Guide to Hope in a Time of Fear, a collection of essays and poems by political leaders and activists from around the world.

Students fulfill Core Program requirements by participating in the fall convocation and completing 2 semester hours of courses selected from among the Core offerings.
“Hearing the stories of my peers, their struggles, brought me to thinking about the questions (not so much the answers) that led me to teaching.”
—M.A.T. student

Curriculum

CORE 501
Graduate Seminars
Conceived with the Core theme in mind and designed to include students’ suggestions for readings, topics, and projects. Topics have included The Healing Power of Story; Spirituality, Religious Diversity, and Professional Practice; Bearing Witness: Writing and Social Justice; and Between Here and There: Borders, Boundaries, Edges, and Overlap in Professional Practice. Offered in varied formats—meeting weekends, monthly over two terms, or in a traditional structure—to meet the needs of adult learners.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1 to 2 semester hours.

CORE 504
Journey Through Change
Application of Joseph Campbell’s cross-cultural writings on mythology and William Bridges’ book The Way of Transition: Life’s Most Difficult Moments to understand the change process. Includes discussion of educational and therapeutic change, as well as topics related to popular culture.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

CORE 506
Displacement: Living and Learning in Native America
Participants learn from the historic and contemporary experiences of the people indigenous to the United States. Drawing from essays, poetry, and short fiction, considers the implications of Native American experience for professionals in counseling and education.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

CORE 507
Maps of Return and Recovery: Native American Resilience
With particular attention to the experiences of contemporary Native American people, supports exploration of the paths of resilience. Ways taken for returning and recovering are evident in the use of maps as a theme in contemporary Native American literature. Following this theme, involves imaginative and actual investigation of recovery and its maps—maps that are sometimes testimony, sometimes instruction, sometimes prophecy.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

CORE 510, 531
Personal Voice in Professional Writing
Workshop to explore the power of writing to engage diverse perspectives, ideas, and cultures at the restless boundary between personal insight and professional practice. In our search for equity, social justice, and inclusion, collaborative writing in professional life may be the most important writing we do. As educators our own writing is our best teacher, as counselors our written reflections will give us our best advice, and as leaders our work will be improved by writing about the challenges we face. To foster expressive clarity, the class as a writing community examines reading, collaboration, personal voice, critical thinking, and audience.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: CORE 510, 1 semester hour. CORE 531, 2 semester hours.

The Informed Life: The Path of Creativity
Exploration of the integral role of creativity in our personal and professional lives, investigating questions like: What is creativity? What is the role of creativity in human survival? How can we energize our existence through new paths of creative development? Students explore many aspects of creativity, including its sources, the value of risk taking and failure, the necessity of creativity in organizations, the cultural contexts of creativity, the key role of humor, and ways to include a creative lens in everyday endeavors. Readings are selected by students from a wide range of disciplines.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: CORE 511, 1 semester hour.
CORE 534, 2-3 semester hours.
CORE 512
Ways of Seeing: The Gift
Investigating the meaning of gifts as a way of focusing on issues of culture and class, story, family, and the many complex vehicles through which we make meaning in our personal and professional lives. Using cross-cultural, historical, and folklore research, examines how and why we mark our lives with gifts, what they mean, and how they connect individuals, groups, and communities.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

CORE 513
The Work of Paulo Freire
Same as ED 556 (see Teacher Education).

CORE 519
Amish/Las Vegas: Polariites in American Lifestyles
Two communities as symbols of the polarities within ourselves and our society. Las Vegas represents instant gratification, materialism, risk, impulsiveness, and individualism. The Amish symbolize simplicity, plainness, selflessness, community, slow change, and humility. Explores both subcultures and reflects on the everyday societal, family, educational, and personal tensions that mirror these polarities. Uses interdisciplinary-focused lectures, directed discussions, and videos to illustrate the need to understand how culture affects our daily life.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1 semester hour.

CORE 526
Narrative and Voice: Themes of Gender and Culture
Examines the central need to make meaning from the predicaments and possibilities of human life through story. Readings draw from different cultural traditions in psychology, anthropology, literature, and biography. Participants explore gender and culture as meaning systems that affect individual responses in cognitive, social, and moral realms, drawing connections among their own biographies, individuals they serve, and issues addressed in selected narratives.
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1-2 semester hours.

CORE 531
Personal Voice in Professional Writing
See CORE 510.

Writing Culture: An Exploration
What cultural habits make us Northwesterners, Italian Americans, Mexican Americans, Jewish, or Christian? How do we learn in particular ways among the Japanese or Native Americans, or as members of a professional community? Culture offers a lens through which to view the world. Each culture's unique and varied patterns act through its beliefs and values, rituals and ceremonies, languages and stories. Writing to explore our own cultures, as well as those of others we meet through travel, reading, and in our everyday lives.
Prerequisite: None
Credit: 1-2 semester hours.

CORE 534
The Informed Life: The Path of Creativity
See CORE 511.

CORE 538
Race, Culture, and Power
Same as SS 547 (see Teacher Education), ED 547.

Same as SS 591 (see Teacher Education), LA 591.

CORE 542
Drama for Learning and Social Action
Interactive exploration introduces teachers, counselors, and other professionals to ways of using drama in their work. No theatre background required. Through workshops, readings, and discussion, participants experience drama as both art form and tool for learning and for addressing issues. Reflects a pluralistic drama education perspective that prompts engagement with issues of diversity, examines how cultural knowledge is constructed, critiques the dominant culture, and confronts questions of equity and social justice. Also listed as LA 515, THED 515 (see Teacher Education).
Prerequisite: None.
Credit: 1-2 semester hours.

No cruzé la frontera, la frontera me cruzó a mí. (I didn't cross the border, the border crossed me.)
—Latina proverb
Northwest Writing Institute

The Northwest Writing Institute offers workshops where writers find their subjects, develop their talents, and join a professional and supportive writing community. In our courses and symposia, the practice of writing begins in courage and moves toward eloquence. Our courses welcome students currently enrolled in Lewis & Clark's graduate programs as well as writers, teachers, and other community members.

In addition to workshops in creative writing, the NWI offers classes to integrate writing into the life of the "literary activist" at the heart of personal and social change. These courses include Personal Voice in Professional Writing, The Healing Power of Story, The Gift, and others.

Outreach programs include the William Stafford Center, an evolving resource for study and creation, and the Writing Culture Summer Institute, where writers, educators, counselors, and other seekers cross cultural boundaries to empower diverse voices.

Writing Culture Summer Institute

The Writing Culture Summer Institute is both a workshop and a gathering, where we engage in imaginative and ethnographic writing together to discover cultural meanings and develop new approaches to cross-cultural insight. The institute welcomes writers of varied genres and levels of experience—teachers, students, fiction and non-fiction writers, poets, journalists, and cultural workers in anthropology, folklore, social service, and other fields. Nationally recognized visiting faculty lead morning workshops devoted to generating and deepening writing and to considerations of craft, cultural documentation, and the power of story. In the afternoons, participants continue writing in solitude or join faculty-led response groups. These sessions critique new work as well as address ways to move the practice of writing culture into classrooms and work settings, and build a new world.

Oregon Writing Project

A 20-year tradition of helping teachers use writing to promote student learning, the Oregon Writing Project at Lewis & Clark has become a landmark in the lives of a generation of teachers. Since 1984, the OWP has worked with school districts in the Portland area and southwest Washington to identify and train teachers as experts in classroom writing instruction and as in-district resources for staff development. Participating teachers write in a broad range of genres to strengthen their own sense of the writing process, and also explore current research, share tested classroom strategies for teaching writing, and prepare for writing assessment and issues in school reform.

