3) Ethical Guidelines:
Students will obtain and bring a current copy of the ACA or AMFT Ethical Guidelines to class.

Catalog Description:
Basic theoretical assumptions of the counseling profession, with an overview of its historical roots, social, cultural contexts, types of practice, ethical principles, and professional orientation.

Learning Objectives:
Guided by the CACREP standards of learning about professional identity, this class will provide an understanding of:

- History and philosophy of the counseling profession
- Professional roles, functions, and relationships with other human service providers
- Professional organizations like ACA, divisions, functions, and services to members
- Professional credentialing, certification, licensure, accreditation practices, professional organizations, journals and effects on public policy
- The role of professional counselor in advocating on behalf of the profession
- Advocacy processes needed to address institutional and social barriers that impede access, equity, and success for clients
- Ethical standards of ACA and related entities, and applications of ethical and legal considerations in professional counseling
- The current modes and settings of the counseling practice
- How to be conversant about philosophical, ethical, and political issues regarding the role of counselors in various settings through both discussion and writing
- Researching information about counseling which includes the use of technological
Class Assignments/Grading:

1. Attendance and participation: You MUST attend AND PARTICIPATE in all five classes. If an emergency requires that you miss a class or any portion of a class, make up work will be required. The exact content of this makeup assignment will be determined by the instructor. Be prepared, after all assigned chapter readings (see schedule below) to bring 2 questions related to each reading written on a 3x5 card. Be prepared to be randomly selected for leading a small group discussion surrounding the chapters and the questions submitted (due September 15, Sept 22, Sept 29)

Attendance and Participation: 25 points per class/125 total

2. Paper - Two parts
   - Section 1: Describe your interest in the counseling profession and include elements of how this has been informed by your gender and race as well as your cultural, political, philosophical, religious and social contexts. This should also include a description of your personal educational and professional goals. Please do not use your personal statement from your application to the program. This paper should focus on a self-analysis of the impact of your individual, cultural, and social context factors that have influenced you and your decision to become a counselor. Suggested length: 3-4 pages.
   - Section 2: Based on your experiences in your first few weeks in the program, write a self-reflection section that contains thoughtful consideration about your experiences, thoughts, and feelings about entering the profession of counseling, your expectations, surprises, insights, and disappointments. I’m looking for you to express an integrative focus to your views about all of your graduate school experiences so far. Suggested length 1-2 pages. (Due September 29)

Paper: Part 1 - 50 points, part 2 - 25 points = 75 points total

3. Class work creating a history of counseling timeline (during class on September 22).

Timeline: 25 points

4. Final Assignment: Groups comprised of four to five students each will prepare a 20-30 minute power point presentation on a counseling topic determined during the first or second class period. Topics will be generated from student interest. Students must use professional databases and books for information in the presentation. Include information on one appropriate “good” website, and one inappropriate “bad” website using materials provided in class for website evaluation. For a 30 minute presentation this would be around 20 slides. Each group member must equally present part of the power point (due October 6).

Presentation: 50 points

Grading Summary