The OWP at Lewis & Clark includes two invitational summer institutes for teachers of all disciplines, kindergarten through college, and school-year follow-up meetings for a full year of learning about teaching writing. Our program is affiliated with the National Writing Project at the University of California at Berkeley, which provides some financial assistance for summer institute participants.

The Writing Studio

A setting for creation, the Writing Studio helps students and staff to learn, teach, and communicate through writing. At the studio, writing turns personal curiosity into inquiry and harnesses the imagination to develop new thinking. For more information about the Writing Studio, see the College Resources section of this catalog or contact Marcia Silver at 503-768-6166 or silver@lclark.edu.

Faculty

Northwest Writing Institute faculty are published writers and experienced teachers. They share a philosophy that writing is not an esoteric craft practiced by the few, but a generous expression of the mind and heart that thrives in a community of inquiry.

Curriculum and Registration

Current course offerings, including special writing workshops, are listed on the website at graduate.lclark.edu/dept/nwi and in a newsletter from the Northwest Writing Institute. Students who wish to apply these courses to their degree concentrations should consult with their advisers.

For information about these programs, to receive our newsletter, or to register, contact the Northwest Writing Institute, Lewis & Clark College, 615 S.W. Palatine Hill Road, Portland, Oregon 97219-7899. Phone: 503-768-6165. Fax: 503-768-6165. E-mail: nw@lclark.edu. Web: graduate.lclark.edu/dept/nwi.
Centers

The Graduate School of Education and Counseling has developed three centers—the Center for Continuing and Professional Studies, the Oregon Center for Inquiry and Social Innovation, and the William Stafford Center—to serve the needs of our students and to reach out to the larger community. Through offerings of study-abroad programs, lectures, workshops, and continuing professional development, these centers allow participants a wide range of innovative opportunities for engaging in social justice, creative practice, and lifelong learning.

Center for Continuing and Professional Studies

The Center for Continuing and Professional Studies provides dynamic educational experiences for continuous personal and professional growth. We seek to encourage adults to think creatively, act knowledgeably, and live reflectively. We invite individuals to join us to effect positive change in the communities in which we live and serve. Together we create a forum for a rich diversity of voices and perspectives in a complex and ever-changing world.

For more information about the Center for Continuing and Professional Studies, please visit graduate.oclark.edu/dept/ccps.

Oregon Center for Inquiry and Social Innovation

"Giving thought to action and action to thought."

The Oregon Center for Inquiry and Social Innovation advocates for the actualization of community ideas. Our programs support clear identification of questions facing local and global communities, and engagement with these issues by members of those communities with the assistance of professionals and scholars. Our hope is that such interaction will reveal fresh, innovative, and useful responses to challenges.

For more information about the Oregon Center for Inquiry and Social Innovation, please visit graduate.oclark.edu/eqg/occenter.

William Stafford Center

"In a world where honorable communication is essential to community, the William Stafford Center cultivates clear and ethical language for public life."

The William Stafford Center is a forum for hands-on thinking through creative expression by students, alumni, and other members of the community. We support writing, reflection, teaching, and literary citizenship, advancing lifelong learning and public engagement.

For more information about the William Stafford Center, please visit our website at graduate.oclark.edu/dept/grad/centers.html.
Admission

An applicant to a degree, licensure, or endorsement program at the Lewis & Clark Graduate School of Education and Counseling is required to submit an application of admission. Applicants must hold a baccalaureate degree. Required application materials include the following:

- Completed and signed application packet.
- $50 application fee (waived if the application is submitted online at graduate.lclark.edu/dept/gseadmit).
- Professional resume.
- Official transcripts from all undergraduate and graduate schools attended.
- Either three letters of recommendation or completed recommendation forms, as required by the program. Please contact the Office of Admissions or the specific program for further information.
- Personal essay(s).
- Required test scores.

See the Specific Admission Requirements section following for information on additional documentation requirements specific to each program.

Meeting the minimum entrance requirements of a given program does not guarantee admission. Conditional admission may be granted to applicants who meet certain admission requirements at the minimal level if other indicators suggest probable success in the program of study.

All application documents, as well as online application information, are available at graduate.lclark.edu/dept/gseadmit/gseapplications.html. Application forms and information may also be obtained by contacting the College:

Specific Admission Requirements

In addition to the general required application materials, there are specific admission requirements within each department.

Counseling Psychology

Regular degree programs—Admissions decisions are based on a holistic assessment of an applicant's potential to be a competent, ethical, and compassionate practitioner. GPAs and GRE scores, which can be indicators of ability to perform academic work, are required as part of the application; however, they are considered in conjunction with the personal essay, information on relevant service and life experience, letters of reference, and, in some cases, interviews.

School Psychology Licensure-Only and Continuing Licensure programs—Applicants must hold a master's or doctoral degree in counseling, psychology, special education, or a related field to qualify for admission to the licensure-only program in school psychology and continuing licensure program in school psychology.

Marriage and Family Therapy Licensure-Only Program—Applicants must hold a master's or doctoral degree in counseling, psychology, social work, or a related field to qualify for admission to the certification-only program in marriage and family therapy.

School Psychology and Marriage and Family Therapy Degree and Licensure-Only programs—Qualified applicants will be invited to interview with the program coordinator upon completion of their application.

Testing

Applicants to the counseling psychology department are required to take the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) General Test. Official test scores must not be more than 10 years old and must be received by the application deadline. The GRE testing requirement is waived if the applicant holds a master's degree or higher.

GPA Requirements

All programs: 2.75 undergraduate degree

Educational Leadership

Applicants to most Educational Leadership programs must have three years of current licensed teaching, school counseling, or school psychology experience in Oregon. An Employment Verification form must be completed by the school district's human resources office and submitted with the application. A copy of the applicant's license or certificate must also be included. Please contact an adviser if you do not meet these requirements.

All Educational Leadership applicants must submit three recommendation forms.

Applicants to the Master of Education in Educational Administration Program must arrange for an interview with the faculty after all admissions materials have been submitted. Applicants to the Initial Administrative License Program must hold a master's degree and are required to successfully complete the prerequisite courses EDAD 500/633 and EDAD 501/610.

Applicants to the Continuing Administrator License Program must arrange for an interview with faculty if they did not attend the Initial Administrator License Program at Lewis & Clark College.

Testing

No testing is required for admission to the Educational Leadership programs.

GPA Requirements

All programs: 2.75 undergraduate degree, 3.0 graduate degree

School Counseling

Applicants to Track I programs in school counseling must have completed two successful years of teaching in an Oregon public or accredited private school. An Employment Verification form must be completed by the school district's human resources office and submitted with the application. A copy of the applicant's teaching license must also be included.

Applicants to licensure programs must hold a master's degree in a closely related field (e.g., education, psychology, social work).

Qualified applicants from Oregon and southwest Washington will be required to attend an interview session and complete an impromptu written exercise. Students outside the area will be contacted by a Lewis & Clark faculty member about interview possibilities.

Testing

No testing is required for admission. However, Praxis I: Academic Skills Assessments (pre-Professional Skills Test) or the California Basic Education Skills Test (CBEST) official test scores must be received prior to the end of the first semester of coursework.

GPA Requirements

All programs: 2.75 undergraduate degree
Teacher Education
Preservice Programs
Applicants must submit three letters of recommendation, at least one of which attests to the scope and quality of the applicant's work with youth, whether in a formal employment or voluntary role. Letters of recommendation should also address academic and teaching potential. For applicants to the Early Childhood/Elementary Program, at least one reference letter must address the candidate's work with children in educational settings.

Full admission to the M.A.T. Preservice Intern Program is contingent upon acceptance by a school district for an internship. Qualified applicants from Oregon and southwest Washington will be invited to participate in a group interview as part of the application process. Telephone interviews may be offered to applicants in other geographic areas.

Testing
All preservice applicants are strongly encouraged to submit test scores from the Praxis I: Academic Skills Assessments or Praxis II: Subject Assessments (MSAT and/or ORELA: Multiple Subjects Examination and/or Subject Assessments and Specialty Area) tests. Test scores will increase the admissions committee's ability to assess an application. All testing must be completed before a preservice student may be recommended for Initial Licensure in Oregon or any other state.

GPA Requirements
All preservice programs: 2.75 undergraduate degree

Inservice Programs
Applicants to endorsement or licensure programs must include a copy of their Oregon Teaching License or certificate with their application if they wish to be recommended for an endorsement through Oregon's Teacher Standards and Practice Commission (TSPC).

Applicants to the Continuing Teaching License Program are required to submit three letters of recommendation: two teacher education recommendations and one Continuing Teaching License Program recommendation, which must be completed by the applicant's current principal or supervisor.

Testing
Applicants to teacher education inservice master's degree programs are required to submit a score from the Graduate Record Exam (GRE) General Test, the Miller Analogies Test, or a Praxis Exam, or they may choose to submit a portfolio of their professional work.

Applicants for endorsement-only programs are required to provide either a test score, a portfolio, or official transcripts indicating they hold a master's degree. Oregon's TSPC requires test scores for licensure. For more information and portfolio guidelines, contact the Graduate Office of Admissions.

GPA Requirements
All inservice programs: 2.75 undergraduate degree

International Students
The Lewis & Clark Graduate School of Education and Counseling welcomes applications from international students. The College is authorized under federal law to enroll nonimmigrant students. Graduates of American colleges and universities or of recognized degree-granting institutions abroad are eligible to apply for graduate study. Applicants should write directly to the Graduate Office of Admissions to obtain an admission packet and to inquire about specific requirements and procedures.

International students should have sufficient knowledge of the English language. All nonnative English-speaking students who have not completed an undergraduate degree in the United States must submit scores from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). For information and arrangements for taking the TOEFL, visit the website at www.toefl.org. A score of 575 (paper-based) or 233 (computer-based) is usually necessary to begin graduate study; however, the Graduate School Admissions Committee may consider an applicant who has a lower score but shows evidence of superior achievement and aptitude.

For information regarding visas and immigration papers, international applicants must contact the Office of International Student Services. They may be reached by e-mail at iso@lclark.edu, by phone at 503-768-7305, or by fax at 503-768-7301. Visit their website at www.lclark.edu/dept/iso. The office can also supply more information regarding English-language testing and requirements.

All students from abroad are required to have a medical examination before they come to the United States. They must also enroll in the college insurance plan or show proof of major medical coverage before registration.

Alumni of the Graduate School of Education and Counseling
Applicants who have completed a degree, licensure, or endorsement program at the Graduate School of Education and Counseling and are seeking admission to another licensure or endorsement program within the same academic program need only complete the Personal, Education Information, and Personal and Professional Fitness sections of the admissions application; check the appropriate program of study, sign and date the application; and include a current resume, a letter of intent, and a letter of recommendation from a current or former supervisor. Official transcripts are required for all coursework undertaken since the completion of your previous Lewis & Clark Graduate School of Education and Counseling program. The $50 application fee is waived.

Special Student Status Application Instructions

With Special Student status, individuals may take degree-applicable credit prior to formal admission to the Graduate School of Education and Counseling. (Special Student status does not guarantee formal admission to the Graduate School of Education and Counseling.) Please refer to each department's individual policies outlined below.

Application materials submitted for Special Student status may be used again for formal admission to degree programs, but please note that additional materials are required for formal admission.

Counseling Psychology

Prior to admission, individuals may take a maximum of 9 semester hours of degree-applicable credit. Counseling psychology requires application materials and department approval for Special Student status. Special Student application deadlines are the same as regular application deadlines. Please submit the following materials: a completed and signed application form, a personal essay (as required by your program), two letters of recommendation, a resume, a $50 application fee, and transcripts from all undergraduate and graduate schools attended. (Unofficial transcripts are accepted when applying for Special Student status.)

Educational Leadership

There is no required application process for individuals who would like to attend classes prior to admission to Educational Leadership programs.

Candidates in Educational Leadership licensure-only programs may take a maximum of 6 semester hours of credit prior to formal admission. Master of Education in Educational Administration With Licensure Program participants may take a maximum of 9 semester hours of study as a Special Student prior to formal admission. There is no required application process for Special Student status.

Teacher Education

Teacher education students may take a maximum of 8 semester hours of study as a Special Student prior to formal admission. There is no required application process for Special Student status.

Application Deadlines

Completed applications, including all accompanying materials, must be received no later than the corresponding program deadline specified below by semester. Priority will be given to applications received by the specified deadline; however, applications may be turned in by the deadline in the order they are received.

Preservice Program (summer admission only): January 2, 2007; applications received after this date will be reviewed on a space-available basis through April

Decision Notification

The Graduate School of Education and Counseling will confirm the receipt and status of your application packet. Any outstanding items will be noted. After the application deadline has passed, completed applicant files will be reviewed by program faculty. Applicants will be notified of an admission decision in writing. No information regarding admission decisions can be given over the phone.

Denial of Admission

An applicant denied admission to a graduate department may reapply in the next admission cycle under the appropriate department's guidelines.
Policies and Procedures

Student Status: Degree/Licensure-Seeking Student
A Degree/Licensure-Seeking Student is defined as one who has been formally admitted to graduate study leading to a master's, educational specialist, or doctoral degree, or licensure in teaching, administration, school counseling, or school psychology.

Master's, Educational Specialist, or Doctoral Degree Requirements
These steps apply for all degree concentrations:
1) Apply for admission to graduate study. All materials submitted in connection with application for admission become the property of the College.
2) Design a formal study program. Students must design a formal program of study with a graduate adviser soon after being admitted to degree status and before registering for further coursework.
3) Maintain ongoing contact with an adviser. Students should continue to consult their adviser throughout their degree/licensure program.
4) Complete the approved course of study. Programs of study must be completed within five years of matriculation.
5) Apply for degree. Students must complete the degree application according to the schedule outlined under Degree Application and Conferral. Degree applications are available in the graduate school registrar's office and online.

If progress is unsatisfactory, the student is notified by mail and is required to meet with his or her adviser, program coordinator, or department chair to determine appropriate action. Unsatisfactory performance at any time may require additional review with the possibility of dismissal.

Note: All courses applicable to the master's degree must have been completed within the five years preceding the granting of the degree. Special exceptions to this rule may be made through a petition process. In general, doctoral degree candidates may transfer up to 14 semester hours of relevant coursework completed after a master's degree and initial professional licensure coursework. Transfer of credit from another institution must be approved by a Lewis & Clark Graduate School of Education and Counseling adviser.

Advisers
The director of each graduate program is responsible for assigning advisers to students in that department. Students are assigned a permanent adviser following admission to graduate study. Before admission, applicants may obtain information and advice in orientation meetings, from a program director, from the appropriate chair, or from other faculty members.

Student Status: Special Student
If, for valid reasons, a student is unable to complete an application prior to the deadline, the student may be granted Special Student status. (See the Admission section.) A Special Student is defined as one of the following:

1) A student who is not seeking a Lewis & Clark degree or licensure and is taking courses solely for personal or professional enrichment.

2) A student who is interested in pursuing a Lewis & Clark degree or licensure but has not been formally admitted to graduate study.

Consult the Admission section of this catalog for more information about Special Student status.

Special Student enrollment does not guarantee that the student will be admitted to any graduate program or that the coursework taken will be accepted for degree or licensure requirements.

Special Students are not eligible for federal student aid.

Degree Candidacy
The following steps are taken to determine whether an admitted student's performance is satisfactory enough to allow the student to complete requirements for the degree.

1) Course grades are examined to determine whether the student is maintaining a 3.0 grade point average and whether the student has earned more than two grades below B- or any grade lower than C-

2) The courses taken are compared to those listed on the student's formal program of study to ensure that the student is progressing as planned.

3) Information relevant to each degree/licensure concentration is solicited from adviser(s), instructors, and other sources.

Transferring or Adding Programs
Students wishing to transfer to another academic program within the Graduate School of Education and Counseling must submit an application for admission to the new program, complete with essays and letters of recommendation directed to the new program.

Current students who would like to add a degree, endorsement, or licensure program to their current course of study should send a letter of intent to the Graduate Office of Admissions. The Graduate Office of Admissions will work with the appropriate program office to coordinate any required documents.

Students who are transferring or adding programs are responsible for meeting with their advisers as soon as possible to develop revised program plans. Failure to revise the program could result in failure to obtain a degree, endorsement, or licensure.

Continuous Enrollment
Students who elect to interrupt their studies must show a justifiable reason to obtain an approved leave of absence from the department chair, and must file their approved leave of absence with the graduate school registrar's office. Students who remain unenrolled for 12 months and who do not have an approved leave of absence may, at the discretion of their program, be required to seek formal readmission.

Credit System
Since summer semester 1994, courses have been assigned credit in semester hours.

Transfer of Credit
Transfer of graduate credit from other institutions is evaluated on an individual basis and may include courses using both traditional and alternative modes of delivery. Normally a student is prohibited from transferring more than the equivalent of 10 semester hours. The amount of transfer credit accepted by individual programs may vary. Usually only credits earned in the five years prior to admission are considered for transfer credit. Courses requested for transfer into an applicant's degree program at Lewis & Clark College must be from an accredited institution and have a minimum grade of B, or a grade of CR or "pass" from an institution that provides documentation that a CR or pass grade represents a grade of B or higher.

To have previous coursework evaluated for transfer credit, students must submit an official transcript or transcripts documenting the coursework. The Graduate School of Education and Counseling must receive any such transcripts within 30 days of formal admission to the College for the student to be considered for transfer credit.

Credits transferred to Oregon's Teacher Standards and Practices Commission licensure concentrations (nondegree) may be exempt from the restrictions described above. Students should consult the appropriate adviser.

Graduate Tuition, Fees, and Payment
Cost for the 2006-07 academic year is $610 per semester hour for on-campus programs. The College reserves the right to change tuition, fees, or both. Contact the appropriate program office for specific cost information. Some courses have additional fees for laboratory, materials, supplies, or off-campus work.

Payment is due by the first day of the semester. If class registration occurs after the semester has begun, payment is due at the time of registration. For details regarding making a payment to your student account, please visit the Cashier and Credit Office website at www.lclark.edu/dept/cashiers.
“Clearly, the most basic graduation requirement is that our students leave school imbued with the qualities and the capacities of insatiable, lifelong learners, capable of framing questions, marshaling resources, and pursuing learning with dedication, independence, skill, imagination, and courage.”

—Roland Barth, “The Leader as Learner,” Education Week

All past-due balances are subject to a 1.5-percent late fee. In addition, an outstanding student account balance will prevent the release of official transcripts and diplomas. Full payment of any balance due is required in order to facilitate the release of these documents.

Registration for future terms may be refused or canceled as the result of an outstanding student account balance. Class registration will not be allowed until the account has been settled.

Audit Fee
Lecture courses may be taken for no credit on a space-available basis. The audit fee is the same as the regular tuition for the course. Auditors attend class for personal enrichment and do not take examinations, submit papers, or fulfill other class requirements.

Change of Registration
To avoid late fees, students must complete any change of registration online using WebAdvisor during the registration and add/drop period. No late fees will apply if a student adds a course online on or before the first day of the course. After the add/drop period, students wishing to drop a course must complete a Late Add/Drop form and pay a late fee. The late fee will be based on the percentage of the course that has been completed. This charge will be calculated based on the date the Late Add/Drop form is received and the Tuition Adjustment Policy.

Refund of Tuition Charges
A credit toward tuition charges may be made if an enrolled student officially drops a course during the add/drop period. Dropping to zero credits qualifies as a withdrawal, not a drop. Tuition credits will be made only after an Add/Drop form has been submitted to the registrar’s office. Tuition credit for a complete withdrawal is prorated based on the percentage of time remaining in the student’s course(s) for the term during which the student withdraws from the College. See Withdrawal From the College in the Financial Aid section of this catalog.

Withdrawal From Lewis & Clark College
Students who find it necessary to withdraw from the College are eligible to have their tuition charges adjusted according to the schedule that follows. Course fees will not be adjusted. Before any adjustment to a student’s tuition charges can be calculated, the student must initiate formal withdrawal by completing documentation available in the Office of the Registrar. The date of notification appearing on the completed official withdrawal form is the date used to determine any adjustment to tuition charges.

Tuition Adjustment Policy
0%-1% of course(s) completed: Reverse 100% of tuition charge
2%-10% of course(s) completed: Reverse 80% of tuition charge
11%-25% of course(s) completed: Reverse 50% of tuition charge
26%-50% of course(s) completed: Reverse 25% of tuition charge
51% or more of course(s) completed: No reversal of tuition charge

For students receiving financial assistance, refunds to federal programs will be calculated according to federal regulations and will be made to the appropriate programs before funds will be released to the student.

Special Fees
The following fees apply only to graduate students.

Application to graduate study: $50. (This fee is waived if the application is submitted online at graduate.lclark.edu/dept/gradadm.) In addition, a deposit from admitted students may be required. Details are provided in the admission packet. Students may contact the appropriate program for specific information.

Educational Career, Licensing, and Accreditation Services: For Lewis & Clark graduates with a placement file established prior to January 1, 2003: The first 10 mailings are included in the set-up fee; additional mailings are $5 per file.

Some graduate programs may charge additional fees for fieldwork, materials, or practice.

Oregon’s Teacher Standards and Practices Commission charges a separate fee for teachers, administrators, school counselors, and school psychologists applying for new licenses and endorsements and renewal of current licenses. Oregon’s Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists also charges a separate fee for new licenses.

Financial Assistance
Lewis & Clark College recognizes the challenge many students face in meeting the cost of obtaining a quality graduate education. While the primary responsibility for paying for college rests with the student, the College is committed to working in partnership with students to make a Lewis & Clark education an attainable goal.

There are several scholarship opportunities available to students in the graduate school; however, most financial assistance is available in the form of student loans. Approximately 62 percent of the College’s degree-seeking graduate students apply for and receive some form of financial assistance. The financial aid programs described in this catalog are available to students in the Graduate School of Education and Counseling.
Applying for Financial Aid

To receive financial assistance from the College, students must be admitted as degree-seeking students to Lewis & Clark College; must be U.S. citizens or eligible noncitizens; must not be in default on educational loans or owe repayment of federal grant funds; and must be making satisfactory academic progress toward their degree (as defined in this catalog). Students must be enrolled full time (6 or more credit hours per semester) to receive grant or scholarship assistance and must enroll at least half-time (at least 3 credit hours per semester) to receive assistance in the form of loans or student employment.

All students who wish to be considered for financial assistance must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). In addition, continuing students must complete the College Aid Application (CAP). Financial aid is offered annually and students must reapply beginning January 1 of each year. To receive priority consideration for financial assistance, students must submit all appropriate financial aid forms no later than March 1. Applications for financial aid received after the March 1 priority filing date are subject to fund availability.

The FAFSA can be completed in a paper format or online at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Students must list Lewis & Clark’s Federal School Code of 003197 on their FAFSA in order for the College to receive their FAFSA analysis. It is also important that students complete the FAFSA using the same name and Social Security number registered with the Social Security Administration. Students will receive a Student Aid Report (SAR) from the federal processor as a confirmation that their FAFSA has been processed.

Students should review the information on the SAR for accuracy and keep the document on file for future reference. The SAR may contain comments indicating that the student’s application has been selected for a process called verification. This means that Lewis & Clark College must verify the accuracy of the information submitted on the FAFSA. Students selected for verification are required to submit additional documents to the Office of Student Financial Services, such as signed copies of federal tax returns and W-2 forms as well as a verification worksheet. Students should not submit additional documentation unless requested.

Not all financial aid is awarded on the basis of demonstrated financial need. Subsidized federal loans, however, are granted only to those students who can prove such a need. Financial need is defined as the difference between the cost of attending college and the amount students are expected to contribute toward meeting that cost. The expected family contribution is determined by applying the federally mandated need analysis formula to the information submitted on the FAFSA. Factors such as family size, number of students in college, income, and assets are considered in assessing the student’s ability to contribute to his or her educational costs. Students must notify the Office of Student Financial Services of any changes to information submitted on their FAFSA as such changes may influence their eligibility for assistance. All financial information remains confidential. For more information, contact Lewis & Clark’s Office of Student Financial Services at 503-768-7090.

Satisfactory Academic Progress for Financial Aid

Students are required to be in good academic standing as defined by the College and must maintain satisfactory academic progress toward their degree to remain eligible for financial assistance. Satisfactory Academic Progress has three components:

- Students must complete a required number of credits each academic year.
- Students must complete their program within the prescribed number of semesters.
- Students must maintain a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0.

Students are awarded financial aid based on the number of credits that students in their respective program typically complete over an academic year. In order to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress, students must complete this number of credits over the course of their academic year. Credits earned may vary from semester to semester based on the course offerings and the student’s preferences, as long as the student is enrolled at least half-time (3 credits) each semester. Completion of the required number of credits each academic year will lead to the completion of the program within the prescribed number of semesters.

Federal aid regulations require that students maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress in order to retain eligibility for federal student aid.

Students who fail to complete the required number of credits, fail to maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0, and/or exhaust the number of semesters of aid eligibility without completing their degree requirements have failed to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress and are not eligible for federal or institutional student aid. However, they will be invited to submit a petition explaining the reasons for failing to meet the criteria along with an academic plan signed by their adviser. The Standards of Progress Committee will review the petition and may grant a probationary period of aid eligibility.

If a student has been granted a probationary term and again fails to meet the standards, the student will be ineligible for further federal or institutional financial aid until he or she meets the Satisfactory Academic Progress standards.
Financial Aid Withdrawal Policy

Students who receive financial aid and who completely withdraw from all classes during a semester are subject to a recalculation of eligibility for assistance in accordance with federal regulations. The date that a student initiates the official withdrawal process with the Office of the Registrar will be considered his or her official withdrawal date. This date will be used to determine the charges incurred by the student as well as the aid the student is eligible to use to address those charges. The College will perform a calculation to determine which portion of federal Title IV funds must be returned to federal aid programs. The formula uses the number of days of attendance to determine how much federal aid the student has earned to address the charges incurred for the period of enrollment. Students will be eligible to keep the same percentage of institutional aid as the percentage of tuition charged due to their withdrawal.

Students are encouraged to meet with a counselor in the Office of Student Financial Services to discuss the financial aid implications of withdrawal before beginning the withdrawal process.

Sources of Assistance

Financial aid includes resources awarded in the form of gifts (grants and scholarships) and self-help (student employment and loans). The College, federal and state governments, employers, and private organizations and businesses provide the funding for these resources. While several student loans are awarded on the basis of demonstrated financial need as determined by the FAFSA analysis, most student loans are available to students regardless of their financial need.

Scholarships and Grants

The Graduate School of Education and Counseling provides a limited number of scholarships to students. Information about the application and selection process for these funds is available from each program office.

A number of students each year receive scholarship support from employers, private organizations, and businesses. Federal regulations require that such support be considered in determining eligibility for federal student aid; therefore, it must be reported to the Office of Student Financial Services. Students are encouraged to apply for external scholarships to reduce the amount of student loan borrowing.

Student Employment

The Federal Work-Study Program funds employment opportunities for students. Students typically work an average of 8 to 10 hours per week, and not more than 20 hours per week while classes are in session. Jobs are primarily located on campus and pay $7.25 to $8 an hour. Graduate students often find that their academic schedules do not allow time to take advantage of the Federal Work-Study Program. However, students who wish to have their eligibility for the program reviewed should contact the Office of Student Financial Services.

Student Loan Programs

Students are encouraged to budget carefully and borrow conservatively. Students typically borrow from one or more of these loan programs: Federal Perkins Loans, Federal Stafford Loans, and private alternative loans.

Federal Perkins Loans

These loans, which carry a fixed 5-percent interest rate, are awarded to students who demonstrate exceptional financial need. Repayment begins nine months after the borrower graduates or drops below half-time attendance and continues up to 10 years. Students who are awarded a Federal Perkins Loan will be required to complete a promissory note before loan funds can be disbursed. They are also required to participate in an exit interview before leaving the College.

Federal Stafford Loans

These loans are part of the Federal Family Educational Loan Program and are available to students regardless of demonstrated financial need. Loans in this program certified after July 1, 2006, carry a fixed 6.8-percent interest rate. Subsidized loans, awarded to students who demonstrate financial need, do not accrue interest during periods of at least half-time enrollment. Unsubsidized loans accrue interest beginning at the time the loan is disbursed. Interest may be paid during periods of enrollment or may be capitalized and added to the principal amount of the loan when the loan enters repayment. Repayment begins six months after a borrower graduates or drops below half-time enrollment and continues for 10 years. Extended repayment options are available. The maximum Federal Stafford Loan for an academic year is $18,500, a maximum of $8,500 of which may be subsidized. Loan processing fees of up to 4 percent are deducted from loan proceeds before disbursement. Federal Stafford Loan borrowers must complete an online loan counseling session on entering the College as well as at the point of separation from the College.

Private Alternative Loans

These credit-qualified loans are available from many lenders to address educational expenses not covered by some other source of financial assistance. Private loans typically cover the cost of attendance as determined by the school minus other assistance the student borrower is eligible to receive. Approval for a private loan is based on individual creditworthiness. Interest rates, grace periods, fees, and repayment terms and options vary by lender.
Financial Assistance for Non-Degree-Seeking Students
Students admitted either with Special Student status or into nondegree programs may be eligible for private student loans. These loans are not a part of the federal student loan program and students interested in applying for them need not complete a FAFSA. However, a student seeking such a loan must submit an academic plan to the Office of Student Financial Services, which will determine the maximum loan amount. The student may then apply for the loan through his or her lender, who will make the final approval decision.

Veterans
Students qualifying for Veterans Administration benefits should consult the Office of the Registrar of the College of Arts and Sciences, located on the lower level of the Templeton Student Center on the Fir Acres Campus.

Registration
Consult the online guide to registration at graduate.lclark.edu/dept/gradreg for details.

Cross-Registration
A Lewis & Clark College undergraduate may be eligible to register for designated courses at the graduate school if he or she has completed 93 undergraduate credits or obtained the consent of the graduate course instructor and graduate registrar.

In order to apply credit earned in a graduate course to an undergraduate major, the student must obtain approval in advance from the major department chair in the College of Arts and Sciences.

Course Numbering System
500-699 Graduate-level courses (applicable to Lewis & Clark degree programs)
700-799 Doctor of Education in Leadership Program courses
800-899 Continuing education courses (graduate-level courses not applicable to a Lewis & Clark degree program)

Students should check with their advisers before enrolling to determine whether courses they intend to take will apply to their planned program.

Grading System
Letter grades may be accompanied by a plus or minus to be calculated into a student’s grade point average (GPA) as follows:
A = 4.0  D = 1.0
A- = 3.7  F = 0.0
B+ = 3.3  CR = 0.0
B = 3.0  DDF = 0.0
B- = 2.7  I = 0.0
C+ = 2.3  NC = 0.0
C = 2.0  NG = 0.0
C- = 1.7  PI = 0.0
D+ = 1.3  W = 0.0

Grading Policy
Students must maintain a B average (3.0) to be eligible for graduation. No more than 6 semester hours of C work (C-, C, or C-) may be counted toward a degree. Students who receive a grade lower than C- in any course must repeat the course or replace it with another course.

Under special circumstances and only with adviser approval, courses may be taken on a credit/no credit (CR/NC) basis. Credit will be awarded only if the work is equivalent to a grade of B or better. No more than 10 semester hours of coursework taken on a CR/NC basis may be applied toward a graduate degree or licensure. This limitation does not apply to required coursework that is offered only on a CR/NC basis.

Students in nondegree graduate programs in teacher education must maintain a 2.75 GPA. Students in administrative licensure programs must maintain a 3.0 GPA.

Grade Change Policy
Once a grade is recorded, it is permanent. Unless it is successfully appealed, no grade will be changed except to correct a clerical or computational error.

Any appeal procedure concerning a grade change must involve the instructor who assigned the grade. A student who believes that the course grade awarded does not accurately reflect his or her performance should first attempt to resolve the matter with the individual faculty member. If the student and instructor are unable to reach a resolution, the parties should request assistance from the department chair. If this attempt at resolution is unsuccessful, either party may submit a formal written appeal, following the graduate school appeal review process.

In the event the parties agree to a grade change, they must submit a Change of Grade form explaining the reason(s) for the change. No grade may be changed after one year from the date of issuance.

Repeated Courses and Grades
Some courses may not be repeated for academic credit. In certain circumstances and with prior approval from an adviser, however, students may repeat selected courses in order to replace grades and credits. The grade earned during the repetition of such a course will replace the previous grade in the cumulative GPA. Students must complete any repeated courses within the maximum allowable time frame and meet Satisfactory Academic Progress requirements.

Independent Study
Independent Study enables a student to pursue, in collaboration with a faculty member, an academic course not currently offered. To receive credit for Independent Study, the student consults with the faculty member before registration to define the course content, title, amount of credit, and academic evaluation. As a general rule, a graduate student may apply no more than three courses of Independent Study toward a graduate degree or licensure.

Incomplete Grades

A grade of Incomplete will be granted only in the case of compelling circumstances that prevent completion of a course prior to the date grades are due. It is the responsibility of the individual instructor, in consultation with the student, to decide whether the student has a legitimate reason for not completing the work on time.

An Incomplete must be resolved within a one-year period or it becomes a Permanent Incomplete (PI). In extraordinary circumstances, a student may petition for an extension of the Incomplete deadline. It is the student's responsibility to initiate the request for extension in advance of the one-year deadline. To be granted, the request must receive approval from the instructor, the department chair, and the dean of the graduate school.

Students must resolve any Incompletes before beginning an internship or student teaching. Graduating students receiving an Incomplete must consult the registrar's office to establish a revised graduation date. If the Incomplete is not made up in time for the revised graduation date, the student will be removed from the list of potential graduates. The student will not be reinstated to the list until the grade change has been submitted to the registrar's office.

Deferred Grades

The grade of Deferred (DFD) is a temporary placeholder for a permanent grade. This designation is used to indicate on the transcript that a student has completed the first semester of a course that continues into at least another semester. When the full sequence is completed, the student receives a grade to replace the DFD placeholder on the transcript.

Credit/No Credit Grades

Credit (CR) signifies that a student has earned the equivalent of a B (3.0) or higher for a course taken on a credit/no credit basis. Students who fail to complete the course at this level receive a designation of No Credit (NC).

Appeal Review Process

A student may contest decisions related to his or her graduate program participation, such as whether he or she is ready for a practicum or internship. The student should first attempt to resolve the concern with the appropriate faculty member or adviser. If the matter remains unresolved, the student may then elect to meet with the department chair. If these efforts are not successful, the student may choose to request a formal appeal review by sending written notification to the dean's office.

No later than three weeks following receipt of the student notification requesting appeal review, an appeal review committee consisting of a department chair from outside the student's program, one faculty member, and the dean will convene to address the student's concern. The student and student's department chair will present their positions to the committee at this time, along with supporting documentation. The committee may conduct an additional investigation.

The appeal review committee's decision will be final and will be sent in writing no later than one week following the review hearing.

Academic Standards and Integrity

Lewis & Clark College believes that each student holds responsibility for the integrity of his or her individual academic and professional performance. When the student abrogates this responsibility, the College may take appropriate steps to maintain standards of academic honesty.

Academic dishonesty or cheating involves the use of any method or technique enabling a student to misrepresent the quality or integrity of his or her academic study, scholarship, or practice.

When alleged dishonesty is such that it cannot be addressed through a prescribed course of action within the parameters of the class or practicum, dismissal will be considered.

In certain situations where there is cause to believe the level of dishonesty brings into question the personal qualities necessary to perform as a scholar or practice as a professional, dismissal from the program may be required.

Waiver of Courses

A student may seek waiver of a course or course requirement in one or more of these ways:

1. A written or oral examination by a faculty member in the area in which competence is to be tested (with consent of instructor).
2. Demonstration of skill, behavior, or other knowledge that clearly reveals mastery in the area in which competence is to be tested.
3. A written recommendation from an outside authority recognized by the College (such as a licensed principal or superintendent), followed by a thorough review of the recommendation by a faculty member in the area in which competence is to be tested.

A course successfully waived is noted on the student's transcript. Lewis & Clark does not grant credit for courses waived. Waiver Request forms and information about specific waiver procedures are available in each department office and in the graduate registrar's office.*

* Students in licensure programs may petition Oregon's Teacher Standards and Practices Commission if they are dissatisfied with the denial of a request for waiver.
Modification of Academic Requirements

Students who seek modification of academic requirements may petition the graduate school. Before submitting a petition, the student should meet with his or her adviser to consider ways of fulfilling the requirement without the need for a special petition. A petition form is available from the graduate registrar's office and each department office.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 Lewis & Clark College Education Records Policy

1. Education Records

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (Public Law 93-380), effective November 19, 1974 (as amended by Public Law 93-568, Buckley Amendment), is intended to ensure students the right to inspect, review, and control access to student educational records maintained by an educational institution.

The Education Records Policy of Lewis & Clark College is intended to comply with the requirements of the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). Students will be notified of their rights under FERPA annually by publication in the student handbook, catalog and/or registration announcements of the respective School.

All school officials, as defined in this Policy, are expected to manage student records in their custody in accordance with all FERPA regulations.

To receive access to student records, school officials (including work-study student personnel) must receive a copy of this Policy and remain current regarding any FERPA modifications.

A. Definitions

1. Student

Refers to any person currently enrolled at Lewis & Clark College

Refers to any person who has previously earned academic credit at Lewis & Clark College.

Applicants for admission are not classified as students.

2. Educational Records

Refers to any record (in handwriting, print, tapes, film, computer, or other medium) maintained by the institution or an agent of the institution which is directly related to a student, except:

A personal record kept by a staff member if it is kept in the sole possession of the maker of the record and is not accessible or revealed to any other person except a temporary substitute for the maker of the record.

Records created and maintained by the institution's law enforcement unit for law enforcement purposes. (However, if a copy of the Campus Safety Office record is given to the Registrar or other official of the institution for enforcement of a trespass order or other legitimate institution need, that copy becomes an educational record subject to FERPA.)

An employment record of an individual whose employment is not contingent on the fact that he or she is a student, provided the record is used only in relation to the individual's employment.

Records made or maintained by a physician, psychologist, or other recognized professional or paraprofessional if the records are used only for treatment of a student and made available only to those persons providing the treatment.

Alumni records that contain information about a student after he or she is no longer in attendance at the institution and that do not relate to the person as a student.

Records maintained by Lewis & Clark College legal counsel.

3. Institution

This policy covers students of the three schools of Lewis & Clark College:

College of Arts and Sciences;
Northwestern School of Law; and Graduate School of Education and Counseling.

B. Contents of Record

Lewis & Clark College has defined Directory Information as the information listed below. This information may be released for any purpose at the discretion of the respective School unless notified in writing to the contrary. Students have the right to prevent disclosure of Directory Information; these requests must be provided in writing, signed and dated, to the appropriate Office of the Registrar.

   - All information (except for Directory Information) contained in the application for admission or readmission. Letters of recommendation used to determine admission to Northwestern School of Law do not become part of the education record; those letters not marked confidential are returned to the student.
   - All records of test scores and/or results.
   - All transcripts of previous academic work.
   - Transcript at Lewis & Clark College, including course grades, grade point average, and advancement information.
   - All petitions requesting variance in established academic policy.
   - Graduation petition and evaluation.
   - Notices and/or reprimands for failure to meet academic policy and/or requirements of the Honor Code.
   - Rank in class (unless related to honors or awards).
   - All correspondence relevant to the academic records including letters of acceptance, receipts, academic performance, leave of absence, withdrawal, and the like.
   - Records of all authorizations to access or release information contained in the student education record.
   - Career Service Records, Educational Placement Records, and/or Career Planning Records.

3. Challenge of Contents
The student has a right to challenge the content of the education record. See the section on Correction of Education Records.

II. Access to Education Records
A. Student Access
A student has access to all education records, except for those listed below under Limitation on Right of Access, and has the right to personally view his or her education record within 45 days of the initial request.

Limitation on Right of Access
The institution will not permit a student to inspect the following records:
   - The financial statement of the student's parents.
   - Letters and statements of recommendations for which the student has waived his or her right of access, or which were maintained before January 1, 1975.
   - Records connected with an application to attend the institution or a component unit of the institution if that application was denied.
   - Those records that are excluded from the FERPA definition of education records.

Provision of Copies
The institution reserves the right to deny copies of records, including transcripts, not required to be made available by FERPA in any of the following situations:
   - The student lives within commuting distance of the institution.
   - The student has an unpaid financial obligation to the institution.
   - There is an unresolved disciplinary action against the student.
   - The education record requested is an exam or set of standardized test questions.

Fees for Copies of Records
The fees for copies are set by the individual registrars' offices.

Emergency Procedures
Any campus emergency should be reported to the Campus Safety emergency number, which operates 24 hours a day; dial extension 7777 on campus or 503-768-7777 off campus. Callers are asked to give their name, location, and the circumstances.

Inclement Weather Procedures
During inclement weather, students and faculty are notified of graduate school closure through announcements on local radio stations. Several radio stations routinely include school closure announcements in their morning broadcasts. Additional evening closures may be broadcast between 2 and 5 p.m. Recorded school closure or reopening information is available after 6:30 a.m. at 503-768-7965 (503-768-SNOW). Instructors may also establish a telephone network among class members.
College Resources

Students in the Graduate School of Education and Counseling enjoy access to a variety of resources and services on campus.

Graduate School Registrar
The Graduate Office of the Registrar is open 8 a.m. to 5:15 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday; 8:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. Wednesday; and 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday. The office has extended hours at the beginning of each semester. Hours may vary during summer semester and semester breaks. For specifics call 503-768-6030 or check online at graduate.lclark.edu/dept/gradreg.

Educational Career, Licensing, and Accreditation Services
This office provides career and license advising for Graduate School of Education and Counseling students and graduates. It is the only place on campus where applications for licensure through Oregon's Teacher Standards and Practices Commission are processed. For detailed job search and license information, please visit education.lclark.edu/dept/ecls or call 503-768-6008.

Information regarding applying to become an Oregon Licensed Professional Counselor is available from Marsha White, internship/practicum administrator, Department of Counseling Psychology (503-768-6064).

The Writing Studio
The Writing Studio helps students and staff to learn, teach, and communicate through writing. At the studio, writing turns personal curiosity into inquiry and harnesses the imagination to develop new thinking.

Individual conferences provide assistance with course assignments and professional writing projects. In a single conference, a writer may achieve a clearer understanding of a particular writing task, learn what her or his drafts have communicated, and enrich thinking for further work. The consultant, acting as preview audience, will ask and answer questions and offer suggestions to help move the writer toward project completion. Assistance in preparing resumes and cover letters is also provided through the Writing Studio.

For more information about the Writing Studio, call Marcia Silver at 503-768-6166 or e-mail silver@lclark.edu. Detailed information is also available online at graduate.lclark.edu/dept/wstudio/.
Cashier and Credit Office
The Cashier and Credit Office is located on the lower level of Templeton Student Center, which is on the Fir Acres Campus. The office is open from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday, except the first working day of each month. On the first working day of each month, the office opens at 1 p.m.

For details regarding making a payment to your student account and the services provided by the Cashier and Credit Office, please visit our website at: www.lclark.edu/dept/cashiers. The office may be contacted directly at cashiers@lclark.edu or 503-768-7829.

Student Financial Services
Student Financial Services, located on the lower level of Templeton Student Center, is open from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. For more information call 503-768-7090 or visit the Student Financial Services website at www.lclark.edu/dept/sfs/.

Lewis & Clark Bookstore
The Lewis & Clark Bookstore is located in Templeton Student Center. Bookstore hours vary with the academic calendar. Call 503-768-7885 for specific hours.

The bookstore accepts cash, traveler’s checks, personal checks, and authorized second-party checks. Checks must be imprinted with the signer’s name, current address, and phone number, and should be made out to L&C Bookstore. The bookstore also accepts Visa, MasterCard, American Express, and Discover credit cards.

You may place a credit card order by phone at 503-768-7885. The bookstore can ship your credit card order directly to your home for a modest shipping charge, or they can deliver your order to the Campus Safety Office for you to pick up.

Library
During fall and spring semesters, Aubrey R. Watzek Library is open 24 hours a day from Sunday at 9 a.m. through Friday at 10 p.m. It is open on Saturday from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. During College vacation periods, the library is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Summer hours are 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday, and 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. Reference services are available seven days a week and Sunday through Thursday evenings. For a complete schedule go to library.lclark.edu/lib/hours.htm.

Registered students have full access to a variety of resources and services, such as remote access to over 100 research databases and full interlibrary borrowing privileges. For further information on library services for graduate students, visit library.lclark.edu/lib/grad/gradserv.htm or call 503-768-7285.

Instructional Media Services
Instructional Media Services (IMS) provides audiovisual and multimedia equipment and services in support of a variety of academic and administrative needs. They offer classroom equipment support, equipment loan, multimedia production facilities, consulting and training, and special event support. For more information, visit www.lclark.edu/~infotech/IT/ims.html or call 503-768-7290.

Information Technology
Information Technology, located on the first floor of Watzek Library, is responsible for helping faculty, staff, and students integrate technology into the instructional process and the operations of the College. Information Technology staff assist students in learning to use hardware, software, and peripheral computer equipment; offer training resources such as tutorials or classes; and provide user accounts for accessing College network resources such as e-mail and 24-hour access to microcomputers on campus. For more information, visit www.lclark.edu/~infotech.

Duplicating Services
Photocopies located near the Information Desk in Templeton Student Center and in Watzek Library (both on the Fir Acres Campus) are also available for student use. Copy cards are available for purchase in the graduate registrar’s office, the Cashier and Credit Office in Templeton Student Center, and the library. Students can also make use of the College’s Copy Center, located on the main floor of John R. Howard Hall, across from Watzek Library.

Parking and Transportation
All vehicles parking on any of the College’s campuses must be registered with the College.

During the fall and spring semesters, a parking permit is required for parking on weekdays from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. No permit is required for parking after 7 p.m. on weekdays or at any time on weekends.

Parking restrictions apply to loading zones, no parking zones, handicapped spaces, and spaces reserved for the president’s and deans’ offices are enforced at all times. Unauthorized use of such spaces may result in fines, immobilization, and/or towing at owner expense.

During the summer semester, parking permits are not required for students parking on the South Campus and Fir Acres Campus.

TriMet offers bus service to and from the College. To view TriMet bus schedules, please visit www.trimet.org.

Lewis & Clark College shuttle service is not provided during the summer semester.

For parking permit information and purchase, please visit Campus Safety or call 503-768-7857.
Food Services
College food services are operated by Bon Appétit Management Company. The South Campus Conference Center housed Food for Thought, a café offering soups, salads, sandwiches, wraps, baked goods, snack food, and a variety of drinks. Hours vary by semester, but are typically 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Thursday. The café is closed Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

Fields Dining Room, located in Templeton Student Center, is the main dining room for resident students. Breakfast, lunch, or dinner meal tickets may be obtained from the Food Services Office, located in Templeton Student Center.

Maggie’s, a café and convenience store, is located on the first floor of Roberts Hall. Maggie’s offers smoothies, gourmet desserts, grab-and-go quick meals, some fresh items including fruit and vegetables and, of course, coffee.

The Trail Room, located in Templeton Student Center, offers a variety of foods throughout the day. During fall and spring semesters, hours are from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Friday, and 3 p.m. to 10 p.m. Sunday. Summer hours are 7:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Friday. Vacation schedules may vary.

A beverage vending machine is located in Rogers Hall. Food and beverage vending machines are located in Watsek Library.

Athletics Facilities
The College features a full complement of athletics facilities. Most offer recreational hours during which they are available to the entire campus community, including graduate students.

Located in Griswold Stadium is an eight-lane, quarter-mile, all-weather track. The Huson Sports Complex, down the hill from the Fir Acres Campus, has baseball and softball fields. The College also has six tennis courts—three outdoor courts and three covered by a heated air dome for year-round play.

For information about availability of the recreational facilities, phone 503-768-7060.

Health Services
Located on the lower level of Templeton Student Center, the Health Center provides a variety of health services for all students. Graduate students may participate in a group health plan. Brochures and application forms for the health plan are available in the Cashier and Credit Office.

The Health Center is open 8 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday, September through May.

Counseling Center
The Counseling Center, located on the lower level of Templeton Student Center, on the Fir Acres Campus, offers a broad-based service to facilitate student learning and growth. The center is open September through May, Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to noon and from 1 to 4:30 p.m. For more information, including details regarding summer availability, please call 503-768-7160.

The center also provides vocational, personal, and intellectual testing services.

Student Support Services
The Office of Student Support Services, located in Albany 206 on the Fir Acres Campus, works with students with disabilities and with staff and guests who need special accommodations. For details about requesting accommodations, contact the coordinator of student support services at 503-768-7191 or visit the website at graduate.lclark.edu/dept/access. You may also contact the associate dean of administration at 503-768-6050.

Accreditation

Lewis & Clark College is accredited by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities. It is a member of the American Council on Education, the Association of American Colleges, and the Northwest Association of Private Colleges and Universities. Graduate programs in education and psychology are fully approved and accredited by appropriate associations and agencies, including Oregon’s Teacher Standards and Practices Commission, the Oregon Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists, and the National Association of School Psychologists.

The Graduate School of Education and Counseling at Lewis & Clark College is accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), 2100 Massachusetts Avenue N.W., Suite 500, Washington, DC 20036; phone 202-466-7496. This accreditation covers initial teacher preparation programs and advanced educator preparation programs. NCATE is recognized by the U.S. Department of Education and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation to accredit programs for the preparation of teachers and other professional school personnel.

Section 207 of Title II Higher Education Act

In this section, we report on the regular Preservice Program and then provide data for the Special Education Program. Figures on these two programs are reported separately because the student teaching experience is organized so differently.

(A) Number of students in the regular teacher preparation program at Lewis & Clark:

1. Total number of students enrolled during 2004-05: 102 and 4.

(B) Information about supervised student teaching:

2. Number of students (in the regular program and any alternative route programs) were in programs of supervised student teaching during academic year 2004-05: 102 and 4.

3. Number of supervising faculty who were:

   - Appointed full-time faculty in professional education: 2 and 1.
   - Appointed part-time faculty in professional education, but full time in the institution: 0 and 0.
   - Appointed part-time faculty in professional education, not otherwise employed by the institution: 39 and 1.

   Total number of supervising faculty for the teacher preparation program during 2004-05: 46 and 2.

4. The student/faculty ratio was (the number given in B2 divided by the total number given in B3): 102/46 or 2.22 and 4/2 or 2.

5. The average number of hours per week required of student participation in supervised student teaching in these programs was 23.8 hours in Special Education Program: 40. The total number of weeks supervised student teaching required is 36, in special education: 10. The total number of hours required is 857; in special education: 400.

(C) Information about state approval or accreditation of teacher preparation programs:

6. Is Lewis & Clark’s teacher preparation program currently approved or accredited by the state? X Yes No

7. Is Lewis & Clark’s teacher preparation program currently under a designation as “low-performing” by the state (as per section 208(a) of the Higher Education Act of 1998)? _Yes _X No

Note: See appendix A of the federal guide for the legislative language referring to “low-performing” programs. See Lewis & Clark’s teacher education website at graduate.lclark.edu/dept/lcteach for the full text of the Title II Report.

Equal Opportunity Policy

Lewis & Clark College adheres to a nondiscriminatory policy with respect to employment, enrollment, and program. The College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, sex, national origin, age, handicap or disability, sexual orientation, or marital status and has a firm commitment to promote the letter and spirit of all equal opportunity and civil rights laws, including Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and their implementing regulations.

Questions or complaints regarding the College’s equal opportunity policies and practices may be directed to Jane Atkinson, Vice President and Provost, Lewis & Clark College, 0615 S.W. Palatine Hill Road, Portland, Oregon 97219-7899, 503-768-7200. She is responsible for referring all complaints of discrimination to the chief administrative officer of the undergraduate college, Graduate School of Education and Counseling, or Lewis & Clark Law School, as appropriate.

Campus Safety Policy

The security of all members of the campus community is of vital concern to Lewis & Clark College. Information about safety advice, the enforcement authority of the Office of Campus Safety, policies concerning the reporting of any crimes that may occur on campus, and crime statistics for the most recent three-year period may be requested from the Office of Campus Safety, Lewis & Clark College, 0615 S.W. Palatine Hill Road, Portland, Oregon 97219-7899; 503-768-7855; www.lclark.edu/~safety.
